Whereas, In addition to the foregoing, the city is intent on satisfying its statutory obligation to give preference to its residents in hiring for publicly funded construction projects pursuant to G. L. c. 149, s. 26.

Therefore, I do hereby order that the following policy take effect as of October 15, 1979:

(1) On any construction project funded in whole or in part by city funds which, in accordance with a federal grant or otherwise, the city expends or administers, and to which the city is a signatory to the construction contract, the worker hours on a craft-by-craft basis shall be performed, in accordance with the contract documents established herewith, as follows:

a. at least 50 percent by bona fide Boston residents; b. at least 25 percent by minorities; c. at least 10 percent by women.

For purposes of this paragraph worker hours shall include work performed by persons filling apprenticeship and on-the-job training positions.

(2) Each department of the City of Boston contracting with any private corporation or person for such construction projects, shall include in all such contracts the provisions of the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation and Residents Preference Section to insure compliance with this Executive Order.

(3) The Equal Employment Opportunity Contract Compliance Office of the City of Boston through the Awarding Authority shall be responsible for monitoring and enforcing the provisions of this Executive Order and the contract provisions established in accordance therewith.

(4) I urge the Boston Redevelopment Authority and the Economic Development and Industrial Corporation to incorporate the provisions of this policy into all the contracts for construction projects which they fund or administer, and to which, in their capacity as owners or signatories.

(5) I direct the Vice-Mayor, the Corporation Counsel, the Assessor, and request the BRA staff to research the legal feasibility of the incorporation of this policy into the General Laws chapter 121A process and if found to be legally feasible, will incorporate this policy into the process and any other tax-related development-incentive process.

(6) I am filing today the City Council a proposed ordinance which will punish those people who would misrepresent facts about themselves in order to become beneficiaries of this program.

KEVIN H. WHITE,
Mayor of Boston.

MDC RINK RENTALS INCREASED

The Metropolitan District Commission announced on September 6, an increase in certain rates for using the twenty-six skating rinks owned by the MDC in the Greater Boston area.

Rink rental by groups for a fifty-minute period this coming season have been increased to $55. Last year's rate was $45. Individuals under the age of eighteen using the rinks will pay 25 cents this year, an increase of 15 cents over last year. The same rate applies to senior citizens. There has been no change in the rate for adults, which stays at 50 cents.

MDC Commissioner Guy A. Carbone said inflation is the main reason for the rate increase. "It costs us $3 million a year to operate our skating rinks," Carbone noted. "In return, our revenue is $730,000. Our costs for maintenance and repairs are constantly increasing. We felt that rather than decrease services and reduce the hours of availability, it made more sense to institute a modest rate increase."

Commissioner Carbone pointed out that the hourly rate of $55 is still considerably below that charged by most rinks. In addition, 80 percent of rink time is used by groups such as youth hockey leagues and public schools and it was felt they should pay a more proportionate share of the cost of operation.

"FACE-LIFT" PLANNED FOR LOWER MILLS

Mayor White announces Neighborhood Development Strategy for Dorchester Lower Mills.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 9, announced the city's Neighborhood Development Strategy for Lower Mills — a revitalized urban village building on the potential of the former Baker Chocolate Company mills for development.

Lower Mills will be a "model commercial center," the Mayor said, as a result of development schemes and improvements to the area proposed by former State Planning Director Frank Keefe in his role as consultant to the White administration.

Dorchester Lower Mills has historically been a vibrant commercial center — it was one of the earliest industrial centers in the United States. It has been stagnating commercially since the former Walter Baker chocolate mills were closed by General Foods in 1965.

Lower Mills complex is to be a prototype of the Neighborhood Development Strategy for the 1980s announced last week.

Lower Mills is the first area to receive the planning expertise of Keefe, working in conjunction with the Boston Redevelopment Authority and the city's Office of Neighborhood Programs and Services.

The business districts of Roslindale and Blue Hill Avenue will be similarly improved to stimulate commercial growth and neighborhood stability in those areas.

The development plan also foresees major recreational use by neighborhood residents of the Neponset River, made possible by a $4.3 million, state-funded Heritage Park to be constructed in the 1980s.

Mayor White likened their potential to that of Quincy Markets and the conversion to retail use of the former Record-American newspaper building in Boston's Winthrop Square.

"It's an ideal opportunity to use a minimum of public funds to stimulate private sector investment," the Mayor said, "much like we've done with the Boston Plan and other projects."

Improvements planned include:

- $100,000 in landscaping and streetscaping, such as trees, bus shelters, and planters in the commercial area along Dorchester Avenue, Washington Street, and around St. Gregory's School;

- $185,000 in improvements to Pierce Square, which is named after Baker Chocolate entrepreneur and former Mayor of Boston Henry Pierce;

- Formation of a Lower Mills Community Development Corporation to explore and coordinate the resources of federal, state, and city programs and funding to facilitate development; and

- Commitment by the City of Boston of $50,000 to Lower Mills out of the Dorchester Business Development Program, which provides 20 percent rebates up to $2,000 to merchants and commercial landlords who upgrade their storefronts.

A vital part of the Lower Mills development strategy is the private sector reuse of the mills, which collectively feature more than 500,000 square feet of building space on 8.5 acres of land.

Proposed new uses include:

- Quality restaurants that will attract regional clientele (Lower Mills has none now);

- Market-rate housing; and

- Street-floor retail establishments that will complement existing businesses in the area.

Also vital to the development scheme is Heritage Park, which will be similar to the facility that enlivened the deteriorating downtown core of Lowell.

Funds for the park need to be approved by the State Legislature, however, and the city would be required to file for planning funds this year so that full funding and construction can begin by 1981.

The Heritage Park includes a visitor center and museum of Lower Mills history as an industrial and commercial center to be operated out of the Walter Baker administration building.

Riverfront walkways skirting the mills along the Neponset River will be established, as will Hannon Park, a small, landscaped area surrounding the visitors center.

The park will be named after John Hannon, who first processed chocolate in a small mill section in 1765. The business was later purchased and expanded by Dr. John Baker in 1780.

Walter Baker later owned the mills, then leased the growing, prosperous company to Henry Pierce, who oversaw explosive growth at the Baker Mills, incorporating all the diverse mills along the Neponset into his chocolate business.

The Baker Mills became one of the largest, chocolate-producing facilities in the nation. Employment grew from 48 to 400 between 1850 and 1890.

Pierce, the driving force behind Baker Mills, died in 1896.

The Baker Chocolate Company was sold in 1927 to General Foods, and that firm closed the mills in 1965 and moved the facility to Delaware.

The buildings themselves however, are structurally sound and architecturally attractive, and are envisioned as the cornerstone for the revitalization of an urban village at Lower Mills in the 1980s.

ADAPTING OLD BUILDINGS TO NEW USES

Historically communities have neglected their aging structures, abandoning or demolishing them while constructing new buildings to meet new demands. Today, however, escalating construction costs, coupled with energy shortages and a scarcity of investment capital, have forced communities to reconsider this wasteful approach. Adaptive reuse of public buildings is one innovative alternative.

A workshop will be held September 19, from 9:30 to 12 noon, at the MAPC fifth floor Conference Room, 44 School Street, Boston.

This workshop will feature a discussion of the advantages and disadvantages of building reuse as well as specific planning tools and techniques pertinent to a successful project. Workshop speakers will include R. Kirk Noyes, an experienced reuse developer; Kenneth Briggs, Lexington planning director and coordinator of the successful Hancock School Reuse Project; Elaine Finbury of Crowninshield Corp., Peabody, a real estate development firm specializing in building rehabilitation; and Kenneth Wong, MAPC planner and author of Adaptive Reuse: A Handbook for Cities and Towns.

MAPC's reuse handbook and other informational materials will be available at the workshop. For more information call MAPC's John Conery at 523-2454.

CITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION

Councillor Louise Day Hicks, on September 5, introduced the following resolution:

Whereas, The people of Boston are facing a life-threatening situation this winter because of the low supply of home heating fuel and soaring prices that federal experts are forecasting; and

Whereas, the energy crisis has struck home to most consumers this past summer when long lines at gas stations were formed because of the "unexpected" gasoline shortage; and

Whereas, The enormity of a home-heating fuel supply shortage that will give rise to sickness and possible death far overshadows the inconvenient delays at gas stations; and

Whereas, The federal Government cannot guarantee adequate winter fuel supplies to the Northeast; and

Whereas, The fuel industry and their distributors have more accurate figures and analysis of their own supply; and

Whereas, The price of home-heating fuel will probably soar to over one dollar a gallon which the citizens of Boston on a fixed income will be hard-pressed to pay for; and

Whereas, Fuel distributors have, in the past, stopped deliveries and refused service to people who will not pay C. O. D., forcing these people to freeze or evacuate the homes; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, requests that spokesmen from the major, home-heating fuel suppliers to Boston residents, appear before the City Council to give an accounting of their fuel supplies and the increased costs; and be it further

Resolved, That the fuel distributors stipulate how they will deal with customers who cannot meet immediate payment of fuel bills.

In City Council September 5, 1979 Adopted.

Attest.

The "Constitution"
Affectionately called "Old Ironsides"

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

Your Honor:

I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with writing proposals by advertising in the City Record, in awarding a contract to the Boston Foundation, Inc., City Hall, Boston, Mass., for the supply of a guide service, information service, and program service in City Hall. The foundation will also employ an events curator to monitor arts exhibitions throughout the major galleries and arts spaces in City Hall. Tour guides wages will average $120 per week for each guide employed Monday through Friday, and an average of $3.25 an hour at other times. The total cost to the city will not exceed $35,000.

Further under this same contract, we would like to request $13,500 for special exhibits, events, and other related services itself and on the Plaza. This would include such items as:

Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall.

The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for street lighting in Glenway Street, Hosmer Street, Page Street, Westville Street, and Woolson Street in Dorchester." and left at Room 714, seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 p.m. of THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1979.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of 5 percent of total bid price, in the form of a bid bond, cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued to the City of Boston. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 801 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of twenty-five dollars ($25), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner or Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called), to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation Section contract provision of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Anti-Discrimination Affirmative Action: During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following:

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. The aforesaid section shall include, but not be limited to, the following employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment advertising; recruitment layoff; termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation; conditions or privileges of employment, and selection for apprenticeship.

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall undertake in good faith affirmative action measures designed to eliminate any discriminatory barriers in the terms and conditions of employment on the grounds of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex, and to eliminate and remedy any effects of such discrimination in the past. Such affirmative action shall include positive measures to ensure equal opportunity in the area of hiring, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment, layoff, or termination, rate of compensation, and in-service or apprenticeship training programs. Such affirmative action shall include all action required to guarantee equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. A purpose of this section is to ensure to the fullest extent possible an adequate supply of skilled tradesmen for this and future city public construction projects.

The contractor and the subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 30 percent ratio of minority employee manhours in each category of the total manhours worked on this contract, including but not limited to bricklayers, carpenters, cement masons, electricians, iron workers, operating engineers, and other classes of work designated by the Contract Compliance Unit, at the time of project advertisement.

The percent ratio requirement of minority employees manhours (paragraph 1) shall be determined in accordance with the city's policy on minority participation in impacted and non-impacted areas, i.e., 30 percent in impacted areas and 10 percent in non-impacted areas.

IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE REQUIREMENT, no bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 30 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph the term minority business enterprise means a business organization in which 51 percent of the beneficial ownership is held by one or more persons who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a minority business and general contractor's letter of intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

A prebid conference will be held at 10 a.m., Wednesday, September 19, 1979, in the Hearing Room, 401 City Hall, One City Hall Square. It is essential that the prospective bidders have a representative attend.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation Section contract provision of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Anti-Discrimination Affirmative Action: During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following:

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. The aforesaid section shall include, but not be limited to, the following: employment upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment advertising; recruitment layoff; termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation; conditions or privileges of employment; and selection for apprenticeship.

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall undertake in good faith affirmative action measures designed to eliminate any discriminatory barriers in the terms and conditions of employment on the grounds of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex, and to eliminate and remedy any effects of such discrimination in the past. Such affirmative action shall include positive measures to ensure equal opportunity in the area of hiring, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment, layoff, or termination, rate of compensation, and in-service or apprenticeship training programs. Such affirmative action shall include all action required to guarantee equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. A purpose of this section is to ensure to the fullest extent possible an adequate supply of skilled tradesmen for this and future city public construction projects.

The contractor and his subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 10 percent ratio of minority employee manhours in each category of the total manhours worked on this contract, including but not limited to bricklayers, carpenters, cement masons, electricians, iron workers, operating engineers, and other classes of work designated by the Contract Compliance Unit, at the time of project advertisement.

The percent ratio requirement of minority employee manhours (paragraph 1) shall be determined in accordance with the city's policy on minority participation in impacted and non-impacted areas, i.e., 30 percent in impacted areas and 10 percent in non-impacted areas.

Specifications and other contract documents will be available on and after Monday, September 17, 1979, at the office of the Commissioner at and after 9 a.m., Boston time.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner and in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, as well as certain public liability and property damage insurance, will be required of the successful general contractor.

The Commissioner reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any and all bids if it be in the public interest so to do.

Surplus Building Disposition Procedures

In order to promote new uses for its surplus public buildings, the City of Boston, through its Public Facilities Department (P.F.D.), has developed a set of procedures which all interested agencies, groups, and individuals should understand. The following is an outline of the steps the city takes in disposing of surplus buildings and the requirements that prospective developers must satisfy:

1. Declaration of surplus property

When a building is scheduled to become surplus, P.F.D. is notified by the city agency (School Department, Fire Department, etc.) that uses it. In turn, P.F.D. determines whether any other city agency has need of the property. Ordinarily the needs of other city agencies are given precedence over private developer interest, especially when those needs are temporary.

2. Evaluation of reuse potential

If no other city use is contemplated for the property, P.F.D. evaluates the building's reuse potential. In making this analysis, P.F.D. draws upon the insights of its own professional architectural/engineering staff and recommendations made by the Boston Redevelopment Authority, Little City Hall managers, and Mayor's Office of Program Development staff. P.F.D. may also call upon outside consultants for detailed feasibility studies. Depending upon this analysis and the interest shown in the building, the department may stipulate a limited range of new uses for the building and, later, may solicit proposals accordingly.

3. Advertisement of surplus properties

In order to select a developer from the broadest range of interested parties, it is the city's policy to publicly advertise the availability of its surplus properties. Advertisements are placed in the two major daily newspapers (the Boston Globe and the Boston Herald-American), in appropriate neighborhood newspapers, and sometimes in certain real estate publications. Advertisements are run for a minimum of two consecutive weeks and may be repeated depending upon the response they elicit.

Advertisements are meant to inform prospective developers of a property's availability and to solicit proposals for its reuse.

They generally provide the following information:

- a brief description of the property;
- the specific new use, if any, the city may be seeking for the property (such as housing);
- the deadline for submitting proposals.

The advertisement also sets forth the information that all prospective developers must submit to the city concerning their proposals. This information is to be expressed in a "Letter of Intent," as discussed below.

4. Response by developers — Letters of Intent

The Public Facilities Department invites proposals from both individuals and organizations, public or private, engaged in profit-making enterprises or nonprofit social service activities. So defined, any developers wishing to express their interest in acquiring and developing surplus buildings and sites must submit the following items in a Letter of Intent:

- Developer's name, address, and description of professional activities and development experience. Names and affiliations of development team members including the architect, contractor, and any other principals involved in the project should be included.

- Detailed statement of proposed reuse. This should include a description of both the activities and physical improvements proposed for the property.

- A financial statement indicating the manner of financing contemplated for the project and the developer's ability to arrange it.

- Discussion of any public benefits associated with the project including purchase price, expected tax revenue, public amenities, etc.

The Public Facilities Department welcomes any additional information which may be of assistance in evaluating the proposal. Schematic drawings, for example, may be helpful. (Elaborate models, however, are discouraged.)

In the course of preparing a proposal, developers may arrange to inspect the property or obtain floor plans by contacting the Surplus Building Coordinator at the Public Facilities Department.

5. Evaluation of proposals

The Public Facilities Department will acknowledge all Letters of Intent and coordinate the review of all proposals. Evaluation criteria include:

- the financial strength and previous experience of the developer;
- the financial feasibility of the proposed project;
- the compatibility of the proposed use or activity with the immediate surroundings and the needs of the neighborhood;
- the quality of the proposed design;
- the general benefits likely to result to the community and the city, including anticipated tax revenue;
- the professional competence and experience of the other principals.

In evaluating proposals P.F.D. is sensitive to the needs and desires of the neighborhood affected by the property and will review proposals, in a public manner, with interested citizens and appropriate community organizations. Furthermore, community organizations interested in developing surplus properties are encouraged to submit their own proposals, following the same procedures that apply to all prospective developers.

At any time during the review of proposals, P.F.D. may ask a developer to provide additional information or detail on any aspect of his/her proposal. Negotiation of a sales price, based on an official property appraisal commissioned by P.F.D., may also take place during this period.

6. "Tentative Developer" selection

Upon completing its evaluation of proposals, P.F.D. staff will summarize its findings and submit a formal report and recommendation, through the director, to the Public Facilities Commission. Key features of the recommended proposal are noted in this report, including: the principals involved in the project, the means of financing proposed, the agreement on taxes (if a profit-making organization) and purchase price, and the anticipated schedule of development.

If based on this information, the commission agrees with the director's recommendation, commission members normally vote their approval. In certain cases the commission may wish to obtain further information about a proposal and will defer a decision until that information is made available.

Once the commission reaches a decision on developer selection, it awards the designation of "Tentative Developer." As the term implies, a Tentative Developer is assured that title to the property will be conveyed to him provided that he satisfies any remaining requirements P.F.D. may impose. Those may include:

- obtaining necessary zoning changes, building permits, and various licenses;
- final agreement on property taxes and purchase price to be paid to the city;
- submission of further design plans acceptable to the city and any of its design review agencies such as the Boston Landmarks Commission.

While final arrangements are pending, the Tentative Developer may also be required to assume responsibility for the property's physical condition and security. Because agreements vary on both the final conditions of sale and the responsibility for the property's protection, P.F.D. will discuss these matters in detail with each individual developer.

7. Final developer designation and conveyance of the property

Under M.G.L., chapter 642, Acts of 1966, the Public Facilities Department is directly responsible for the disposition of all school properties once they are declared surplus by the Boston School Committee. For other municipal properties the approval of the City Council is also necessary, and in all cases the Mayor's final approval is required.

Once the developer has met any outstanding requirements and these approvals have been obtained, the Public Facilities Commission will advertise its formal "Intent to Sell" and "Execution of Sale" (two separate votes are actually required) in the City Record, and at that point may proceed with formal conveyance. As in all legal proceedings, developers are expected to have appropriate legal counsel to work with P.F.D.'s legal staff in transacting the conveyance.

This series on the reuse of surplus buildings was prepared by the Mayor's Office of Program Development, in cooperation with the Public Facilities Department and the Boston Redevelopment Authority, in February, 1979 — Public Facilities Department, Donald B. Manson, Director; Office of Program Development, Wayne A. McNamara, Director; Boston Redevelopment Authority, Robert J. Ryan, Director.

POST OFFICE AUCTION

A public auction of unclaimed and damaged merchandise will be conducted by the Boston Post Office on Thursday, September 27, 1979, at 9 a.m., South Postal Annex, 45 Dorchester Avenue, Boston. Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan has announced.

Items for sale will include books, appliances, tools, clothing, and household accessories. This merchandise may be inspected the day before the sale, Wednesday, September 26, 1979, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sale on auction day will be by lot number only and no examination of merchandise will be permitted.

All articles will be sold on an "as is" basis and no refunds will be made. Payment must be made in cash, and merchandise must be removed either during the sale or immediately after the sale.

The Postmaster advises customers mailing packages to use fiberboard containers strong enough to withstand the weight of contents, and to cushion the contents to make sure they do not move in transit. Package closures should be reinforced with a pressure-sensitive tape, and a return address should be enclosed in the parcel, in accordance with the Postal Service's packaging recommendations.

CARD PROGRAM AIDS FIELDS CORNER BUSINESSMEN

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has received approval of the Fields Corner Commercial Area Revitalization Plan from the state's Department of Community Affairs.

CARD, or commercial area revitalization district, is a state-sponsored program of development incentives which can help local businessmen obtain financing for capital improvements that were formerly available only to industrial enterprises.

Under the CARD program, for example, a local businessman who is interested in expanding his operation is eligible for financing through tax-exempt bonds issued by the Boston Industrial Financing Agency. Such bonds mean that the businessman can finance his expansion with mortgage money that is at least 2 or perhaps 3 percentage points lower than a conventional bank mortgage.

Mayor Kevin H. White said, "Revitalization of our neighborhood commercial areas is a central element in our Neighborhood Development Action Strategy. It is these commercial areas which provide an anchor to our neighborhoods. Any program that can help revitalize the commercial districts helps stabilize the neighborhood as a whole, and CARD certainly has the potential for helping our local businessman."

The BRA has drawn up CARD plans for six other neighborhood commercial areas, including Cleary Square, Grove Hall, Roslindale Square, Dudley Station, and West Broadway.

CARD plans must meet with the approval of the Department of Community Affairs before the BRA can implement the program.

Local businessmen interested in participating in the CARD program should contact the BRA.

UNIFIED FACILITIES PLAN TO BE RELEASED

The Boston Public Schools has moved another important step in preparation for the filing of the Unified Facilities Plan in the U.S. District Court on December 1, 1979. A comprehensive, city-wide analysis which opens further options for discussion at central and district levels will be published and released by October 3.

Following a series of public hearings held early last March, the School Committee, on recommendation of the superintendent, voted to keep all schools open through June of 1980. The recommendation was made in order to allow adequate time for the fullest development of a plan with continuing community involvement. The process and framework was created to include all parties. Community superintendents chair the local Unified Facilities Plan Committees.

"Both the court order and the enrollment picture require school closings. The Unified Facilities Plan will enable the decisions to be made with a result that will benefit the Boston Public Schools and the city," said Dr. Robert Wood, superintendent of schools.

Dr. James Breeden, senior officer for planning and policy for the Boston Public Schools, is coordinating the draft plan. Recommendations have come from groups at the district level as well as a central planning team working over the summer.

"We are still considering many possible solutions and developing further information. The planning process has been quite open. There is no firm list of closings for 1980-81 as yet — nor is there a firm schedule for future closings."

The recommendations in the form of a full draft of the plan will be published the first week of October. During October, these will be reviewed in the school districts. Final recommendations will go to the superintendent in November during which time the School Department, city, and state will agree on the filing they are required to submit jointly to the U.S. District Court on December 1, 1979. This filing will be followed by an assignment plan for elementary students prepared by the Department of Implementation.

The court order on the United Facilities Plan is expected in time for assignments for the 1980-1981 school year.

NEED HELP? TRY "MAINTENANCE CLINIC"

Giving up cigarettes isn't easy to do. Staying off cigarettes is sometimes more difficult. Now there is help for those who kicked the habit and are finding it difficult to keep away from the little sticks that can ruin your health. Thanks to the American Lung Association of Boston, a new concept for helping people to remain a non-smoker, called a "Maintenance Clinic" will be available to anyone who wants and needs help.

Starting on Wednesday, September 26, and continuing every fourth Wednesday of the month at the Jackson-Mann Community School, 500 Cambridge Street, Allston, Maintenance Clinics will be conducted free of charge. The hours of the clinic will be 7 to 9 p.m.

Subjects to be covered include weight control, exercise, relaxation techniques, alternatives, and assertiveness. Speakers on the various subjects will provide the latest information, group discussions will take place, support will be given, and literature and other aids for the non-smoker will be distributed.

For more information about the program, call the American Lung Association of Boston at 426-8330. The clinics are free so you have nothing to lose. If you don't stay off cigarettes, you may lose some years off your life. The decision is yours.

TOWNHOUSES PLANNED FOR FORT AVENUE, ROXBURY

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has designated a community-based developer, HiPark Development Corporation, to construct eight, single-family townhouses on Fort Avenue in Roxbury.

The site, which covers 13,425 square feet, is currently vacant land.

Mayor Kevin H. White said, "This is the first time in many years that single-family homes will be built in an inner city neighborhood. It is an indication that this city, as it enters the 1980s, is becoming more and more attractive as a place to live. It is doubly significant that what is now vacant land will be returned to productive uses."

The single-family units, which will be attached, will represent an investment in excess of $300,000.

Conventional financing will be utilized for this development and the units will be sold at market-rate housing.

HiPark Development is purchasing the site from Housing Innovations, Inc., which had been designated to construct infill housing units.

HiPark Development Corporation is a private company formed to develop residential property in the Roxbury and Highland Park areas. Principals in the company include Hassell McCellan, Fletcher Wiley, Richard Taylor, Edward R. Redd, Kenneth Edelin, Arthur Duffy, and Christopher Dunn.

In the past years, the development firm has undertaken the renovation of five properties on Fort Avenue, adjacent to the site of the new, single-family units now being planned.

In other action, the BRA also voted to advertise for a street reconstruction contract for Walnut Avenue, Homestead Street, Townsend Street, Cobden Street, and Hutchings Street in Washington Park. The work will consist of paving, sidewalks, curbing, new drains, street lights, and traffic signal systems.

The BRA also approved a $99,000 contract to carry out emergency repairs in the Cox Building in John Eliot Square. The Cox Building was recently designated a historic landmark by the Boston Landmarks Commission. The building will be restored as part of the John Eliot Square project.

POETRY AND DRAMA SYMPOSIA AT BPL

Children's Books International V, sponsored by the Boston Public Library in cooperation with the Boston Globe, will be held in celebration of the International Year of the Child, now through October 31, in Boston's Central Library, Copley Square. Primarily consisting of a major exhibit of about 4,000 books in English and foreign languages from more than fifty countries, the fifth annual event will be a two-day-long symposia on the subject "Poetry and Drama in the International Year of the Child," featuring talks and papers presented by American and foreign librarians, translators, poets, authors, and television personalities involved in TV drama for children. All adults interested in attending the talks or meeting the speakers may indicate their intention in advance by writing to the Programs Office of the Library, or calling 536-5400, extension 348 or 231.

Admission to the programs of the symposia is free.

Both adults who guide and inspire children in their reading and creative efforts and children of all ages are invited to browse among the many books in Children's Books International V at the Boston Public Library. By encouraging the children to handle and read the books from many lands, the Library hopes to aid them in gaining a better understanding of their contemporaries.

The Boston Globe, the Boston Public Library, and the Eastern Massachusetts Regional Library System invite all children to take part in a competition on why children need books. Children may submit a poem, write a story, draw or paint a picture, or compose music or a song to indicate their reasons why.

An entry form for the Children Need Books competition may be picked up at the Children's Books International V exhibit in the Boston Public Library. Entries must be submitted by October 31, 1979. Prizes in the competition include publication in a booklet and/or exhibition at a library or book fair. Winners will be announced during Children's Book Week, November, 1979.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM PRESENTS: "BUBBLES OVER BOSTON"

Bubbles galore — giant bubbles, bubble honeycombs, and bubble domes — will be floating over Boston's waterfront on Saturday, September 29, as the Children's Museum stages "Bubbles Over Boston."

Visitors can try their hand at making bubbles twice as big as basketballs, square bubbles, and beautiful bubble domes.

Museum staff members will be creating giant soap film windows that split the light into all the colors of the rainbow; a machine made from a coffee percolator will fill the air with "floating grapes."

Inside the Museums' Shop, two, air-powered bubble sculptures will be on display: a bubble chimney in which bubbles rise continuously inside a plexiglass cylinder; and a bubble sandwich of plastic sheets enclosing moving bubbles.

"Bubbles Over Boston" celebrates the publication by Little, Brown and Company of "A Children's Museum Activity Book: Bubbles," and Bernie Zubrowski, author, museum staff member, and Boston's bubble expert, will be directing the day's events, autographing his book, and talking to children and adults about his adventures with bubbles.

Events take place from 12 noon to 2 p.m. on the deck of Museum Wharf, in the Museum's Shop and in the Exhibit Center.

Admission to the events in the Museum's Shop and on the deck is free; admission to the Exhibit Center is $3 for adults and $2 for children, three to fifteen.

The Children's Museum is at Museum Wharf, 300 Congress Street, on Boston's waterfront. For travel and exhibit information, call the What's Up Line at 426-8855.

QUICK THINKING

Coming home late one night from a meeting, a minister saw one of his own parishioners staggering down the street. Always ready to help a friend, the minister took the man home. At the man's door, the fellow pleaded with the minister to come inside with him. The minister insisted it was too late.

"Please Reverend," the man said. "Just for a minute. I want my wife to see who I been out with tonight."

CITY OF BOSTON

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Highway Reconstruction in Faywood Avenue, Haynes Street, Henry Street, Marion Street, Maverick Square, Paris Street and Winthrop Street, in East Boston.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall, invites proposals for highway reconstruction in Faywood Avenue, Haynes Street, Henry Street, Marion Street, Maverick Square, Paris Street and Winthrop Street, in East Boston.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), City Hall.

The proposal should be signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposals for Highway Reconstruction in Faywood Avenue, Haynes Street, Henry Street, Marion Street, Maverick Square, Paris Street and Winthrop Street, in East Boston," and left at Room 714, seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 p.m. of THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1979.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of 5 percent of total bid price in the form of a bid bond, cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued to the City of Boston. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 801 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate, to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of twenty-five dollars ($25), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation Section contract provision of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all the subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Anti-Discrimination Affirmative Action: During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following:

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. The aforesaid section shall include, but not be limited to, the following: employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment advertising; recruitment layoff; termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, conditions or privileges of employment, and selection for apprenticeship.

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall undertake in good faith affirmative action measures designed to eliminate any discriminatory barriers in the term and conditions of employment on the grounds of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex, and to eliminate and remedy any effects of such discrimination in the past. Such affirmative action shall include positive measures to ensure equal opportunity in the area of hiring, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment, layoff, or termination, rate of compensation, and in-service or apprenticeship training programs. Such affirmative action shall include all action required to guarantee equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. A purpose of this section is to ensure to the fullest extent possible an adequate supply of skilled tradesmen for this and future city public construction projects.

The contractor and his subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 30 percent ratio of minority employee manhours in each category of the total manhours worked on this contract, including but not limited to bricklayers, carpenters, cement masons, electricians, iron workers, operating engineers, and other classes of work designated by the Contract Compliance Unit, at the time of project advertisement.

The percent ratio requirement of minority employees manhours (paragraph 1) shall be determined in accordance with the city's policy on minority participation in impacted and non-impacted areas, i.e., 30 percent in impacted areas and 10 percent in non-impacted areas.

IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE REQUIREMENT, no bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 30 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business organization in which 51 percent of the beneficial ownership is held by one or more persons who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a minority business and general contractor's letter of intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

A prebid conference will be held at 10 a.m., Wednesday, October 3, 1979, in the Hearing Room, 401 City Hall, One City Hall Square. It is essential that the prospective bidders have a representative attend.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 71

MONDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1979

NO. 40

ROSLINDALE SQUARE TO BE REVITALIZED

Mayor White calls Roslindale Square Revitalization Plan "an innovative blueprint for commercial progress."

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 19, unveiled a comprehensive commercial revitalization plan for Roslindale Square designed to strengthen the traditional commercial area through new retail and residential activity, coupled with improved traffic and parking management proposals.

The commercial centerpiece of the new plan is a pedestrian mall at Taft Court which cuts between existing businesses in the heart of the square. The new walkway will link the Corinth and South Street shopping areas into a more cohesive business district.

That mall will also provide added commercial opportunities and locations in the center of the square. New activity could center around restaurants, expansion of existing shops, and a farmers' market-style produce store.

Said Mayor White, "This new pedestrian mall doesn't look like much now, but neither did Quincy Market when we started that project a few short years ago. The pedestrian mall does form a spine for the commercial district. We are going to strengthen that spine to infuse Roslindale Square with a new vitality."

The residential centerpiece of the multi-phased plan is the conversion of the former Roslindale High School into housing for the elderly, and elderly service agencies for the Roslindale Square area. Five private developers have already expressed interest in rehabilitating the structure which was closed in 1976 by School Department reorganization.

Said Mayor White, "Both these plans have developed from ideas that grew in the community. That's a key part of the Neighborhood Development Action Strategy. This is really an innovative blueprint for future commercial progress."

The Neighborhood Development Action Strategy, a new policy approach to local development announced by Mayor White earlier this month, aims at fostering neighborhood commercial development by capitalizing on the significant city investments of the past decade.

Roslindale Square is a model of this unified planning approach. The Lower Mills Revitalization Project announced last week, is another prototype for neighborhood development in the 1980s.

Said Mayor White, "For the first time in half a century, Boston is in the enviable position of managing development opportunities rather than trying to attract developers. We can afford to set the standards for future development in the neighborhoods. Our goal will be to maintain the character of the neighborhood while enhancing its commercial vitality."

Public improvements in Roslindale Square range from the building of two, off-street parking lots, to sodium vapor lighting for the square, to the continual improvements to Adams Park.

Another part of the revitalization strategy for Roslindale Square calls for the development of a revised traffic and parking pattern designed to improve traffic flow and expedite parking for shopping.

Future development initiatives in the square deal with the potential for a new supermarket in the area, and the possibility of developing a new train station when rail service resumes on the Needham branch in 1985.

Program Targets in Roslindale Square Revitalization

1. Streetscape
2. Taft Court Pedestrian Way
3. Storefronts
4. C.A.R.D. designation
5. Community/Local Development Corporation
6. Suffolk Franklin Bank
7. Commercial Reuse Opportunities
8. Roslindale High School
9. Transportation
10. Traffic Improvements
11. Parking
12. Train Station
13. New Supermarket

Streetscape Improvements for Roslindale Square

Poplar Street will be relieved of the burden of through-traffic and converted to a single lane without sacrificing existing parking.

That can mean:

—Sidewalks can be widened on both sides of Poplar Street in the square area.

—Adams Park can be extended westerly at the South Street intersection to reduce the asphalt area.

—Neckdowns can be installed to provide for greater pedestrian crossing ease.

—Plants, benches, trees can all be added, and the sidewalks can be paved with brick.

Corinth Street can also be relieved of through-traffic under the plan, and comparable improvements can be made there.

Taft Court Pedestrian Way

The proposed pedestrian way cuts through the heart of the Roslindale commercial district on the site of the demolished Parke-Snowe Department Store, providing public passage from South Street to Corinth Street.

This new shortcut, which means quicker access from the South Street commercial area to the Corinth Street area, also has the potential to become a prime location for commercial development within the square. New activity in this mall could center around restaurants, new entrances into existing shops to maximize their volume, and a farmers' market-style produce store.

Initial city investment for shaping up the area would total $40,000 in capital budget monies as soon as the acquisition of the land is finalized. That would cover initial grading and paving, and lighting of the area.

More sophisticated design and implementation could be covered by UDAG grants.

Storefronts

Public improvements in a commercial area are designed to enhance private investments.

The storefronts in Roslindale Square are a hodgepodge of design and signing approaches.

Now, Roslindale Square merchants have formed a Design Review Committee, and are using design guidelines provided by the city to bring some harmony to the look of Roslindale Square.

This commercial area is the first in the city to be able to take advantage of two important programs for storefront renovation:

—Restore — This program, funded by block-grant monies, offers 20 percent rebates up to $1,000 for storefront renovation in eligible areas. The city has earmarked $15,000 for Roslindale Square, and will increase that commitment over the next two years if merchants respond.

—Section 312 Loan Program — This HUD program will fund one half of major renovations with 3 percent loans for eligible businesses which meet the established guidelines. The maximum share is $100,000.

Roslindale High School

Roslindale High School, closed in 1976, the victim of School Department reorganization, has been designated for reuse as elderly housing. Part of that large building will be set aside to house elderly service organizations which are currently located in the commercial area of the square.

Advertising has already been done for private developers to make the conversion.

City Improvements

Since the late 1960s, when the decline of the Roslindale retail district was at its lowest ebb, the city has continued efforts to bolster the sagging economy of the square with a variety of investments:

—The old municipal building was converted into a Little City Hall and a neighborhood center.

—A plaza was designed outside the municipal building with landscaping, benches, and a bus shelter.

—The Taft Hill parking lot was reconstructed and equipped with new lighting.

—The vacant Rialto Theatre was demolished and the site converted to an off-street parking lot.

A rate of $4 per inch of 12 lines (set solid) has been established for such advertisements as under the law must be printed in the City Record. Advertising and other copy must, except in emergencies, be in hand at the City Record office by noon, Monday of each week to insure its publication in the following Monday's issue.

—Roslindale Square was illuminated with sodium vapor lights.

—Adams Park was continually improved, and modest improvements continue to this day.

—In 1978, the city engaged Ryan and Elliott to perform a market study of the square area to determine its future commercial viability.

—The Harrington, Keefe and Schork study was commissioned.

Suffolk Franklin Park

The Suffolk Franklin Bank, currently housed on Birch Street, has purchased the Corey Market property at the corner of Corinth and Cohasset Streets, and the Astoria Motors parcel which backs it on Washington Street.

Design is under way for a 5,000 square-foot, branch bank office with a strong possibility of additional space for an office tenant. The Astoria property will provide the bank with adequate parking and with access for a drive-through window.

The Suffolk Franklin project will cost up to $1,000,000, and should be under construction in 1980.

Commercial Reuse Opportunities

Four outstanding possibilities exist in Roslindale Square for the upgrading of multi-story structures, perhaps with retail on the ground floors and offices above.

—the Mason's Block at the corner of Birch Street and Belgrade Avenue;

—the spa at the corner of Corinth and Washington Streets; and —the Popular Street brick buildings at 17-21 and 41-45 Poplar Street.

New Supermarket

The community of Roslindale has a difficult decision to make: it must come to a consensus on whether a new supermarket could benefit the neighborhood.

The supermarket industry must decide whether Roslindale Square is a viable business location.

Both questions should be explored with an open mind.

It is important to remember that putting a new supermarket in Roslindale Square would not represent a radical break with the past. There were four of them there at one time.

Two potential supermarket sites have been discussed. The site of the present city parking lot at Taft Hill represents the better of two options.

The city is committed to assist and finance the relocations of any property owner or tenant displaced through a publicly supported development program.

Traffic Improvements

The aim of the traffic component of this plan is to improve the traffic pattern in the overall context of a successful redevelopment strategy.

The objectives are:

- reinforce Poplar and Corinth Streets as shopping, service, and parking streets by relieving them of through-traffic;

- improve the flow of through-traffic by segregating it onto streets which are not serving local commercial functions;

- avoid excessive and speculative demolition; and

- plan a project that can be implemented sooner rather than later.

Parking

Many of the parking problems confronted by merchants in the square can be overcome by an organized parking management agreement in which individual businesses join the city and the board of trade, and a CDC in a formal agreement.

Merchants and employees must cooperate by parking in the South Street lots, freeing up the metered parking spaces for patrons.

Train Station

Rail transportation on the Needham branch serves this area, but will be suspended for the duration of Southwest Corridor construction on the Orange Line. Resumption of service is slated for 1985.

Roslindale people are united in their desire for rail service to return. They believe that an attractive station will enhance the commercial appeal of the square.

Plans have been developed for such a proposal.

C.A.R.D. Designation

The City of Boston has established Roslindale Square as a Commercial Area Revitalization District (CARD).

That designation, designed to upgrade older urban business centers through financial incentives previously only available to industrial development for new or expanding commercial ventures, means:

- low interest mortgages, levered by the sale to financial institutions of federally tax-exempt revenue bonds;

- state mortgage insurance on a portion of private loans secured for the rehabilitation of an existing building; and

- property tax relief for certain new or expanding businesses with five or more employees and Massachusetts corporate tax liability.

Community/Local Development Corporation

The city strongly recommends that Roslindale form a community development corporation. That CDC, which could make sure that incoming money was wed to neighborhood initiative, sensitivity, and participation, could function as a formal conduit for state and federal business programs, and as the informal packager of other initiatives in the square.

In addition the Roslindale CDC could:

- cosponsor commercial development in new and reused buildings;

- channel state and federal financing assistance to small businesses;

- use state commercial financing tools available in CARD districts;

- coordinate storefront improvements;

- and manage cooperative promotional, security, and parking programs.

EAT, DRINK AND BE HAPPY!

The Annual Dinner Dance of the Municipal Clerks' Association will be held at Moseley's on the Charles, 50 Bridge Street, Dedham, on Tuesday evening, October 16, 1979, at 7 p.m.

As on previous occasions the affair is being held for the members, each of whom may bring a female guest. The dinner, which will consist of delicious tenderloin of beef and chicken, will be served with all the fixings promptly at 7 p.m., during and after which we will be entertained by a special program of talent hired exclusively for this event. There will also be dancing and refreshments.

As is the custom at our association affairs, tickets will be issued to members individually, or for a member and female guest. The burden of the cost, including tips for the meals will be borne by the association, with the assessment of tickets set at $7.50 for a member, or $15 for a member and female guest. Because arrangements must be made in advance, no tickets can be sold at Moseley's. Tickets will be sold to members, and members only, up to and including Friday, October 12, 1979.

In light of the successes of previous years, the committee anticipates another enjoyable evening for the members and their wives or sweethearts.

For reservations, please contact William J. Coughlin, at the Auditing Department, Room M-4, or John T. Gorman, Room 714, City Hall, or to your department representative immediately.

Fraternally yours,
The Entertainment Committee,
WILLIAM J. COUGHLIN,
Chairman.

FIRE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS SAFETY SHOW

The Boston Fire Department's annual Fire Safety Show will have its grand opening on Saturday, October 6th at 12 noon, at Waterfront Park. This year, the show which is held to coincide with National Fire Prevention Week, will include added attractions and surprises, as well as the crowd pleasing demonstrations of firefighting, rescue, and underwater recovery operations. The show is free and open to the public.

Mayor Kevin H. White said, "I urge every Bostonian to attend the Fire Safety Show. Not only will you have the opportunity to watch the country's oldest and finest firefighting organization in action, but you can learn life-saving, home fire safety as well."

Echoing Mayor White's sentiments, Fire Commissioner George H. Paul said, "As Commissioner and Chief of the Boston Fire Department, I take a great deal of pride in the work our firefighting and rescue companies perform day in and day out, twenty-four hours a day. The Fire Safety Show also gives us an opportunity to meet the public and explain the many other public services we perform."

Among the added attractions will be daily demonstrations by the Boston Fire Department Aerial Drill Team, a specially trained group of Boston fire fighters who perform precision drills on aerial ladders high above exhibition grounds. Another guaranteed attraction will be the Simulated Tiller Seat, where would-be fire fighters of all ages can experience the unforgettable thrill of riding the streets of Boston to respond to a fire emergency. Complete with a looped film which gives the "rider" the feel of maneuvering the rear of a mammoth ladder truck and the sounds of blaring sirens, klaxons, and recorded chatter from actual Fire Alarm communications, the tiller seat attracted thousands at last year's show.

There will also be drawings each of the three days for free fire-safety related prizes such as smoke detectors, fire extinguishers and T-shirts. Special Boston Fire Department Junior Fire Fighter badges will be given to the first 1,000 children who attend the show.

Fire apparatus of every type and description will be on exhibit on the show grounds and the entire waterfront/market area.

The WHDH mobile studio will be broadcasting live from the show at Waterfront Park and will feature their well-known, on-air personalities, Sean Casey, Chuck Morgan, and Tom Kennedy. They will also have helium balloons and other items on hand.

TV-38's Willie Whistle will also be on hand to provide his usual high-jinks to the delight of children and parents alike.

Another new dimension to this year's show is a first of its kind fire safety contest, sponsored jointly by the Boston Fire Department and the Boston Herald-American with assistance from the Burns Prevention Project of the Shriners Burns Unit. Known as "Firewatch," the contest will run each day from Monday, October 1st, through Friday, October 5th, and will give readers of all ages an opportunity to learn fire and burn safety and to win an assortment of fire safety prizes as well. Also, the first 200 people to attend the opening on Saturday will receive a free Herald-American.

To assuage any hunger pains, the Colonial Provision Company will have their "Fenway Frankmobile" on hand which will provide Fenway franks and a soft drink at a very modest price with all proceeds going to the Jimmy Fund.

The City of Boston Parks and Recreation Department will be providing free ice cream and other goodies for the children and the Office of Celebrations will have the Jack Ward Trio on hand to provide toe-tapping live entertainment.

So, come one, come all to the Boston Fire Department's Fire Safety Show at Waterfront Park. The grand opening is at 12 noon, Saturday, October 6th.

MAYOR ANNOUNCES WINNER OF JAMES MICHAEL CURLEY STATUE COMPETITION

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 23, presided at the announcement of the winner of James Michael Curley statue competition.

Lloyd Lillie of Newton was selected to build the Curley statue based on his conception of a "dual" image of former Mayor Curley — the tough Mayor prepared to do battle for the cause he espoused, and the man who personally attended the public he served — especially those out of work.

The concept involves two figures, one standing, with his hands on his hips; and one seated in "approachable" manner on a park bench in the grassy green to be known as Curley Park, across from Boston City Hall on the Congress Street side.

Mayor White said the portrayal of Curley "is in keeping with the duality of Curley's appeal — a man of authority and a man with a genuine concern and compassion for the public he served."

Lillie's model was selected by judges for the Boston Art Commission which commissioned the statue.

Members of the Curley family and the Commission joined the Mayor in viewing the model.

Within one year, Lillie will erect a statue to Curley on the site.

It will stand as a monument to one of the most colorful figures in Boston's rich political history — and the city's only four-term Mayor to date.

Curley's four terms as Mayor of Boston include: 1914-1917; 1922-1925; 1930-1933; and 1946-1949.

He won his first public office in 1900 — a seat on the Common Council.

Curley's first term began on the heels of the final term of John F. ("Honey Fitz") Fitzgerald, grandfather of Senator Edward M. Kennedy, in 1914. He was Mayor during World War I and after World War II and his terms as Mayor were the political highlights of a career that spanned fifty years in public life, including tenures as State Representative, Governor, Congressman, and other offices.

His real love, however, was being Mayor of Boston. He held the position one, four-year term every decade for four decades until voters opted for John B. Hynes for Mayor in 1950, ending his political career.

Curley died in 1958. He is buried in Calvary Cemetery, Roslindale.

HALF-PRICE BOOK SALE AT BPL

These are leftover books from a sale held in July, which will be sold at half the original price on Friday and Saturday. The books cover a wide range of categories and will be priced from 25¢ and upward.

MBTA CLEANUP CAMPAIGN PROGRESSES

MBTA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Robert L. Foster, on September 20, announced that the MBTA has begun the first phase of a system-wide cleanup campaign designed to make riding the system a more pleasant experience.

"Since the campaign began on September 15, 1979, the MBTA wash crews and maintenance crews have made substantial progress. Government Center Station on the Blue Line (lower level) has been steam cleaned, and columns and the ceilings have been painted, and the entire station has been washed. The State Street Station on the Orange Line northbound and Blue Line portion have had all the tiles washed and the columns painted. Finally, the outside of the granite kiosks at Park Street Station and Boylston Street Station have all been cleaned by a water-blasting process," Foster stated.

"My first priority in this program will be the cleaning of major downtown Boston stations. As the program continues, other stations in Boston and the suburbs will be cleaned," Foster said.

"It is my intention to also institute a cleanup campaign for all of the MBTA revenue vehicle fleet. This includes buses, rapid transit cars, commuter rail and trolleys," Foster added.

"While this will most certainly be a long process, it is one that I feel most strongly about. It will show the riding public what good management and good maintenance can do together," Foster said.

"I ask all of our riders who want to help us make this cleanup campaign a success to send their comments and suggestions to Ms. Anne Doyle, Public Affairs and Information Department, 50 High Street, Boston, MA 02110, or phone Anne at 722-5215. Public participation is what we at the MBTA would like to see and encourage in this mammoth effort," Foster concluded.

HUB KINDERGARTEN OPENED

Kindergarten classes for Boston Public School children began on Monday, September 24. Approximately 7,000 children are currently enrolled in kindergarten; some 2,600 of these will require transportation to their assigned schools. This year the School Department is instituting a new transportation policy in connection with kindergarten students and the following information is of key importance:

1) Transportation notices were mailed on September 17 to parents of all kindergarteners eligible for transportation. (General rule: transportation is available for all those who live over one mile from their school.)

2) These notices refer to street corner pickup points. No child should have to walk more than one-quarter of a mile to a pickup point.

3) Parents are advised to form networks so that there will be an adult at each pickup point both for the trips to and from school.

Buses and mini-buses will have monitors. School Department officials, transportation and security units, as well as principals and teachers, will do everything to insure safety and a smooth transition to this new policy. Any questions should be addressed to the School Information Center, 726-6555, or your assigned school or district office.

MAYOR STATES OPPOSITION TO PROPOSED MBTA SERVICE CUTS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 17, announced his opposition to proposed service cuts by the MBTA. Those cuts would directly effect ridership in West Roxbury by terminating bus service to Boston Latin.

Mayor White said, "The amount of money to be saved from the service cuts proposed by the MBTA is in no way sufficient to justify the inconvenience to the people who use those routes."

Mayor White said the "condition and performance of the MBTA should be a topic of immediate concern to all communities it serves.

"It's a fact that the quality of service has deteriorated badly in the past year," said the Mayor.

"In a year in which practically every other major American city is experiencing substantial increases in ridership — Boston's increase is minimal.

"That's inexcusable, because there's a national energy crisis that is literally forcing people to make an economic decision in favor of public transportation — and Boston should be benefiting from that trend."

Mayor White pointed out that comparing June, 1979, ridership with ridership in June of 1978, Boston's transit system suffered badly by comparison with other cities.

Amen." — Pope John Paul II, October 1, 1979.

His Holiness Pope John Paul II visited the United States for seven days starting October 1. The Pope deplaned at Logan Airport at 3 p.m., where he was officially welcomed on his historic visit by Rosalynn Carter, Cardinal Humberto Medeiros, Governor Edward King, and Mayor Kevin H. White.

The Pope addressing the multitude on the Common said "Today I stand at this gateway to the United States, and again I greet all of America, for its people, wherever they are, have a special place in the love of the Pope."

The Pope and his motorcade was viewed by more than one million persons along Boston's ethnic and historic neighborhoods. A prayer service took place at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross for 2,000 priests and nuns and a beautiful Pontifical Mass followed on the oldest park in the United States, the famous Boston Common. The Mass was attended by an estimated 400,000 persons, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, who waited more than ten hours, during an on and off rainstorm, to view the Pontiff.

Referring to the young people he said, "Whatever you make of your life, let it be something that reflects the love of Christ." Later during the Petitions of Faith at the Papal Mass, the intercessor included this prayer: 'Restore to complete health our wounded brother Darryl Williams.'

The Pope's visit included appearances in New York, where he addressed the United Nations, and made a plea to the whole world for justice and peace. He also visited the cities of Philadelphia, Des Moines, Chicago, and Washington D.C., where he met with President Carter.

During his homily on the Common, he praised the United States. "On this first day of my visit, I wish to express my esteem and love for America itself, for the experience that began two centuries ago and that carries the name United States of America."

The Pontiff concluded with a special prayer, "May God's peace descend on this City of Boston, and bring joy to every conscience and joy to every heart."

EDITOR'S NOTE: We commend Mayor White, his hardworking staff, the Police Department, and the city in general for their all-out efforts in welcoming the Pope and extending to him the red-carpet treatment that he so richly deserved.

COLUMBUS DAY

Christopher Columbus, Genoese (1451-1506), as a schoolboy in Genoa, Italy, studied mathematics and astronomy and became an expert at map making and charts. As he advanced in age, he became an experienced sailor and decided that the east could be reached by sailing west, for he, with other learned geographers, knew that the earth was a globe. He determined to sail west to prove his point. Financed by his friends, King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, he set sail on August 3, 1492, to discover the new world. The three vessels he used on his venture were the Santa Maria, Pinta, and Nina.

At 2 a.m. on the morning of October 12, 1492, he discovered land and named it San Salvador (Bahamas). Cruising in the West Indies, he also discovered the islands of Hispaniola (Haiti) and Cuba. He returned to Spain triumphantly, and the following year returned to the West Indies and discovered many more islands. He made another visit again in 1498, and coasted along the shores of North America.

From this expedition he was returned in chains, accused of cruelty and misgovernment. Cleared of these charges later, he made a fourth voyage to the new world in 1502, skirting the shores of Honduras, in Central America.

Ed. Note: Columbus Day is October 12. This year it is observed on October 8.

NUTRITION CENTER PLANNED FOR BOSTON

The Boston Redevelopment Authority on September 20, gave final approval for plans by Tufts University and the United States Department of Agriculture to develop a $20-million national center for human nutrition at the corner of Stuart and Washington Streets.

The nutrition center will be a 15-story building containing approximately 200,000 square feet of space. The proposed site consists of 13,000 square feet of land owned by the BRA in the South Cove Urban Renewal project.

Approval of the nutrition center plan came after officials from Tufts and the Department of Agriculture agreed to an employment policy which gives preference to Boston residents. It is expected that the nutrition center will provide employment to 250 persons.

In addition, Tufts and the Department of Agriculture will give preference to Boston-based businesses in the purchase of materials for the nutrition center.

The nutritional center has further agreed to submit an annual report to the city to show that it is maintaining the preferential policy for Boston residents and Boston-based businesses in its hiring and purchasing practices.

Mayor Kevin H. White hailed the BRA action, noting, "This is a vivid example of how we can make development in this city work to the economic benefit of city residents and city businesses. Earlier, Tufts-New England Medical Center agreed to pay the city a head tax on each of its employees in lieu of taxes. That policy also encourages the medical center to give preference to Boston residents in its hiring policies. We feel this is a breakthrough for the city, a way in which those who live in Boston benefit most directly from those who build in Boston."

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan said the nutrition center also fits in with the BRA's program to revitalize Boston's theatre district.

Ryan said, "It is important that we introduce new life and activity into the theatre district, both day and night. This building is consistent with our overall plan to upgrade Stuart Street. We are also pleased that construction of the nutrition center will provide approximately 650 jobs for the building trades."

The nutrition center will house a multidisciplinary research team whose purpose is to determine and clarify human nutritional requirements with emphasis on adults and aging.

Ryan said that construction could begin within the next month or so.

According to Tufts and the Department of Agriculture, the scientific program of the center will address the nutritional requirements for optimal health and well-being, including improvements in methods for monitoring the nutritional status of the population.

The center will also study how diet and nutritional status influences the aging process and how diet, in combination with other factors, can prevent or retard diseases and aging.

Ryan also expressed satisfaction at the cooperative attitude shown by federal officials and Tufts University regarding design guidelines suggested by the BRA. The design guidelines were important, he said, because the proposed Music Hall expansion will front on Stuart Street, adjacent to the nutritional center.

BRA plans for the South Cove renewal project have always called for the widening of Stuart Street and the closing of Dore Street, which runs next to Wilbur Street. At the same time, a small street to service the Music Hall and the nutritional center will be built off Stuart Street so that vehicles servicing those facilities will not block traffic on Stuart Street.

"THROBBING NEEDLES" AT CITY HALL

t "seams" like art at Boston City Hall.

Tapestry, quilts, soft sculpture, and unusual articles of clothing will be on display in Boston City Hall's fifth floor Main Gallery, November 2 to 29. The exhibit, entitled, "Throbbing Needles II," is sponsored by Silver Threads and Golden Needles (STGN), a collaborative of women artists that has transformed the art of sewing into the sewing of art.

The exhibit will highlight a retrospective of the collective and its impact on their individual ideas and inspirations. The development of their work will be featured from beginning pillow projects to large scale abstract quilts and wall hangings. Many of these works are featured in "The Contemporary Quilt: New American Quilts and Fabric Art," a popular document of contemporary quilts and abstract fabric art, written by Pattie Chase, writer and STGN member. Sections of the group log and photographs of their works in progress will also be integrated into the exhibit format.

This unusual exhibit will represent everything from traditional to contemporary quilts and from folk art to abstract displays.

The Main Gallery at Boston City Hall is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. This exhibit is cosponsored by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs.

SHADRAWY JOINS '79 UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN

MBTA CRACKS DOWN ON PICKPOCKETS

MBTA commuters have heard the warnings: "Watch your wallets and handbags; there are pickpockets on this train." Now it's the pickpockets who must watch themselves and they will be given no warning as the MBTA Police CARE units are being deployed into action.

On September 22, the first CARE unit was sent to Park Street Station and four pickpockets were arrested for larceny.

MBTA Police Chief John Dow stated that, "The pickpockets were working in teams and so were we. It's a common practice for male and female pickpockets to work together using diversionary tactics. We arrested four pickpockets, two, male-female teams. Our efforts were a success."

CARE stands for Community Area Response Effort, a new approach the MBTA Police are using to respond to crime on the T. Each CARE unit is a six-man team that is sent to an area where a heavy volume of criminal acts are occurring. On Saturday, the members of the CARE unit were dressed in street clothes and the pickpockets were wearing handcuffs before the T police were recognized.

The flexibility of CARE allows the T police to saturate any area where the most crimes are being committed because calls reporting crimes are logged geographically at MBTA Police Headquarters.

Dow added that, "Our CARE units won't always be at Park Street Station. Criminals won't know where CARE will be functioning. With the establishing of strong ties with neighborhood citizens and groups, the MBTA Police and its CARE units will have additional input and assistance in preventing transit crime."

Dow, a thirty-year veteran of the Boston Police, was captain of District 3 before his appointment as MBTA Police Chief by Chairman Foster on July 30. He holds a law degree from New England School of Law, and a master's degree from Boston University.

EXCITING FILMS AT SCIENCE MUSEUM

A landmark science film, "Five Million Years to Earth," on October 5, begins "Invasion!" — a new science fiction series offered at Boston's Museum of Science. All the films highlight conflicts between earth and beings from other worlds.

Presented the first Friday of each month until May, at 6 and 8 p.m., the science fiction films are free with the special $1 Friday night, Museum admission.

Also beginning in October is a series of science films on the third Friday of each month. The first, on October 19, is "Robotics: Isaac Asimov's Artificial Man." This series is given at 7 and 8 p.m., and is free, as well.

"Five Million Years to Earth" is the 1967 film version of an original TV series written by Nigel Kneale and produced by Rudolph Cartier for B.B.C. The film (called "Quartermass and the Pit" on TV) was produced by Hammer in association with MGM and directed by Roy Ward Baker. It belongs to the revival period of science fiction films occurring all over the world in the late sixties.

A powerful statement of the evil and good that are sometimes found in science, the story concerns a London discovery of alien creatures buried in their spaceship since prehistoric times. Although the aliens are dead, the spaceship can be activated. Its mysterious power crazes the city until it is finally crushed by an ancient technique for demonic intervention.

Asimov's film, made in 1976, explores actual advances in robot technology. It visits such sites as manufacturing companies and universities where researchers have developed various types of operating robots. The question of the ever-changing relationship between humans and machines is adroitly discussed.

MBTA ORDERS PARTS TO MAINTAIN BUSES, TRACKLESS TROLLEYS

The MBTA Board of Directors has authorized the expenditure of nearly $1.7 million for replacement and renewal parts for its bus and trackless trolley bus fleets.

For the maintenance of its General Motors, Flexible and A.M. General buses, the MBTA will order miscellaneous renewal parts from Motor Supply, Inc., of Cambridge, lowest of three bidders at $750,000; engine, transmission, and suspension replacement parts from Muncie Reclamation and Supply Company, Muncie, Ind., lowest of twelve bidders at $63,839.60; and automotive ball bearing replacement parts from Action Bearing Company of Allston, lowest of five bidders at $55,629.60.

In addition, renewal parts will be ordered from the bus manufacturers, Flexible Corporation, $360,000; General Motors Corporation, $202,600, and A.M. General Corporation, $189,200; and from the trackless trolley manufacturer, Flyer Industries Corporation of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, $71,940.

Except for the Muncie contract which will be for a six months' supply, all other contracts will be for a year's requirements with parts being ordered as needed.

In other actions, the board approved a $4,893,050 contract award to General Motors' Electro-Motive Division, the lower of two bidders, for five new diesel electric passenger locomotives. Delivery is scheduled for late 1980.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

September 26.

General Order No. 50

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

1. Fire Prevention Week will be observed in the City of Boston from October 6 to October 13, 1979, inclusive. Mayor Kevin H. White has issued the following statement in connection with the observance of this week.

"The success of a fire prevention program is predicated on the activities of an experienced fire department and the cooperative assistance received from members of the community. We are fortunate in Boston that these necessary elements exist and thus fire safety has steadily progressed. The nature of fire and fire causes is such that negligence can lead to disaster. Hence, everlasting vigilance must be maintained. The Fire Department must provide initiative to the public at all times, for their greater safety from fire.

"I have noted the progress made by the Boston Fire Department in the field of research. The efforts expended in this area have been extensive and rewarding. As Mayor of this city, I am pleased to congratulate the Fire Department for their accomplishments in this respect. The results indicate that research such as this is a most important factor in future fire safety. This added to the continuous fire prevention work and the efficient operations of an excellent fire fighting force contribute to make Boston a safer city."

2. The Boston Fire Department will again emphasize Fire Prevention Week with a series of activities as follows:

(a) Fire stations shall be open to the public between the hours of 1200 and 2000 for inspection of the premises and for the conveyance of information concerning the Fire Department functions and fire prevention matters. When citizens come to a station during Fire Prevention Week, the man on house patrol shall summon the commanding officer who should be available and ready to either show the visitors around the station and to answer the questions regarding the department or to have a suitable person assigned to this duty.

(b) Canvas signs giving notice that Fire Prevention Week is in progress should be displayed from all fire stations. Most stations have these signs in their possession from exhibitions of previous years and it is the responsibility of company officers to see to it that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs should be displayed from Sunday to Saturday. Signs shall be checked daily by the officer in charge of quarters to assure they are firmly affixed to the building in a proper manner.

3. District fire chiefs are directed to take an active interest in fire prevention programs in the following manner:

(a) By making arrangements with the various plants and industrial enterprises within the district to hold fire drills during the week, by rating these drills as "Good," "Fair," or "Poor," and making a report of same to the Fire Prevention Division, indicating the name of the enterprise, the date of the drill, and the grade. Same should be forwarded promptly. Each concern should be requested to acknowledge participation in Fire Prevention Week activities via written correspondence. These drills should be conducted by a company officer after arrangements are made. At plants where there are special or company fire brigades, particular attention should be given to assignments and/or response procedures. It is requested that the name of the company officer conducting the drill be furnished. It is anticipated that not less than three drills be conducted in each district.

(b) Company officers will contact school officials in the schools in their subdistrict and make arrangements to hold the required fire exit drills during Fire Prevention Week, if feasible. The fire exit drill shall be so arranged that it will be held ten minutes prior to the end of the school day.

4. The district fire chief should compile a list of fraternal, social, civic, and professional organizations within the district and advertise to them the willingness of the Fire Department to provide company officers for the purpose of lecturing on fire prevention at any time. District fire chiefs should make a concerted effort to bring the activities of the department before these organizations and arrange for lectures to be given. The name of any organization so participating should be reported to Fire Prevention Division, specifically if the organization can be urged to forward on their own stationery a notation of the event, it would be to the greater advantage of the Fire Department.

5. Fire fighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and to the duty of observing and locating fire hazards along the route followed by them in their coming to and going from daily work. Dilapidated buildings, rubbish accumulation and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public expects uniformed members of the Fire Department to know something about fire prevention work and to have an interest in this subject since they are public employees engaged in this field. Fire fighters, therefore, during Fire Prevention Week should have this subject uppermost in their minds and they should not pass a fire hazard at any time without making a note of it for reference to the Fire Prevention Division. In short, every uniformed man in the Fire Department is a fire prevention inspector at all times.

6. Company commanders, on receipt of the fire prevention posters, will post these items in a suitable location at the front of each fire station where they will be visible to the public. They will remain posted until October 14, 1979.

7. A list of all fire prevention activities and their locations will be forthcoming.

GEORGE H. PAUL

JUST HIS IMAGINATION

A very tired commuter waited one night for his regular train on the station platform. Due to some sort of small emergency, a nonstop express train made an unscheduled halt at the station and the weary commuter quickly stepped aboard.

"You can't get on here," the conductor said, taking him by the arm. "This train doesn't stop here!"

"OK," said the exhausted businessman. "Pay no attention to me. If the train doesn't stop here, then I'm not on it."

The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract, shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called), to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the City of Boston Supplemental Minority Participation Section contract provision of the specifications and the obligation of the contractor and all subcontractors to take affirmative action in connection with employment practices throughout the work.

Anti-Discrimination Affirmative Action: During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following:

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. The aforesaid section shall include, but not be limited to, the following employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment advertising; recruitment layoff; termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation; conditions or privileges of employment, and selection for apprenticeship.

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall undertake in good faith affirmative action measures designed to eliminate any discriminatory barriers in the terms and conditions of employment on the grounds of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex, and to eliminate and remedy any effects of such discrimination in the past. Such affirmative action shall include positive measures to ensure equal opportunity in the area of hiring, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment, layoff, or termination, rate of compensation, and in-service or apprenticeship training programs. Such affirmative action shall include all action required to guarantee equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. A purpose of this section is to ensure to the fullest extent possible an adequate supply of skilled tradesmen for this and future city public construction projects.

The contractor and the subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 20 percent ratio of minority employee manhours in each category of the total manhours worked on this contract, including but not limited to bricklayers carpenters, cement masons, electricians, iron workers, operating engineers, and other classes of work designated by the Contract Compliance Unit, at the time of project advertisement.

The percent ratio requirement of minority employee manhours (paragraph 1) shall be determined in accordance with the city's policy on minority participation in impacted and non-impacted areas, i.e., 30 percent in impacted areas and 10 percent in non-impacted areas.

In addition to the above requirement, no bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 20 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business organization in which 51 percent of the beneficial ownership is held by one or more persons who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a minority business and general contractor's letter of intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called), to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

Anti-Discrimination Affirmative Action: During the performance of this contract, the general contractor shall agree and shall require that his subcontractors agree to the following:

The aforesaid section shall include, but not be limited to, the following employment, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment advertising; recruitment layoff; termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation; conditions or privileges of employment, and selection for apprenticeship.

In connection with the performance of work under this contract, the contractor shall undertake in good faith affirmative action measures designed to eliminate any discriminatory barriers in the terms and conditions of employment on the grounds of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex, and to eliminate and remedy any effects of such discrimination in the past. Such affirmative action shall include positive measures to ensure equal opportunity in the area of hiring, upgrading, demotion, or transfer, recruitment, layoff, or termination, rate of compensation, and in-service or apprenticeship training programs. Such affirmative action shall include all action required to guarantee equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, color, religious creed, national origin, age, or sex. A purpose of this section is to ensure to the fullest extent possible an adequate supply of skilled tradesmen for this and future city public construction projects.

The contractor and the subcontractors shall maintain a not less than 20 percent ratio of minority employee manhours in each category of the total manhours worked on this contract, including but not limited to bricklayers, carpenters, cement masons, electricians, iron workers, operating engineers, and other classes of work designated by the Contract Compliance Unit, at the time of project advertisement.

The percent ratio requirement of minority employee manhours (paragraph 1) shall be determined in accordance with the city's policy on minority participation in impacted and non-impacted areas, i.e., 30 percent in impacted areas and 10 percent in non-impacted areas.

In addition to the above requirement, no bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the general contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 20 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business organization in which 51 percent of the beneficial ownership is held by one or more persons who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a minority business and general contractor's letter of intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

A prebid conference will be held at 10 a.m., Wednesday, October 17, 1979, in the Hearing Room, 401 City Hall, One City Hall Square. It is essential that the prospective bidders have a representative attend.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required by the specifications set forth in 41 CFR 60-4.3 (a), and its efforts to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract resulting from this solicitation is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

A prebid conference will be held on October 16, 1979 at 10 a.m., at the MBTA SWCP Project Office, 131 Clarendon Street, Boston, Mass. It is imperative that the prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications should be submitted in writing at that time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

BOSTON HOSTS NCEA CONVENTION

NCEA Convention Theme: "Marketplace for Leadership"

This fall, Boston, will host the 1979 National Community Education Association Convention at the Sheraton Boston Hotel from November 28-30. In keeping with Boston's historic tradition, community educators from throughout the U.S.A. will assemble to explore issues and concerns relevant to the future of our communities by focusing on leadership, citizen participation, and public policy. Ralph Nader and other keynote speakers from government will kick off a series of lectures which will serve as a marketplace of ideas, strategies, and experience needed as we advance into this new decade.

This year's program features a variety of exciting and informative topics identified by community educators to target subjects of strong and timely interest. As a result of these efforts, two additional components have been added to the original three-track format of leadership, citizen participation, and public policy. A completely new lecture series is scheduled which will provide a forum for dialogue between conference participants and key people in the education, business, and political arenas. Another feature of this year's conference will be an "Outstanding Models" component. Interested participants have the opportunity to take a look at highly successful programs from each of the regions outlined in the new NCEA reorganization plan. Boston Community Schools, as a unique model of citizen participation, will be featured as one example. Bill Good, administrative coordinator from the Agassiz and Jim Yee, administrative coordinator from the Quincy will be involved in citizen participation workshops. Successes, problems, and strategies for change will be shared by practitioners who know the "ins and outs" of creative, effective, program design and implementation.

Workshop and session leaders will offer a real marketplace. They come from business, government, and human service agencies, as well as all levels of the academic and educational community. Leadership sessions will be offered in the following areas: Community Education in a Rural Setting; How to Put the Politicians to Work for Community Education; The Positive Use of Power and Influence; Community Partnerships in Urban Areas; After-School Child Care in Public Facilities; How to Do Community Education Under a Recreation Umbrella; Delegation of Responsibility; How to Do It; Writing for Publication; Health Professionals and Citizen Volunteers; Alternative Funding Sources; Marketing Community Education; Coping With Stress; Community Education in Latin America; Developing Women in Your Community; and much more.

As a member of the local program committee, Bill Good will answer questions and provide information about how schools can become involved in this year's convention. If you want to lead a presentation, run a workshop, or showcase a special program, call Bill at 524-0842. If you are interested in joining the Hospitality Committee to welcome out-of-town guests, contact Peggy Walsh at Central Office (725-4920). For information about registration, contact Harry Allen at the Brockton Community School Program at 580-7595. Early registration is encouraged, and the deadline for preregistration is November 16.

ANNUAL UNITED WAY APPEAL

A message from your Chairman.

Dear Fellow City of Boston
Employee,

As a City of Boston employee, you probably realize more than others that government alone cannot do everything. We must count on ourselves and one another.

For this reason, I urge you to join your fellow employees in supporting the 1980 City of Boston Employees Campaign. One hundred seventy-four agencies serve the needs of the elderly, the handicapped, the youth, and the disaster-stricken. But the real hero of all this good is you — the person who voluntarily gives his or her financial support.

You make the City of Boston Employees Campaign work and the one hundred and seventy-four United Way and National Health Agencies in Massachusetts cannot continue as you have known them without your help.

I sincerely hope you will join your fellow employees in supporting the 1980 City of Boston Employees Campaign. This year more than ever, we need financial assistance from everyone. Pledge as much as you can afford through payroll deduction.

Return your pledge card today. More than one million people use the United Way and National Health Agencies in every city and town in Massachusetts. They are counting on you. Thank you.

Bernard F. Shadrawy, Jr.,
Executive Director, Boston
Rent Control Administration,
Chairman, 1980 City of Boston Employees Campaign.

HERE WE GLOW AGAIN!

It's that time of year when all the chills and spills, the fears and cheers come together on the Jamaica way as the Children's Museum presents its eighth annual "Haunted House."

The eighth edition will also be the last edition now that the museum has moved to the waterfront. But they've saved the best for last, or to be more truthful, they've "saved the worst for last" because this year's Haunted House is a cliff-hanger, a slam-banger, a last good-boo.

The Haunted House's last hurrah will run from October 19th through October 28th. But just as your heart will skip a beat at some of the devilish displays, so will the exhibition skip a few days during that period while everyone catches their breath.

Here's the schedule and keep it handy. Opening day, Friday, October 19th, the "house" will jump from 3 to 9 p.m. The same hours will hold true the following Friday. On Saturdays, the 20th and 27th of October, the house will be open from 10 a.m.

until 9 p.m., and on both Sundays, the 21st and the 28th of October, the bewitching hours will be from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. There will be no haunting on Mondays, Tuesdays, or Thursdays, but on Wednesday, October 24th, the goblins will gather from 3 to 6 p.m.

Admission once again will be $1, and as in other years, it is recommended that children under six not attend the event.

The Haunted House is at the old Children's Museum site on the Jamaica way between Eliot and Burroughs Streets and is presented by members of the Children's Museum Aid. Chairpersons are Mrs. Cornelius N. Sakker, Jr. of Braintree; Mrs. James Barrett of Wayland; and Mrs. Benjamin C. Carroll of Sherborn.

Receipts from Haunted House benefit the Children's Museum Resources Center. The center provides educational services to community groups and schools in Greater Boston. Decor is by Sue Porter and Stephen Calcagnino of the museum staff.

Here are some of the frights, the delights, that await young and old at The Haunted House:

Returning after several years absence for one last good-boo will be Dracula's cave. Warning: Please hold hands and watch your throats as you pass through.

The snakepit will be back with the Snake Doctor in slithering residence.

Remember the Green Lady? Well, she's back and will again be greeting brave monsters at the door.

So, too, will old spine-tingling favorites like the Giant Spider Web Room be back along with "Skullay Square" featuring the conductor on the "Gangrene Line."

The off-beat cooks in the kitchen once more will be brewing culinary frights for the resident witches and spooks. They're sure to send spirits soaring and in the Space Fantasy Room, for one last fling, will be the unforgettable Lord Darth Vader.

Finally, children will be able to get their faces made-up in the concession area to look like their favorite Haunted House character and to have their pictures taken with the witch.

To obtain tickets send a stamped self-addressed envelope to the Haunted House, c/o the Children's Museum, 300 Congress Street, Boston 02210. The price, again, is $1 per monster, young or old. Checks should be payable to the Children's Museum Aid. Call 426-8855 for additional information.

"THE PILOT," 1829-1979

The City Record publication, Boston City Hall, salutes and wishes continued success to The Pilot on its one hundred fiftieth anniversary of service to the people of Boston.

Sesquicentenary

On September 5, 1979, The Pilot marked its one hundred fiftieth year of publication. Being a weekly, the paper has gone to press nearly 8,000 times, absorbed veritable Mississippis of printer's ink, and used enough newsprint to reforest the thirteen original colonies. We were founded by the second Bishop of Boston, spent much of our time in the ownership of laypersons, and, since 1908, have been the official newspaper of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston.

In our first seven years, we enjoyed a flurry of different titles: The Jesuit; The United States Catholic Intelligencer; The Literary and Catholic Sentinel; or some combination of all three.

Finally, in 1836, we settled on The Boston Pilot, this nautical choice made for two reasons: to honor Daniel O'Connell's paper in Dublin, which our editors admired; and to suggest (as a prospectus put it then) that we would do our best to "pilot" readers through rough waters, "the rocks of doubt or the quicksands of error."

In 1858, we dropped "Boston" and have been known since then as simply, The Pilot.

Several of our lay editors were famed for their achievement in writing other than journalism: Thomas D'Alel McGee was both historian and poet, and was a founding father of the Dominion of Canada. John Boyle O'Reilly was novelist, orator, poet, and civic leader, among the most attractive Bostonians of his day. Katherine Conway's fiction and poetry won her the coveted Laetare Medal from Notre Dame University. James Jeffrey Roche was a biographer. Patrick Donahoe published his own magazine as well as books. He was also a travel agent and job printer.

Our clerical publishers have included two Bishops, an Archbishop, and three Cardinals.

Show hours are 1 p.m. to 11 p.m., Saturday, October 27, Sunday, October 28, and Saturday, November 3; 2 p.m. to 11 p.m., Monday, October 29 through Friday, November 2, and 1 p.m. to 7 p.m., Sunday, November 4.

Admission is $3 for adults, $1.50 for children 6 to 12, free for children under 6.

CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor Louise Day Hicks:

Whereas, During the period of implementation of the decision of the United States Court, there have been many acts of violence upon children attending the public school systems; and

Whereas, The Victims of Violent Crime Statute does not provide compensation to parents or guardians for the expenditure of money for medication and professional medical services to the students; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, requests that the Governor of the Commonwealth introduce a late-filed bill to amend the Victims of Violent Crime Statute to include reimbursement to parents of children injured in a public school due to violence.

In City Council October 3, 1979.

Adopted.

Attest:

BARRY T. HYNES,
City Clerk.

CITY OF BOSTON IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor Louise Day Hicks for all the Councillors:

Whereas, Pope John Paul II, as a "Pilgrim for Peace," began his historic first visit to the United States in Boston on Monday, October 1, 1979; and

Whereas, The culmination of his visit to this city was an evening Mass celebrated on the Boston Common Parade Ground near Charles Street, an event attended and witnessed by persons of various ethnic and religious representations; and

Whereas, His Holiness' homily delivered during the Mass focused on the youth, the future leaders of this nation — and hopefully — guardians of a world that will find peace; and

Whereas, The acclaim for this historic first Pontifical visit to Boston was graphically demonstrated in the willingness of throngs of people to bear witness throughout the inspiring ceremony despite a heavy downpour of rain on Boston Common; and

Whereas, This significant moment in Boston's history deserves to be recorded for future generations; and

Whereas, A bronze plaque marking the site of this Pontifical address, indicating the date and significance of the event would be a proper historical addition on Boston Common; now, therefore, be it

Ordered, That the Boston City Council submits through His Honor, the Mayor, the recommendation that a permanent plaque be placed on the site of this historic event on behalf of the City of Boston.

In City Council October 3, 1979.

Adopted.

Attest:

BARRY T. HYNES,
City Clerk.

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westfield, Westwood, Winthrop, Winchester, Woburn, and the islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston and Boston Redevelopment Authority contract the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent (30 percent for impact areas) of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 51 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city and/or BRA one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractor shall also avail themselves to the list of minority businesses to be provided by the BRA through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including without limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders) and provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications or supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as required by section 3 and section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. The Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest so to do.

NEW BUILDING PLANNED FOR HUB MUSEUM

Boston Museum Launches $4.1 Million Dollar New Building and Renovation of School of the Museum of Fine Arts.

A $4.1 million dollar program to construct a new building to replace rented quarters and to renovate the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, was announced recently by Howard W. Johnson, president of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

"The school," said Johnson, "is in its second century — you need only look at its buildings to guess that. The artists who study here deserve decent places to work and they shall have them. The time has come to complete what was begun more than 100 years ago." Johnson also announced that designs for the new building and renovations will be executed by Graham Gund Associates, Inc., a Cambridge-based architectural firm. Groundbreaking, he said, is expected to take place in the spring of 1980.

The new building will be constructed adjacent to the school's current structure at 230 The Fenway. It will be approximately the same size (46,000 square feet) and will include three floors, plus a finished basement, with skylighted studios at the top level. Included in the new wing will be a new library and an exhibition gallery that will be open free to the public.

The two buildings will be connected by a glassed atrium and walkways at the second and third floor levels. The atrium will become the new entrance to the school and will serve as a student center.

Dean of the Museum School, Bruce K. MacDonald, emphasized that the new wing will be built simply and flexibly, without frills. "What we are really looking for," he said, "is a better garret. For more than twenty years the students have had to cope with overcrowded, inadequate facilities. The building project is vital to the future of the school."

MacDonald also stated that: "The addition to the school will at last make possible the separation of the 'clean' arts such as photography and film, from the 'dirty' arts such as sculpture, ceramics, and metal working. Currently, these studios must exist side by side — it is not uncommon to find one student's dust on another student's photograph."

The school was founded in 1876. From 1877 to 1909, classes were held in the basement of the original Museum of Fine Arts in Copley Square. When the MFA moved to Huntington Avenue in 1909, a temporary structure for the school was built in what is now the museum's parking lot. In 1926, the present school building was opened to house an expanded student body numbering over 300.

During the past three decades enrollment has continued to increase and the school now has 1,200 students. To accommodate the growing population, rented quarters were secured, first in 1966 at the Fenway Studios on Ipswich Street. From 1973-74 studios were set up in the old S.S. Pierce Building on Brookline Avenue; and since then, the school has rented from Wentworth Institute the long defunct Gordon Theological School at 30 Evans Way. The new wing will replace this space in time for occupancy in the fall of 1981 when the lease on the Evans Way property expires.

The announcement of the building program was accompanied by the launching of a drive to raise the funds to complete the museum school. Robert Casselman, associate director of the museum, said, "From the very beginning of the museum's capital drive in 1977 to fund its major renewal program, a commitment of one million dollars was earmarked for the school project. That money has since been augmented from other sources, and we begin now with a $1.5 million dollar headstart in our drive to raise the $4.1 million for the school's completion. We now look to the thousands of friends of the school for the gifts that will make all of this possible."

The fund drive for the completion of the museum is chaired by Mrs. E. Ross Anderson, vice-president of the Board of Trustees of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

The school provides training in drawing, painting, sculpture, metal-smithing, printmaking, ceramics, stained glass, graphic design, photography, video and multi-media. Students from 32 states and 19 foreign countries make up the student body.

Art critic Clement Greenberg has said, "The museum school threatens to become the liveliest art school in the east . . . possible in the country. It has the direction; it also has the faculty."

And contemporary artist, Robert Motherwell, observed that: "In accomplishments, in ambiance, the Boston museum school is as fine an institution as I have seen anywhere in the western world. In a city that is

HIS SPIRIT WINS: CONNOLLY RETURNS

Superintendent Connolly after 11-week convalescence.*

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 9, welcomed Boston Police Superintendent Edward F. Connolly back to his job as chief of the Department's Bureau of Field Services after an 11-week convalescence from a gunshot wound he suffered in the line of duty.

Connolly, 59, was shot in the chest at point blank range on July 25 as he attempted to mediate a hostage situation in Jamaica Plain.

Said Mayor White, "You know, at the Faulkner Hospital that day, we were all very worried about Eddie. But we hoped and prayed, and relied on his toughness and spirit. And now, finally, he is back where he belongs — on the job."

Mayor White also commended Deputy Superintendent Earl A. Bolt who substituted for Connolly during his convalescence.

"Earl Bolt did a great job filling in for Eddie. He had some tough assignments: the Papal visit and the Darryl Williams shooting and he handled them superbly."

Connolly has been a Boston Police officer for the past 31 years, rising through the ranks from patrolman. A former commanding officer of District 13 in Jamaica Plain, Connolly is the holder of the Department's Medal of Honor and the Thomas F. Sullivan Award for Valor.

BRA RECEIVES PLANNING GRANT

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has received a $150,000 grant from the Economic Development Administration to establish an economic development plan for the City of Boston.

Boston is one of 39 cities in the country chosen to receive the planning grants. Under the terms of the grant, the BRA must review and approve all city requests for economic development funds so that such requests conform to an overall city growth strategy.

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan said, "This grant will help us detail the city's economic needs and develop the mechanisms for meeting our goals of job growth in every sector of the city's economy."

"This means that the city will establish a process that helps coordinate our economic development effort. It means greater cooperation among all city agencies and a means for establishing priorities in our funding requests."

Ryan said the EDA grant will increase the city's ability to attract economic development funding for projects such as the city-owned Boston Marine Industrial Park at the former naval annex in South Boston.

LEGISLATIVE ALERT!

To: Boston's Aging Network, Advocates, Senior Clubs

From: Area Agency on Aging Legislative Advisory Committee

Subject: Emergency Fuel Assistance Legislation

Date: September 13, 1979

As you are aware, the United States Congress has appropriated minimal funding ($250 million) to help the elderly and the poor meet this year's 50 percent price increase on the cost of home heating oil. One time grants of assistance in meeting the cost of fuel have been raised from $250 to $400, which means that less will be served this year than last. The Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly estimates that of the 22,000 older Bostonians who fall within the federal eligibility limits of 125 percent of the poverty level ($4,250 single/ $5,625 couple), less than 1,800 or 3 percent of those who are eligible and in need will receive federal assistance.

There is currently legislation before the Massachusetts Legislature, Senate Bill 519 (S-519), which offers to supplement this federal program. As the Legislature reconvened September 17th to wrap up matters as quickly as possible, it is imperative that we act as quickly as possible to let our legislators know we will not tolerate the suffering of elderly or poor this winter. S-519 can make the difference. Here's what it proposes:

Senate Bill 519

Sponsored by Senator Backman

Establishes a program to be administered by the Department of Community Affairs in coordination with the Department of Public Welfare and Elderly Affairs. The Emergency Fuel Assistance Program is for those households that have income no higher than 125 percent of the federal poverty guidelines or are eligible for SSI payments but are not eligible for fuel assistance from the Department of Public Welfare. Such households are eligible if they are in imminent danger of discontinuance of fuel supply or are unable to purchase fuel supplies. Payment will not be counted against applicant nor figured into any other income or benefit package. The Legislation as written states that "No payment or voucher may be issued in excess of $250 per eligible client."

The Aging Network fully supports this Legislation with the one exception that we believe that the amount of the grant should be increased from $250 to $500.

What you can do:

Senate Bill 519 is currently being held by the Senate Ways and Means Committee. Call or write immediately to voice your concern. Be sure to mention amending the bill to raise the grant amount from $250 to $500.

Write or Call:

The Honorable Chester G. Atkins, Chairman, Senate Committee on Ways and Means, State House, Room 312, Boston, Massachusetts 02133, Phone: 727-2481.

Senate Bill Owens of Boston is also on this committee and should receive your message: The Honorable Bill Owens, State House, Room 405, Boston, MA 02133, Phone: 727-8934.

If we are to be successful in securing passage of this Bill S-519, we must also secure the support of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Write or Call:

The Honorable John J. Finnegan, Chairman, House Committee on Ways and Means, State House, Room 247, Boston, Massachusetts 02133, Phone: 727-2481.

Other Boston Members Serving on the House Ways and Means Committee: Rep. James J. Craven, Jr., Rep. Barney Frank, and Rep. Michael Paul Feeney.

Be sure to mention the bill's number when calling or writing: Senate 519.

Mayor Kevin H. White on October 9, agreed to review security arrangements for Boston school students as they travel to and from school, and promised to examine the need for special security arrangements for students involved in extra-curricular activities.

JOSEPH SMITH BRA EMPLOYEE DIES

Mayor White mourns the death of Joseph Smith; terms civic leader's death "A tragedy not only for Allston-Brighton, but for the entire city."

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 12, mourned the death of Allston-Brighton civic leader Joseph M. Smith as a "tragedy not only for Allston-Brighton, but for the entire city."

Said Mayor White, "Joe Smith was a man of vision. He was a smart, tough, man of integrity. He was an accomplished community leader with a fierce, almost paternal pride, in his neighborhood. I respected him greatly, and considered him my friend. I will miss him greatly."

Smith, 49, of 70 Athol Street, Allston, was stricken by an apparent heart attack at midday October 12, at the Boston Redevelopment Authority offices at City Hall. Smith was employed by the BRA as a planning development liaison between the BRA and the Mayor's Policy Planning Staff, and the Department of Health and Hospitals and the Boston Housing Authority.

Married and the father of three children, Smith was employed by Action for Boston Community Development for nine years prior to his appointment by the BRA Board last August 29.

EXPANSION LOAN TO AID HUB INDUSTRY

Mayor White announces new initiatives to help Boston industry; Guardian Corporation secures $1 million expansion loan.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 10, announced the results of a series of initiatives by the city's Economic Development and Industrial Corporation (EDIC) designed to bolster industrial development in Boston at ceremonies which marked the securing of a $1 million loan for business expansion by the Guardian Corporation of Brighton.

The loan is the result of one of the initiatives.

The initiatives are:

—Boston's active participation in the federal Neighborhood Business Revitalization Program for Industrial Development. That program, in conjunction with the Small Business Administration, the Boston Local Development Corporation (EDIC), the National Development Council, and the New England Merchants Bank, packaged Guardian's loan for the purchase of a new building, and renovation of that structure for expansion. Guardian is the first Boston industry to benefit from this new program.

—The award of a $600,000 grant from the federal Economic Development Administration to EDIC to establish a revolving loan fund to provide needed capital for small industrial expansion. That grant, coupled with Small Business Administration Loan Program packages, could lever an estimated $24 million in private investment and close to 2,000 jobs.

—EDIC's hiring of an experienced industrial financing expert who will be directing the Boston Local Development Corporation. Henry Price, formerly a consultant to the WCCI Capital Corporation of Worcester, has been appointed manager of Boston's NBR's financial assistance effort, and will be packaging industrial loans under the program.

Said Mayor White, "The small industrial firms are a basic component in a healthy neighborhood economy, and the health of the city as a whole. Our efforts have been aimed at providing support for those businesses. Today's announcement reflects the success of those efforts."

Mayor White added, "Now, the city will concentrate on identifying firms seeking long-term capital for expansion in Boston, and, more importantly, increasing the involvement of private lending institutions in that venture. That all means more jobs for Boston."

Boston is one of 25 cities throughout the country which has been chosen as a demonstration site for the Neighborhood Revitalization Program, a coordinated approach to attracting private investment into urban areas.

That program is sponsored by the Small Business Administration, the Economic Development Administration, and the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The National Development Council, a private non profit economic assistance agency, is also involved in the project.

the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

NO. 44

MAYOR'S STATEMENT RE CONDO CONVERSION

October 16, 1979.

Today, I am taking action on four new initiatives to deal with both the immediate and long-range needs of Boston's tenants and homeowners.

These actions are required to counter the potentially devastating consequences of the Federal Reserve Board's decisions last week to hike prime interest levels, and to cope with a vacancy rate which now makes the housing market the tightest it's been in the last five years.

Boston's answer to Washington's submission to 14 percent mortgages, 40 percent down-payments, and 30 percent down-turn in housing production, will be and must be a call to local action based on a creative and comprehensive city housing strategy for the '80s.

First, I am filing today with the City Council, legislation which will impose a one-year moratorium on involuntary condominium evictions. This legislation will not ban condominium conversions, but it will prevent the victimization and hardship of those who in a tight market cannot find alternative rental housing.

Second, I have directed the city treasurer to prepare to issue $100 million in city revenue bonds — the maximum allowable by legislation now pending in the State House — to provide below-market home mortgages to middle- and lower-income Bostonians who want to purchase. I intend to act swiftly once the Legislature passes the authorizing legislation, to provide the maximum financial muscle which the city can muster to once again put affordable mortgage money in the hands of those who want to bank on this city's future, through homeownership in Boston's neighborhoods.

Third, I will submit to the Legislature this term, a statute enabling the city to discount or waive to small neighborhood-based developers, back taxes on abandoned, dilapidated, and substandard housing which they are prepared to put back into rentable, livable conditions.

And fourth, I am today announcing the names of my four appointees to the Mayor's Special Housing Commission, which has a mandate to conduct a total review of rent control, vacancy decontrol, the impact of increased energy costs, and condominium conversion, policies for Boston in the '80s. I have waited almost four months for the City Council, for Fair Share, and the Real Estate Board to name their respective nominees. To date, only the Real Estate Board has acted. We can wait no longer for the rest. So today, I am naming my appointees and I am calling upon the Council and Fair Share to choose their appointees by the end of next week.

I have also named Rick Borten, the city's first Rent Control administrator and the former director of both the city and state Consumer Councils to be the staff director of this important commission.

These agencies are the building blocks for a solid housing future in this city, and they will produce major benefits for Bostonians:

- protection for tenants against arbitrary or aggressive developers who would evict on short notice for quick condo-conversion

- public subsidy, without cost to taxpayers, of home mortgages so that families in Boston can still afford to dream and can continue to find low-cost money to put down permanent roots in the neighborhoods

- new housing will be developed where there is now only abandonment

- and finally the city will be prepared for the new decade with soundest and most comprehensive recommendations on housing policy from the most broadly representative commission in the city's history.

In this decade, we built 18,000 new housing units, and home ownership increased by 7 percent. In the '80s we can sail against the strong prevailing winds to build an additional 25,000 housing units, we can increase home ownership by another 20 percent, and we can protect tenants from rent-gouging and victimization.

But to do so will require a disciplined approach to the challenge and a new partnership between the city, tenants, homeowners, and developers. The steps I have announced today, I hope will move that process towards realization.

Summary of an Ordinance Regulating Certain Evictions for Condominium Conversion.

This ordinance requires all evictions for the purpose of conversion to condominiums to be approved by the Boston Rent Board before any action can be taken in a court of law.

This ordinance requires both rent control and vacancy decontrolled units to be certified by the Boston Rent Board for the purpose of evicting any present rent-paying tenant for the benefit of a potential purchaser who is not a tenant.

Basically, the ordinance requires a one-year notice of intent to convert to condo to be filed by all landlords. The landlord must then file an application for a Certificate of Eviction under the present condominium eviction policy in the Boston Rent Board. However, no application for a

Mayor's Statement . . .

Certificate of Eviction will be accepted until the expiration of the twelve-month period initiated by the filing of the landlord's affidavit of intent to convert to condominium.

In the event a landlord fails to fully comply with any section of the ordinance, either by omission or violation, the twelve-month waiting period may be extended by the board to coincide with a full compliance of its regulations over a one-year period.

In addition, all tenants, whether rent controlled or vacancy decontrolled, will be notified by the Rent Board of their rights when landlords file the affidavit of intent to convert to condominiums. Tenants' rights include protection if the landlord attempts to evict or harass tenants into moving prior to informing tenants of the intent to convert to condominiums.

The ordinance also requires a landlord to rebut a presumption that any eviction attempt is considered a condo-conversion unless the landlord files a statement overcoming the presumption. This statement will list four criteria that the landlord must swear are not the reasons for evicting any tenant.

In other words, a landlord will not be able to evict in a court unless his statement (overcoming the assumption that a condo-conversion is not involved) has been filed.

There will be an administrative process for hearing tenants' complaints regarding false statements filed by any landlord, which can include penalties as well as denial of this landlord's application.

Simply stated, this ordinance freezes evictions for at least twelve months before landlords (whether for rent controlled or vacancy decontrolled units) can begin the eviction process through the Boston Rent Board.

Etiquette is learning to yawn with your mouth closed.

HUB RECREATIONAL AREAS SET FOR IMPROVEMENT

tional facilities. A new tennis court will be constructed, new lighting will be installed for the play court area, the basketball court will be reconstructed, and the tot-lot will be refurbished. Project director is Michael Murphy.

At the Gertrude Howes Playground in Roxbury, $75,000 will be spent to rehabilitate the recreational facilities. Improvements include reconstruction of the play area, new lighting, and landscaping improvements around the sitting area. The Roxbury project coordinator is Paula Waters.

At the Orchard Park Playground, $250,000 will be spent to reconstruct and light the basketball court, refurbish the tot-lot area, renovate the ballfield, and to improve the park's landscaping.

At the Eustis Playground, $145,000 will be spent to rehabilitate the recreational area. Improvements include the installation of decorative fencing, restoration of the playground's entry points, refurbishing the bleachers, and expanding the tot-lot and shelter area.

The Mayor also announced a $25,000 program for developing and demonstrating a community-based management program for the Mozart Playground in the Hyde Square area of Jamaica Plain. The plan will be funded by a federal grant of $17,500 and $7,700 of city funds.

The federal grant of $675,000 was received from the Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service Urban Park and Recreational Recovery Program. This money will be combined with $289,500 of city funds.

PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION JOBS FOR BOSTONIANS NOW IN EFFECT

An Executive Order providing that every other job on a publicly funded construction project in Boston will go to a Boston resident went in effect October 15, per order Mayor Kevin H. White.

Mayor White announced the policy September 11, saying would go into effect October 15 to give unions and contractors time to get information and set up a mechanism for compliance.

Boston is the first U.S. city to establish a Residential Preference Program guaranteeing construction jobs to its residents.

Of the total worker hours entailed in construction jobs covered under the provisions of the Executive Order, 50 percent are guaranteed to Boston residents, 25 percent to minorities, and 10 percent to women.

Mayor White said the Residential Preference Program is "a vitally important part of this city's development strategy for the 1980s.

"Boston is on the verge of a major building boom," the Mayor said, "and Bostonians should not only get a fair share of the good-paying jobs that will open up — they should be first in line."

Mayor White said that in time, he hopes to involve the private sector and to achieve a 50 percent resident hiring rate overall.

"For now, I can guarantee that any construction project that is publicly funded in Boston will be bound by the resident hiring requirement," the Mayor said.

For information about Boston's hiring policy, unions, builders, and contractors should contact the Office of Contract Compliance at 725-4616.

A MESSAGE FROM MAYOR WHITE

Dear Older Bostonian:

My commitment to insure the high quality of life and personal security the senior citizens of this city so greatly deserve, remains strong.

In accordance with this commitment, I am pleased to announce the introduction of a new program called "Early Alert." Early Alert is a cooperative effort between the Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly, the Boston Post Office, and many community agencies. The Boston Post Office letter carriers have been looking out for the residents on their routes for many years, and now through their continued support, Early Alert will provide Boston's senior residents with emergency assistance. This vital support will be provided by your own letter carrier, someone you readily recognize and who can link you with the Early Alert services provided by the Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly.

Let me take a few minutes to explain how Early Alert will operate. Any interested Boston resident, sixty years of age or older, can register for the program. Upon registration, a small identifying mark will be placed inside your mailbox where it is only visible to your letter carrier. If your letter carrier notices that you have not picked up your mail as you normally would he will contact the manager at your local post office who will in turn notify the Early Alert staff at the Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly.

Upon receiving this notification, the Early Alert staff will call you, to see if you are in need of assistance. If you cannot be reached by phone, the staff will then call the contact person you have listed on your registration form. This contact person can be a close friend, neighbor, relative, or your building superintendent or manager. Hopefully, this contact person will be someone you have trusted with a key to your apartment.

If we are unable to reach your contact person or this person cannot make a home visit, we will send an outreach worker to your home. If you do not answer your door and a determination is made that you are in need of assistance the Boston Police will be requested to enter your home or apartment, to check on your needs and provide assistance.

It is my sincere hope that Early Alert will provide you with a much-needed security service and that you will become an active participant.

For further information on Early Alert, call the Elderly Hotline 722-4646.

Sincerely,
Kevin H. White.

MAYOR DEDICATES NEW "LITTLE HOUSE"

Mayor Kevin H. White on October 14, called the new "Little House" community health center "a tribute to the vitality and resourcefulness of the neighborhood."

Mayor White spoke at dedication ceremonies marking the official opening of the new Little House, a modern, one-story, brick, full-service health center which stands in stark contrast to the original Little House, a small, storefront, health clinic across Dorchester Avenue from the new site.

Said Mayor White, "You can tell much about a neighborhood from the way it cares for its sick and its elderly, and the kinds of demands it makes on a city government for service. If that is a measure of a neighborhood's health, this spot is one of the most vibrant in the city. Its people are caring and concerned and involved."

Mayor White added, "And if the mark of a healthy city government is its commitment, response, and concern for neighborhood needs for health care, then this city is as strong and healthy as any in this nation."

The city contributed $130,000 in Community Development Block Grant funds to the success of the project, with the Department of Health and Hospitals providing a grant of $26,000.

Additional funding for the project totaling $83,000 was contributed by other hospitals: the Carney Hospital, New England Medical Center, St. Margaret's, and the Federated Dorchester Neighborhood Houses, Inc.

The first year that Little House opened its doors in 1973, it provided two sessions per week of pediatrics and adult medicine, and one weekly session of Ob-Gyn. In that first year, the center had 1,238 visitors for care.

The new facility provides full-time pediatric and adult medicine, and a wide array of services ranging from podiatry and prenatal education, to dermatology and mental health consultation.

In 1978, the Little House logged 12,675 visits, and so far in 1979, 13,900 visits have been recorded. Projections indicate that 1980 will see 15,000 visits to the center.

A community board of directors makes policy for the center. The director of the center is Mrs. Geraldine C. Dunne.

MORE HOUSING UNITS FOR HYDE PARK

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has given its approval for an additional eighty-eight units of elderly housing which will be part of the Blake Estates Housing now being built near Cleary Square in Hyde Park.

Phase II of the Blake Estates will be constructed on a 75,000 square-foot area adjacent to Blake Estates Phase I, which is the site formerly occupied by the Allis-Chalmers manufacturing facility.

The $3.5 million project will have seventy-nine, one-bedroom units and nine, two-bedroom units for low- and moderate-income elderly tenants.

Phase I of the project, which is now under construction, calls for 175 units of elderly housing for low- and moderate-income residents.

Redevelopment of the Allis-Chalmers site for elderly housing is a component of the Hyde Park portion of the Boston Plan, a $500 million, economic development program launched in 1977 by Mayor Kevin H. White.

Mayor White, in hailing the BRA's approval, said, "New housing on this site will undoubtedly have a spin-off effect on our revitalization program for Cleary Square. At the same time, this project will provide new and attractive housing for elderly residents in Hyde Park. As is always the case with our elderly housing projects, we choose sites which give the elderly a central, convenient location."

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan said, "We are particularly pleased that an unsightly area on one of Hyde Park's main arteries will have well-designed and attractive housing for elderly residents."

The elderly housing program is being carried out by The Beacon Companies, a development firm which has constructed several office buildings in downtown Boston and also developed the Georgetowne apartment complex in Hyde Park. The firm has received financing commitments for the project from the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency and section 8 rental subsidies from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Construction of Phase I of the Blake Estate began last spring and is scheduled for completion by summer, 1980. The Phase II portion is expected to be under construction within the next month.

The development is named in honor of Alpheus P. Blake, one of the twenty original founders of Hyde Park over a century ago.

Architects for the project are Paul Belluschi Associates and Jung-Brannen Associates.

MAYOR HAILS NEW HOME OF OPERA COMPANY OF BOSTON

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 19, attended festivities of the city's new Opera House and hailed its use as an important and positive step in the revitalization effort of the downtown theatre district.

"Being the city's first permanent opera theatre since 1958, this Opera Fair is a tribute to Sarah Caldwell and the generosity of the Opera Company's patrons," said Mayor White.

The Opera Company, a non-profit, cultural and educational corporation bought the fifty-year-old, 2,850-seat, Keith Memorial Theatre last fall.

The building was first constructed in 1928 as a tribute to vaudeville founder, B. F. Keith. Sack Theatres purchased it in 1965, and renamed it the Savoy.

Said Mayor White, "I urge the public to view the beauty and splendor of a cultural institution which is truly Boston's own."

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Boston Landmarks Commission will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, November 13, 1979, concerning the designation of the STOCK EXCHANGE BUILDING, 53 State Street, Boston, as a LANDMARK, according to the provisions of Chapter 772 of the Acts of 1975. The hearing will be held in the Board Room, ninth floor, Boston City Hall, at 4:30 p.m.

A report on the proposed designation is available at the offices of the Commission, Room 944, Boston City Hall.

MARCIA L. MYERS,
Executive Director.

EDWARD F. CONNOLLY HEADS SCHOOL SECURITY TASK FORCE

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 5, appointed Boston Police Superintendent Edward F. Connolly to head a special task force which will examine and evaluate the security programs in Boston's nineteen high schools.

Mayor White said, "School security has been on the minds of everyone over the past two weeks from the high school students who have come to see me, to the members of the Neighborhood Summit Conference. And those security concerns spill out into the street as greater community problems. This program will attempt to evaluate the specific problems of individual high schools and offer some solutions to those problems."

The School Security Task Force will dispatch officers specially trained in the latest crime prevention techniques to act as security consultants to each of the city's high schools.

The task force will interview school headmasters about their security problems, survey the individual school security programs and procedure in terms of personnel and placement, and make recommendations for improvement of security. Those recommendations could range from lunchroom routine to building improvements and schedule adjustments.

Additionally, the officers of the special unit will evaluate the security precautions, athletic, and other extracurricular events at the schools.

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan said, "These officers will be assigned for more than a security survey. They will also be available to talk to student groups in each high school about their observations and security concerns, and solicit ideas for security improvements."

School security has come under close scrutiny since the shooting of Darryl Williams, a Jamaica Plain High School student, during the halftime of a football scrimmage at Charlestown High School on September 28.

Superintendent Connolly is the chief of the department's Bureau of Field Services.

Officers began their assignments on October 17.

MAYOR WHITE JOINS WITH MAYORS MARINO AND PRESSMAN TO FIGHT PROPOSED MBTA SERVICE CUTS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 22, said the MBTA Advisory Board is seeking to extend an injunction blocking service cuts proposed by the MBTA for Boston and suburban communities.

The Mayor, who serves as Chairman of the MBTA Advisory Board, said the failure of the "T" to service existing scheduled routes is creating "a crisis of public confidence in the ability of the MBTA to provide transportation."

The "T" failed to show up for 13,822 scheduled bus runs in September — a 600 percent increase over the number of missed bus runs just one year ago (September, 1978, 2267 missed bus runs) — and more than triple the number of "no show" MBTA bus runs just one month ago (August, 1979, 5102 missed bus runs).

The Mayor joined Lynn Mayor Anthony Marino and Chelsea Mayor Joel Pressman at a press conference at the Haymarket MBTA station.

Boston, Lynn and Chelsea, along with Newton and Marblehead, filed for the injunction to stop the proposed service cuts on behalf of the 79 cities and towns served by the MBTA.

Suffolk Superior Court Judge Alan J. Dimond issued the injunction through October 27, prohibiting proposed service cuts in Dorchester, Brighton, and a number of suburban communities.

Mayor White said today's court action will seek an extension of the injunction beyond October 27, and a full hearing before the court of arguments to permanently enjoin the "T" from implementing the service cuts.

Mayor White said, "Public confidence in the MBTA is deteriorating almost as fast as the service."

"It's ridiculous, it's sheer folly, to allow the MBTA to make further cutbacks. The "T" has had its grace period. Now it is time to produce."

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the awarding of a contract, without public advertising, to Mrs. Ana E. Cordero, 12 Holbrook Street, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130, for the position of assistant in Spanish linguistics for the ESAA Bilingual Testing and Measurement Component during the period from October 1, 1978, to July 31, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $17,602.20 ($16,500 for services rendered and $1,102.20 for medical insurance).

The contractor will serve as an integral member of the component research team. She will be responsible for linguistic support in the development of the kindergarten, primary, elementary and middle school batteries of the Placement Evaluation Battery for the Spanish language versions. She will serve as the principal organizer of the component's Spanish language testing library and will report on all native language tests being developed by other projects during this grant year. She will participate in the teacher training workshops, field investigations, data processing activities, data processing activities, and other team-related functions.

Because of the need to initiate this program during the present academic year and because of the investigatory and research design background of this consultant it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by the public advertising for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provision of G.L. c.

44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under the grant of the Emergency School Aid Act, Grant G00-78-037-46.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,

Various ESAA Project Services

Dear Mr. Mayor,

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the awarding of a contract, without further public advertising, to Thompson Island Education Center, P.O. Box 127, Boston, Ma. 02127, for a Harbor Environments Program for the South Boston High School ESAA Component during the period beginning October 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $43,580.

The contractor will provide the students at South Boston High School with a harbor environments program, emphasizing an interdisciplinary environmental studies course, basic academic skills, work project and vocational skill development, group and leadership skill development, and counseling.

Because of the need to initiate this program during the present academic year and because of the environmental studies experience of the contractor, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the receipt of funds under grant from Emergency School Aid Act, Grant G00-78-037-46.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the awarding of a contract, without public advertising, to Northeastern University, 360 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass., for services to be rendered by consultants and cooperative students to the ESAA Madison Park High School Component during the period from September 28, 1978, to June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $14,625.

This contractor will provide to Madison Park High School the following two services: 1) to participate in and provide consultant services to the Curriculum Planning and Development Committee; and 2) Northeastern University Cooperative students who will provide services in the in-school and intramural physical education programs.

Because of the federal court order that mandated the pairing of Madison Park High School with Northeastern University, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation, from the city under the provisions of G.L. c. 44 s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under a grant from the Emergency School Aid Act, Grant G00-78-037-46.

Very Truly Yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Barbara Quinn Hopkins, 14 Rockmere Street, Dorchester, MA 02125, during the period September 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $11,500.

Ms. Hopkins shall, upon the basis of her training and experience, enter upon the elementary and/or secondary level of the Boston Public School system to function as the manager of the ESAA Teacher Resource Center at the Ripley School. In this capacity she will be responsible for receiving, preparing, cataloging, and maintaining records of Teacher Center materials and equipment, providing on-site assistance in the selection, use, and construction of instructional materials, conducting workshop demonstrations, preparing and furnishing reports, overseeing activities of aides, and performing special administrative tasks as directed by the component coordinator.

Because of Ms. Hopkins' experience in this capacity, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids. This contract cost is reasonable in view of the nature of the services provided and the extensive experience of the consultant.

This contract is authorized under Grant G00-78-037-46, dated September 1, 1978, with the U.S. Office of Education, H.E.W.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the Boston School Committee and upon the recommendation of the Superintendent and the Board of Superintendents, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Ms. Angela Fong-Chu Ho, 1885 Washington Street, Boston, Mass. 02118, as evaluation assistant (full time) in the Department of Management Information Services, Title I and ESAA Evaluation Units, during the period beginning on October 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $11,250.

Ms. Ho will be responsible for conducting all evaluation activities for the ESAA Title I Early Childhood Project ($8,250), in addition to monitoring evaluation activities of the external evaluator of the ESAA Pilot Projects ($3,000). Her salary is reasonable and commensurable with that paid evaluation assistants in the Boston Public School system.

Because of the need to initiate the two projects during the present academic year, the School Committee believes that the public interest would not be served by a time-consuming process of public bidding for this position. Moreover, Ms. Ho is most qualified for this position and can be expected to serve the citizens of Boston quite satisfactorily based upon her previous experience and skills.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grants from Emergency School Aid Act, Grant G00-78-028-92, and ESAA Title I Grant 79-035-134, at no cost to the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the Boston School Committee and upon the recommendation of the Superintendent and the Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization to award a contract, without public advertising, to Mr. Thomas O'Connor, 740 Adams Street, Dorchester, Mass. 02122, as evaluation assistant (full time) in the Department of Management Information Services, ESAA Evaluation Unit, during the period beginning on October 1, 1978, through August 31, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $13,750.

Mr. O'Connor will be responsible for monitoring all external agency evaluation activities of the FY79 ESAA Special Projects. His salary is reasonable and commensurable with that paid evaluation assistants in the Boston Public School system.

Because of the need to initiate the program during the present academic year, the School Committee believes that the public interest would not be served by a time-consuming process of public bidding for this position. Moreover, Mr. O'Connor is most qualified for this position and can be expected to serve the citizens of Boston quite satisfactorily based upon his previous experience and evaluation skills.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under the grant from Emergency School Aid Act, Grant G00-78-037-46 at no cost to the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Human Systems Development, Inc. during the period beginning October 15, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $15,000.

The contractor, in collaboration with the Department of Management Information Services, shall carry out the intent of the evaluation of the FY79 ESAA Pilot Projects by: 1) providing both formative and summative evaluation activities for each of the three projects; and 2) adhering to the Department of Management Information guidelines for reporting evaluation results and other relevant matters.

Human Systems Development, Inc. was selected by a representative committee, from a group of firms solicited to submit proposals for evaluation of the FY78 ESAA Pilot Projects in the Boston Public Schools. Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under the FY79 contract, the capability to deliver the continuous services noted above, and the expertise of Human Systems Development, Inc., it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by the time-consuming process of public bidding.

This agreement is to be executed, without appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Sister Elizabeth Carroll, 637 Cambridge Street, Brighton, 02135, for the position of ESAA coordinator for the Archdiocese of Boston during the period of September 1, 1978, through June 29, 1979, at a cost of $12,400 ($12,000 for services rendered and $400 for local travel).

The contractor shall represent the interests of the ESAA project in the pertinent parochial schools of the Archdiocese of Boston. She will work closely with ESAA component directors to ensure that provision is made for the distribution of program services to the appropriate Catholic schools in accordance with needs. Because of the need to initiate the program during the present academic year and because of the prior work experience in both public and parochial school educational programs and comparable with the duties outlined above of this consultant, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from Emergency School Aid Act Grant G00-78-029-14.

Dear Mayor White:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Paul W. Celuzza. Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action in awarding a contract, without publicly advertising, for fire damage repairs at the Samuel W. Mason School, 150 Norfolk Avenue, Roxbury, Mass., to the Clifford Construction Co., Inc., 9 Oliver Street, Randolph, Mass., in an amount of $21,400.

On Tuesday morning, October 3, 1978, vandals broke into the Samuel W. Mason School and set fire to three classrooms. The fire completely destroyed Classrooms 2 and 3, and the heat and smoke severely damaged adjacent corridor walls and ceilings, stairwells, toilet room, electric service, fire and intrusion alarm systems.

This vandalism occurred at approximately 3:35 a.m. Because of the seriousness of the damage, and to secure and clean up the building to protect the health and welfare of persons in or near the school and permit proper function of the school activities on the following day, it was necessary to immediately dispatch contractors to the site to start cleanup operations.

In order to expedite the work so that classes may return to normal as quickly as possible, I did solicit three sealed bids to make permanent repairs to the damaged areas; and they were received as follows:

Clifford Construction Co., Inc., $21,400; Rite-Bilt Construction Co., $23,750; John Palumbo, $23,800.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL — 121A AUDITOR

CITY OF BOSTON

The City Auditor and the Collector-Treasurer of the City of Boston are requesting proposals from firms of Certified Public Accountants for the purpose of examining the financial records of various corporations located in the city, such corporations having 121A tax contracts with the city.

Pursuant to the provisions of M.G.L. c. 121A and to individual contracts with 121A corporations, said corporations agree to provide the city yearly certified financial statements in order that the city may review amounts due it per each contract. Said corporations also agree to make their records available to the city should the city deem it necessary to review the submitted financials on an in-depth basis.

The proposed activity will include such an in-depth examination and will also include but not be limited to the following:

1. A preliminary review of the accounting procedures used by some ninety redevelopment corporations with 121A agreements to ensure that consistency and continuity of accounting procedures, terms, and definitions as outlined in each particular contract are followed by said corporation when calculating amounts due the city.

2. An opinion regarding each 121A corporation reviewed, as to whether such corporation is maintaining reasonable, accurate records of income and expenses pertaining to the 121A project, and reporting same to the city.

3. A detailed review of the financial statements and supporting documents leading to their preparation of a subgroup of thirty redevelopment corporations which are either residential or commercial in nature, or both.

4. A detailed review of a sub-group of redevelopment corporations with 121A projects which are residential in nature and having yearly gross receipts in excess of $350,000. This group consists of twenty to thirty such corporations.

5. A review of all payments made to the city by such corporations and the method and accuracy of the respective calculations of such payments.

Each accounting firm is invited to attend a Bidders Meeting on November 14, 1979, at 10 a.m., Room M-30, Mezzanine Floor, Collecting Division, Boston City Hall. At that time, records of the Collecting Division and other information which will assist in bid preparation will be made available. Questions concerning this meeting should be directed to Kenneth P. Glidden, Assistant Collector-Treasurer.

Proposal fees should be based on a cost per hour schedule and such schedule should be detailed in the proposal. Since the work is subject to budgetary limitations by the city, a "not to exceed price" must be included.

Proposals should be received by the Collector-Treasurer before the close of the business day on November 30, 1979. It is anticipated that a firm will be selected by December 17, 1979, and that work should commence by January 7, 1980.

The City of Boston reserves the right to reject any or all proposals.

Sincerely,
LOWELL L. RICHARDS, III,
Collector-Treasurer.

'FACE-LIFT' PLANNED FOR NORTH STATION AREA

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 24, unveiled a multiphased development plan designed by internationally renowned architect Moshe Safdie for the revitalization of the North Station area.

The Safdie plan, which combines public and private investment opportunities, calls for the construction of a new, 350-room hotel, extensive transportation improvements, increased commercial and retail activity, greater public investment, and more innovative riverfront development, principally creating an island in the Charles River for over 1,000 new residential housing units.

Although the Safdie report does not directly address the future of Boston Garden, it assumes that the complex will remain the home of the Boston Bruins and the Boston Celtics in the foreseeable future.

Mayor White indicated the city's readiness to support a proposal for substantial expansion and renovation of the existing Boston Garden building. The Boston Garden Corporation, under Paul Mooney, is now preparing such a proposal.

The comprehensive, three-phase Safdie plan for North Station area revitalization would take fifteen years to complete with costs projected for private, and city, state, and federal sources totaling an estimated $700 million.

Mayor White said, "The plan proposed today brings the vision and creativity of Moshe Safdie to an area which has long represented a challenge to downtown development. The North Station area, for a long time, has been the step-child of development in Boston. Now, we are in the position to turn the development skills we have sharpened in other parts of the city upon the North Station area."

Boston Redevelopment Authority Director Robert Ryan said, "We think this is an area where, with some vision, one can see development that is as exciting as anything that has occurred in this city to date. In fact, we think that the market forces are building so that this area will see development which includes a new residential area, as well as new commercial development, including office, hotel, and retail."

The Safdie plan calls for:

- construction of a new, 350-room hotel;

- the immediate removal of the Green Line elevated tracks, the relocation of the Storrow Drive-Expressway connecting ramps, and the widening of the main arterial streets in the North Station area.

- development of 1,000,000 square feet of office space, 200,000 square feet of retail space, and increased parking;

- creation of an island in the river reshaping both the North and South River edges for 1,000 to 1,200 units of residential development and open the riverfront area behind North Station to public access;

- and revitalization of the Bulfinch Triangle, specifically the public improvements to the Canal Street Mall.

The Safdie plan is outlined in a climate of increased public investment in the North Station area.

More than $100,000 in public capital improvements, such as street improvements and landscaping, are now in the final engineering stages for Canal Street. The Downtown North Association has also contributed $25,000 toward the successful completion of this particular project.

The City of Boston is preparing to petition the state for designation of the North Station area as a Commercial Area Revitalization District (CARD). CARD is a state-funded program which makes incentives such as bond revenue financing, available to commercial and retail businesses. Previously, only industrial clients were eligible for such incentives.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the approval of the City Council and the State Department of Community Affairs, will designate the North Station area as a nonassisted, urban renewal district which will insure public review of all development, and will coordinate and facilitate development in the area.

The state is trying to relieve traffic congestion in the North Station area by constructing a connector between the North Terminal area and Charlestown, which is designed to siphon some of the traffic volume away from Leverett Circle.

Moshe Safdie first established his reputation in architectural circles with his 1964 design and construction supervision of Habitat '67, the experimental housing project which was a part of the Canadian World's Fair, EXPO '67. He is currently the director of the Urban Design Program at the Harvard University School of Design.

North Station Area: Development Proposal

The North Station area is the last major undeveloped parcel in downtown Boston. The current image as Boston's "backyard" reflects how this area was neglected during the 60s and 70s urban renewal of the West End and Government Center. Yet, its proximity to the Central Business District and the excellent auto, commuter rail, transit access makes North Station ripe for development — and a change of its recent image.

The history of the area reveals the reasons behind North Station's character — land fill, commercial development, and transportation improvements tied together. Since 1820, changes in the transportation systems, initially rail and later the elevated transit lines and Central Artery, have been the catalysts shaping North Station's physical character and land uses. The historic forces of transportation and commercial activity will once again change the North Station area during the next fifteen years.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has retained the noted architectural and planning firm of Moshe Safdie and Associates to propose a development plan for the North Station area. The area, approximately 70 acres, is bounded by Merrimac and Lowell Streets, North Washington Street, and the Charles River. It lies between Leverett Circle, Haymarket Square, and the Charlestown Bridge. The site is within a fifteen-minute walk of City Hall, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, and Massachusetts General Hospital. Connections via auto, transit, and rail are excellent from both inner city and suburban locations with commuter rail service, Green and Orange Line stations, and direct access to Storrow Drive, the Expressway, and Commercial Street.

The development proposal assumes three key transportation changes for North Station over the next fifteen years, and links those changes to specific development opportunities:

A. The first key transportation change is the removal of the elevated Green Line structure on Causeway Street, between Canal Street and Lomasney Way, within thirty months, with a temporary terminal at North Station. (The state is very interested in this concept.)

This improvement to Causeway Street, coupled with the city's $125,000 program for street improvements on the Canal Street Mall, would result in rehabilitation for the Bulfinch Triangle and increase the office and retail development possibilities near the Boston Garden.

Bulfinch Triangle — Mixed commercial, wholesale, and office uses would be located in renovated structures and in new infill construction which matched the existing form and pattern of the triangle. The strength of the triangle lies in its regular street and building pattern which in turn gives the "district" a distinct quality unlike any other commercial district in Boston.

In addition, improvement of the interior pedestrian movement of the triangle through walking paths, small open spaces, and first-floor commercial activity would encourage movement across the triangle as well as between the Garden and Government Center.

It would also be possible to utilize the air rights above the present Green Line as a site for a trade mart for the furniture industry.

Office and Retail Development/ Garden Complex — A new focus for pedestrians would be created on the river side of the Garden. This new orientation combines the pedestrian pattern of the commuter rail, transit and Garden users. Demolition of the Hotel Madison, combined with land that is now a city-owned parking lot, will free up a sizable area north and west of the Garden for the addition of new office and commercial users (the site could accommodate a new GSA building). With these new uses and the Garden surrounding the central pedestrian space, a new urban area could take on the quality found in Rockefeller Center and Place Bonaventure in Montreal.

B. Secondly, the planned extension of the commuter rail lines to the back of North Station will permit better connections to the Orange and Green Lines, as well as an improved pedestrian route into the downtown. Extending the tracks 250 feet from the current commuter station to the North Station building would increase the capacity of the current trains by 30 percent. This would accommodate the expected increase in ridership over the next three to five years.

Such a public expenditure should be developed in tandem with the expected renovation of the Garden a $10 to $15-million rehabilitation program which would include a new lobby, escalators, air conditioning, raised roof, and 1,500 additional seats.

C. Thirdly, removal of the existing Storrow connection to the Central Artery will open up development of the rail yards and river area. (The Storrow Drive Connector presently cuts the river's edge off from the city.) Improved circulation around the North Station area and the removal of the connector will open up the site for potential development. A new northbound connection crossing under the Charles to connect with I-93/95 is feasible within eight years, with a new underground southbound connection to be possibly built within ten to twelve years.

D. With the transit and Expressway system modified, the North Station area, comprising approximately 35 acres of developable land, becomes ripe for development. The central design issue is how to capitalize on the natural amenities of the site: the presence of the Charles River and the project's location as one of the main gateways to downtown Boston. If the presence of the river and water could be dominant, then the potential of residential, hotel, office, and recreational use would be greatly enhanced and increased.

This plan, therefore, includes proposals to create a canal, restoring the presence of water where it had once existed, penetrating the depth of the site. This canal, which would require a modest investment, would result in the development of parcels adjacent to the Boston Garden becoming a waterfront site. Furthermore, it creates an island freestanding in the Charles River with extensive development and recreational potential.

Thus, from the public's perception, the narrow canal — which the Charles River has been between the locks and the Science Museum — is converted to a wide waterway with an island. The recreational and park system extending along Storrow Drive is now continued beyond Leverett Circle in two directions:

First, a landscaped promenade would come into the center of the North Station area and extend to the waterfront at the North End and to the Charlestown Park. In this way, the Charles River Park Esplanade System, which is now uninterrupted from Watertown to the North Station area, would be extended. The plan would also create a new Freedom Trail spur to Charlestown and, thus, to important historical attractions such as Bunker Hill and the U.S.S. "Constitution";

Second, a bridge to the island extending along the water and across the railway bridge into the new island would provide even more pedestrian links and walkways.

Within this new constellation of waterways, parks, and promenades, would be a new, attractive site for residential, hotel, office, retail, and institutional development.

North Station Area History

1700s — Mill Pond was a backwater area covering most of the North Station Area. A canal was dug utilizing the tides to operate a saw mill at Dock Square and a grist mill near North Station.

1800s — Charles Bulfinch designed the triangular street pattern south of Causeway Street in 1807, and it was in place by 1840 with Canal Street carrying water from Mill Creek. Manufacturing and warehouse uses predominated. Rail service from the north began in 1820, gradually expanding to four separate lines in 1850. By 1894, the Boston and Maine, the Boston and Lowell, Eastern and Fitchburg Lines were consolidated into the Union Station, thus forming the largest railroad station in the country, serving 500 trains daily.

1900 to 1950 — In 1928, the construction of the new North Station and Boston Garden, along with adjacent hotel and industrial buildings, began a period of revitalization for the area. Transit service was already in place, and with construction in 1953 of the Central Artery, the present form of the North Station area was established. Conversion of some buildings into office uses began as manufacturing companies left the downtown, leaving a strong wholesale trade of furniture and restaurant supplies.

1960 to Present — Urban renewal of the adjacent West End and Government Center areas was carried out in the early sixties but had little impact on the North Station area. Removal of the Orange Line elevated structure in 1975, and the recently completed construction of the new Charles River Dam have begun in changing the negative image of the site.

North Station Area — Public Commitment

Canal Street — $100,000 capital improvements for Canal Street Mall — street improvements, landscaping — now in final engineering stages. The Downtown North Association has contributed $25,000 to this project in a heartening demonstration of community interest, concern, and support.

CARD District — The city is applying for designation of the North Station area as a Commercial Area Revitalization District. CARD is a state-funded program which makes incentives, such as bond revenue financing, available to businessmen, previously available only to industrial firms.

Charlestown/North Terminal Connector — The Massachusetts Department of Public Works will study a design for a Storrow Drive-I-93 connector for possible inclusion in the approved, federally assisted project to eliminate the elevated roads in City Square in Charlestown ($150,000,000 project of the Interstate Highway Program).

Urban Development Area — the BRA, with the approval of the City Council and the State Department of Community Affairs, will designate the North Station area as a nonassisted, urban renewal district which will insure public review of all development, and will coordinate and facilitate development in the area.

CHARLESTOWN NAVY YARD — PROGRESS REPORT

Work is continuing on schedule and at a steady pace for all portions of the Charlestown Navy Yard project, according to BRA Director Robert J. Ryan.

Principal areas of activity include the new waterfront park, which will be ready to open in spring 1980, the first phase of the new housing (formerly Building 42), and site preparation for the new entryway where Gate 4 was formerly located.

"We have undertaken the demolition work necessary for creating a new opening to the Yard from the Charlestown community," Ryan said, "By next year, that entryway should be completed and that will provide direct access to the waterfront park for the Charlestown community."

LIGHTING REDUCED AT PARK STREET STATION

In an effort to reduce the amount of electricity used for lighting, 300 overhead lamps have been turned off on the Green Line platform at Park Street Station, MBTA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Robert L. Foster announced recently.

This action is part of the MBTA's energy conservation program and the curtailment of electricity use for lighting could result in a 50 per cent savings.

Foster stated that, "This is an experimental program. The MBTA will closely monitor the reduced lighting to evaluate any impact on crime safety and accidents. If we are satisfied an energy savings can be achieved without any resulting problems, the MBTA will make this change permanent."

By making this change, the MBTA could save up to $50,000 a year in reduced energy costs and achieve additional savings in reduced maintenance costs, said Ronald Muehlberger, director of Energy Conservation.

BWSC REDUCES HARBOR POLLUTION

Boston Water and Sewer Commission Executive Director John F. Snedeker announced at a news conference recently that the BWSC has significantly reduced the amount of dry weather sewerage overflow into Boston's inner harbor from 23.7 million gallons per day to approximately 8 million gallons per day for an overall reduction of 66.3 percent. He also stated that the daily flow through the outfall located at the Aquarium has been reduced from 14 million gallons per day to approximately 2 million gallons per day, a reduction of 85.8 percent. These findings were substantiated by a preliminary study recently completed by the Metropolitan District Commission.

Snedeker stated, "It has been my goal since I was appointed last December, to deal not only with the long-term solutions to the pollution problem of Boston Harbor but also to utilize short-term, corrective measures wherever possible. We have tried to work closely with the organizations represented here today. Many of these people have spent ten years or more trying to speed improvements such as the ones we are announcing here today. In this particular case we've been able to solve a multi-million dollar pollution problem by spending approximately $10,000 on three short-term, corrective measures."

The remedial steps are first, a concrete plug was installed to block an abandoned outfall where a serious tidal inflow at the intersection of State Street and Atlantic Avenue was discovered. Secondly, a dam of stop planks was built in the overflow chamber at New Atlantic Avenue and Milk Street to prevent waste water from entering the harbor by storing it at a higher level in the outfall chamber and existing 66-inch pipe without danger of back up. Thirdly, a concrete plug will be installed this month to block the 30-inch overflow connection between the east side interceptor and the 84-inch storm drain, located in front of Stella's Restaurant, to prevent sewerage from flowing out the Aquarium outfall.

Snedeker concluded, "Although the three, corrective measures have drastically cut down the amount of waste water entering the harbor, there are still other overflow challenges to meet. We've contracted with a private engineering consulting firm to study and identify other sources of saltwater intrusion or other adverse conditions in the waterfront area. Wherever possible, we will use short-term, corrective measures such as the ones we've already completed. These corrective measures will continue to temporarily relieve much of the pollution flowing into the harbor until we can implement our extensive plans for rebuilding and refurbishing the sewer system in the area."

Organizations joining Mr. Snedeker at the news conference were:

Boston Conservation Commission, Boston Harbor Associates, Boston Harbor Citizens Advisory Committee, Boston Municipal Research Bureau, Charles River Watershed Association, Environmental Protection Agency, Massachusetts Department of Water Pollution Control, and MDC/CSO Citizens Advisory Committee.

ELDERLY HOUSING PROJECT SET FOR SOUTH HUNTINGTON AVENUE

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has given its approval for a 125-unit elderly housing project to be developed by the Back of the Hill Community Development Association on a site formerly owned by Lahey Clinic.

The $5.9 million project will be constructed on a 70,000-square-foot site at 100 South Huntington Avenue. The land is currently vacant.

Mayor Kevin H. White, commenting on the BRA's action, said, "I am pleased that this community-based group has been able to obtain necessary financing to go ahead with this project. This is an important step in the revitalization process of this neighborhood, and this will provide yet another opportunity for elderly citizens to live in new and attractive housing."

The project will receive section 8 rental subsidies from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Section 8 rental subsidies make it possible for tenants of the project to pay rent which amounts to 25 percent of their monthly income.

The new housing will have 99 one-bedroom units, 20 two-bedroom units and six three-bedroom units. The building will be 11 stories high.

The land on which the housing will be located was purchased by Lahey Clinic for a planned expansion to include a new hospital. However, Lahey Clinic decided to construct its new hospital in Burlington, Massachusetts. But housing which existed on the site had already been demolished.

Residents of the area formed a non-profit corporation, Back of the Hill Community Development Association, to undertake development of new housing on the site.

Architect for the project is John Sharratt Associates.

NEWEST DISCOUNT BOOKLET AVAILABLE FOR BOSTON SENIORS

The fourth edition of the M.O.B. (Mayor's Older Bostonians) discount book is now available, Mayor Kevin H. White announced on October 26. The newly revised booklet lists close to 500 businesses throughout the city which offer discounts from 5 to 50 percent to M.O.B. members.

"It is my hope that this program will be of some small assistance to Older Bostonians in their efforts to cope with spiralling cost of living," Mayor White said. "The city is very grateful to the many merchants and businesses who offer discounts to M.O.B. members," he said.

Registered M.O.B. members and interested Boston seniors who are sixty and over, with proof of age and residence, may pick up their copies at any Little City Hall or at the Mayor's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly in Room 271 of Boston City Hall.

REVITALIZATION PLANNED FOR GROVE HALL

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 26, outlined for public review a broad, new, development approach for the Blue Hill Avenue Corridor, and reported progress in achieving the long-standing goals of the neighborhood, including the designation of a developer to undertake a $1 million revitalization of a major portion of the Grove Hall business district.

The new development strategy, the subject of a fifty-two-page report authored by former State Planning Director Frank Keefe, and presented to a special community meeting on October 26, emphasizes neighborhood business district revitalization, the reuse of vacant land and buildings for new housing, the involvement of neighborhood entrepreneurs, and the improvement of the rapid transit system lines in the community — all to foster increased neighborhood vitality.

Said Mayor White, "If anyone had told you ten years ago that Grove Hall would be the scene of a million dollar, private commercial development, you wouldn't have believed it. But, it's going to happen here. This plan is realistic. It will take hard work. It will take neighborhood commitment. It will take private money. But, we've made progress over the past few years here, and today we are reaffirming our commitment and our resolve."

The first steps toward achieving the Keefe Report's goals were announced on October 26 by Mayor White:

— The designation of the Prince Hall Development Corp. to undertake the $1 million development of nearly one-half of the entire Grove Hall business district. That development will take place on eight vacant or abandoned parcels which the city, owner of the properties through tax foreclosure, has agreed to sell to Prince Hall for a nominal $40,000 fee. Two of those parcels will be developed for housing, the other six for commercial use.

The city will reimburse 25 percent of the Prince Hall project costs from federal Urban Development Action Grants. These monies have been earmarked by the developers for rent subsidies for the commercial buildings in the project.

In addition to that commercial enterprise, the Prince Hall Development Corp. plans to embark upon the expansion of its meeting hall (the home of a 5,000-member, New England Masonic Lodge), to refurbish the adjacent, abandoned Coca-Cola building as a community resource center, and to upgrade an existing parking lot, also adjacent to the Masonic Lodge.

— UDAG grants have been committed to two Dudley Station businesses for renovations, and the award is nearly ready for a third. That means 25 percent rebates to Robell's Department Store, the largest department store in Dudley Station, on a $50,000 face-lifting, and Calvey Jewelers, one of the oldest stores in the area, on a $25,000 upgrading. The incomplete grant is slated for the Boston Gas Company building on a $112,000 remodeling job.

— and the Boston Redevelopment Authority will soon begin clearance of a parcel in Grove Hall for the construction of a new forty-space, parking lot to serve the business district there.

This report is part of the Neighborhood Development Action Strategy, a new policy approach to local development announced by Mayor White in early September. The strategy is designed to insure that the economic success of downtown development is passed onto the neighborhoods, particularly their business districts.

Dorchester's Lower Mills and Roslindale Square have been the subjects of earlier Keefe revitalization reports.

Councillor Louise Day Hicks:

Whereas, The winter months which bring serious problems in the housing developments in the City of Boston are here; and

Whereas, In the Boston Housing developments there have been not only hot water failures and electrical failures, but substantial heating failures leaving the tenants with spoiled food and no means of keeping warm; and

Whereas, The maintenance crew in the developments is most inadequate to even handle the every day problems, but on weekends and holidays the emergency crews are too small in numbers to handle the crucial problems; and

Whereas, The results of these failures will lead not only to deterioration of the housing but more important physical harm of the tenants, many of whom are older Americans; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Boston Housing Authority increase its emergency manpower for each project and furnish the tenants with an emergency number within the project to contact when a mechanical failure becomes apparent.

In City Council October 10, 1979
Adopted.

Attest:

BARRY T. HYNES,
City Clerk.

MORE ELDERLY HOUSING UNITS FOR DORCHESTER

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has given approval for a 132-unit elderly housing project at the corner of Auckland and Dewar Streets in the Savin Hill section of Dorchester.

The housing, to be developed by the firm of Corcoran, Mullins and Jennison, Inc., will be produced through the conversion of a five-story industrial building now located on the site.

All units will receive section 8 rental subsidies from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Section 8 subsidies allow residents of the housing to pay rent that amounts to 25 percent of their monthly income.

Mayor Kevin H. White hailed the BRA action, saying, "Once again we will have a project that involves the re-use of a older building to serve the housing needs of our elderly citizens. A small park, landscaping, and even space for residents to have their own gardens will make this new project a welcome addition to the community. We are pleased and proud to be part of this kind of project. It meets the needs of the elderly and of the community as a whole."

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan noted that the site at the present time is characterized by industrial structures which are underutilized and several sheds which are in disrepair.

Ryan said, "This is a case where we can help rejuvenate an area that is a blighting influence on the surrounding neighborhood. Buildings which are unsound will be demolished and an attractive residential complex will replace an eyesore."

Estimated cost of the project is $5.9 million.

The development firm of Corcoran, Mullins and Jennison, Inc., recently completed a similar project which involved the renovation of the Keystone Camera building into elderly housing.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Educational Materials

IBM MACHINES

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to International Business Machines Corporation (IBM), for furnishing agreement for lease or rental of IBM machines and amendment to agreement for lease or rental of IBM machines state and local government lease plan for the term beginning July 1, 1978, and ending June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $65,500.

This is a continuation of the existing contract to provide machines and service for equipment supplied to the School Department in various schools and offices. The equipment has proven most satisfactory and the price is reasonable. Because of the specified nature of IBM equipment it is the opinion of our staff that advertisement of bids would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to International Business Machines Corporation (IBM), for furnishing purchase and service on nine IBM memory typewriters from November 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $7,465.68.

The nine typewriters are located on the sixth floor of the Administration Building in the Investigation and Measurement Department, where they have been installed since December, 1975. As of August 1, 1978, they accrued the maximum purchase equity allowed under the IBM contract. Consequently, it would be less expensive to purchase the machines on a twenty-four-month, time-payment plan than to continue on the lease agreement.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Special Needs Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendations of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Natalie Ward, 1170 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Mass. The contract shall be in effect during the period of October 10, 1978, to June 30, 1979, and occur at a cost not to exceed $14,737.50, which is deemed to be reasonable by the committee.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Richard J. Murphy Community School. Ms. Ward will work for five days a week in the diagnostic classroom at the center doing assessments, on site visits, report writing, and teacher training. She will also provide speech therapy to children in the substantially separate classroom.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of her past experience at Children's Hospital, Charles Drew Center, and Northeastern University.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from Title VIG, approved-project 443DH80036, Cost Center 067.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of his expertise in the area of career options for special needs students.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws chapter 44, s. 53A and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from PL 94-142, state-approved Project 79-035-428B, Cost Center 162.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

The contractor shall upon the basis of his training and experience conduct the School Volunteers for Boston program: to recruit, train, and with advice from the Boston Public Schools, place volunteers as tutors, classroom and library assistants, and enrichment agents in the schools.

Because of its experienced personnel, staff, and unique resources in working with volunteers in the Boston Public Schools, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,

Merchandising Course

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Education Collaborative for Greater Boston, Inc. The contract shall be in effect during the period of July 1, 1977, to May 31, 1978, and occur at a cost not to exceed $5,000, which is deemed to be reasonable by the committee.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Quincy Market Project: employment of eleven South Boston High School vocational (distributive education) students as part of a merchandising course at Quincy Market.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because EdCO under a separate contract (approved by a School Committee on June 28, 1977, VEA Grant 6677) established a student-operated business at Quincy Market and developed a model in distributive education. Payment to students in this program was agreed to by the associate superintendent for occupational education and the associate commissioner for occupational education from VEA Grant WS2777. Contract represents reimbursement to EdCO for salaries paid to students in this program.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from state-approved Project WS2777, VEA of 1963 (P.L. 90-576).

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Financial Information Services

Dear Mayor White:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I respectfully request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Ernst & Ernst, 200 Clarendon Street, Boston, to assist the business manager in implementing automated mechanisms for maintaining and reporting School Department financial information consistent with the requirements of law, assist in the management of the minicomputer facility, and assist in the maintenance and enhancement of existing system operations.

The duration of the contract is to be from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979. Full compensation for carrying out this contract will not exceed $75,000. The contractor will be allowed a sum not to exceed $2,000 for duly authorized travel.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee, that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Training Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendations of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Shore Collaborative. The contract shall be in effect during the period of August 21, to August 25, 1978, and occur at a cost not to exceed $5,400, which is deemed to be reasonable by the Committee.

The contractor will conduct an in-service training program to be held at the Campbell Resource Center, District VI entitled: "A Trainer's Workshop: Implementing the Individual Educational Plan (I.E.P.)." Shore Collaborative will pay a stipend of $180 to each of the thirty Boston Public School participants of the five-day workshop.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because the training workshop and materials have been developed with the cooperation of Boston School professionals and their university affiliates.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

SUFFOLK COUNTY Boston Juvenile Court Educational Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Basics, Inc., Boston, Mass. Under the terms of the contract, Basics will provide educational services to children referred to it by this court under St. 1973, ch. 1073, the Children in Need of Services Act.

The program will include individualized curricula for six hours per day under the direction of three certified teachers. Counseling and other supportive services are also provided. Vans are utilized to transport the children to and from school. Because Basics is part of the School Department's Flexible Campus Program, students may receive public school credits for work done elsewhere. We feel that this contract cost is reasonable.

This contract will be effective from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $98,124.

Because of the unique nature of the services to be provided, I believe that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Francis G. H. H. H.,
Presiding Justice.

The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

KEVIN H. WHITE

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 71

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1979

NO. 46

VETERANS DAY NOVEMBER 11

Let us all in our own special way honor our war veterans living and dead with a prayer invoking the good Lord to always remember them. They are most deserving of this honor.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands. One Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

MAYOR WHITE RE-ELECTED

Boston's forty-fifth Mayor, Kevin Hagan White, was elected to an unprecedented fourth, consecutive, four-year term on Tuesday, November 6.

He is the only Mayor of Boston to win election to four, consecutive terms. James Michael Curley served four terms, but they were spread over thirty-five years.

Mayor White defeated his challenger, Joseph Timilty, by 55 to 45 percent. The unofficial tabulation of votes gave Mayor White 77,513 and Joseph Timilty 63,824. (The City Record will publish complete voting results in next week's edition.)

During his victory speech, Mayor White said "We won all across the city. What pleases me most is that this is the first time in twelve years that this city has not been electorally divided."

In a recent interview Mayor White said three of his major goals for the next four years are to improve the city's troubled race relations, tax reform, and the restructuring of the municipal bureaucracy.

NEIGHBORHOOD ACTION PROGRAM FOR SAFETY

Crime prevention is the most frequent request of citizens and neighborhood groups who call my offices. Bostonians in every neighborhood are concerned that their families and their property be safe from theft and assault. But more police — the most visible sign to citizens — is an expensive solution. In fact, crime prevention is best accomplished by an interested, concerned citizenry working with the police.

The Neighborhood Action Program for Safety (NAPS) is funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of Justice, Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. In response to the frequent requests for crime prevention assistance, my staff developed this project and sought out funds to coordinate city resources and encourage citizen participation in crime prevention. Boston is a pioneer in this venture, and I hope that you will work energetically with your NAPS field representative and Boston Police Department Crime Prevention Officers to institute neighborhood crime prevention where you live.

Kevin H. White,
Mayor.

What Is Neighborhood Crime Prevention?

- Coordination of services
- Citizen participation
- Neighborhood solidarity

What Can I Check in My Own Home?

- locks
- all means of egress, including doors and bulkheads
- ground-level windows
- lighting
- ladders

What Can the NAPS Project Do? Home Security

By adopting some simple security measures, you can better protect your home and property. NAPS coordinators will meet with you and your neighbors to discuss various ways to make your home safer and more secure against possible burglary.

Ident-I-Guard

By participating in the Boston Police Ident-I-Guard Program, you can deter burglars. NAPS coordinators will assist you in marking your valuables with your Social Security number. You will receive Ident-I-Guard stickers for the front and back doors of your home to warn a potential burglar. The engraving will help the police in apprehending and prosecuting any thief who takes a chance and does steal your possessions.

Block Watch

Crime prevention becomes a reality only when the citizens of a community are directly involved. By getting to know your neighbors and being watchful of their safety, you can contribute to the safety of your neighborhood. Your NAPS coordinator will help you and your neighbors organize a block watch on your street.

Other Crime Prevention Measures

Crime prevention assistance can take many forms. For example, NAPS staff can talk with you about

- Tenant-landlord matters
- Federal Crime Insurance
- Home security rebates from HUD
- Arson alert projects
- Banking services such as Direct Deposit
- And many more topics

Your NAPS coordinator is available to discuss these and other crime prevention measures with your church, civic, or neighborhood group.

Any citizen in a NAPS neighborhood is eligible for assistance. There are no requirements related to age, income, home ownership, or other limiting factor. NAPS coordinators are here to serve you.

How Do I Find Out More?

NAPS coordinators work in target neighborhoods from the Little City

Halls. They can be reached by phone or in person, and have flexible schedules to suit your convenience.

'OFFICER FRIENDLY' PROGRAM IN 11TH YEAR

The Boston Police Department's Officer Friendly program, a popular project designed to provide school children with the proper role model of Boston's police officers, began its eleventh year November 12 with a kickoff luncheon at Boston's Faneuil Hall Marketplace.

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan welcomed more than 115 guests at Quincy Market's Alexander Paris Room and announced that the Officer Friendly program would now operate as a separate component of the department's Crime Prevention Unit. As a result, the ten officers assigned to the unit, all experts in personal safety instruction, will now visit schools within their assigned districts at least three times during the 1979-1980 school year.

The first visit will permit Officer Friendly to explain the role of the police officer. Second and third visits will permit the officer to explain such concepts as "stranger danger" and respect for authority. At the same time, Officer Friendly will teach children how to use the telephone when they need police help as well as providing advice for safety in the home, in school, and on the playground.

The expanded Officer Friendly program is a cooperative venture involving the Boston Police Department and the city's School Department. A generous grant provided by the Sears Roebuck Foundation permitted the Police Department to expand the program in cooperation with the School Department.

Commenting on the newly expanded program, Commissioner Jordan said the Officer Friendly program has considerable value as a deterrent to future difficulties involving police and youth. "This program permits us to teach youngsters that a police officer is a friend, a person to turn to when you need help," added the Commissioner. "It will be an excellent way for our department to provide the proper role model we want our children to follow."

Commissioner Jordan announced the Officer Friendly visits will begin later this month when the department celebrates "Officer Friendly Week," scheduled tentatively for the week of November 26 to 30.

LAST "GOOD-BUYS" AT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

When the Boston Children's Museum moved this summer from Jamaica Plain to its new waterfront site at Museum Wharf, it left behind a stuffed moose head, a parking meter, an Empire butler's desk, a mimeograph machine, and a scale model of a Gothic cathedral.

All this and more goes on the block November 18 when the museum stages Last Good-Buys, a sale and auction at the old museum site on the Jamaica way.

It's a chance for everyone to bid farewell to the buildings that housed the museum from 1935 to early 1979, and to buy and bid on objects that are serious and funny, useful and useless: vintage furniture, plaster models of prehistoric monsters, a telephone switchboard from the 30s, WWII posters from England, a gigantic dollhouse, books and educational materials, darkroom supplies, unusual sea shells, American Indian baskets, miniatures, tourist dolls, museum memorabilia, and treasures for children.

The sale is from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. The auction starts at 1 p.m. with a preview from 10 to 12:30 p.m. Admission to the auction is $1 and catalogs will be available. Refreshments will be on sale all day.

Last Good-Buys is at the intersection of the Jamaica way (Route 1) and Burroughs Street, Jamaica Plain. By public transportation, take the Arborway car on the Green Line.

MDC DEVELOPS WATER SUPPLY PROGRAM

Metropolitan District Commissioner Guy A. Carbone announced on October 30, the development of a program he believes will help to solve the water supply problems currently faced by the State of Massachusetts.

The program is part of a continuing effort to close the gap between safe yield and water usage by MDC communities and was announced as a supplement to the Commission's Water Conservation Report issued this past summer. The Water Conservation Report was part of a program designed by Commissioner Carbone and his staff to keep the public informed on MDC water supply issues and policy.

At the annual meeting of MDC water users on October 30, the Water Division of the agency presented a program for watershed management designed to maintain and to increase water runoff from lands under its control in watersheds near the Ware River, and Quabbin and Wachusett Reservoirs.

"The MDC," Commissioner Carbone related, "has been faced with an increasing imbalance between the safe yields of its water supply system and demands made on that supply by user communities and by other communities that apparently have no alternative other than turning to the MDC for help in augmenting their their own supplies. We think the program will be a big help in solving those problems."

Commissioner Carbone noted the watershed management program instituted by the MDC emphasized the reduction of water lost in MDC reservations due to plant absorption and to evaporation. A tripling of the number of personnel engaged in MDC forestry work will intensify the level of effort made in selective woodcutting and clearing of areas for timber and cordwood sales. In addition, certain old pine and spruce plantations can be converted under the plan. Eventually MDC forestry coverage will be reduced by 10 percent.

"The MDC," Commissioner Carbone avowed, "has requested more than $160,000 in this year's budget for new equipment and personnel to begin a ten-year management program. These expenditures must be approved by the Legislature. It is anticipated costs of the intensified program will be reimbursed through increased revenues made possible by greater demands by the public for timber and cordwood."

It was emphasized by Commissioner Carbone that MDC policy calls not only for increased water yield but the protection of wilderness and wildlife values in the agency's watershed areas.

"The goal is to obtain a diverse, durable, productive, and aesthetically pleasing environment," according to the Water Division's program statement.

DEVONSHIRE TOWERS PLANNED FOR HUB

The Boston Redevelopment Authority on November 1, gave its approval for construction of a forty-story, 480-unit apartment tower on Washington Street, one block away from Boston's Government Center.

The building, which will occupy the former site of The Boston Globe, will contain retail space on the ground floor and five levels of office space. Entrances to the building will be on both Washington and Devonshire Streets.

Cost of the project is estimated at $33 million.

Mayor Kevin H. White hailed the BRA action, saying, "This is an extraordinary project. For the first time we are going to have residential development in the middle of our retail and financial district. More and more people want to live in Boston and a good portion of those people want to live right in the middle of our downtown. This one development could usher in the day when residential uses become commonplace on our downtown. I am also pleased that the city will receive in excess of $1 million a year in property taxes from this development, which is almost ten times the amount of property taxes it receives at present."

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan said that residential use, combined with retail and office uses on the lower levels, met with the city's long-range plans to encourage residential use in the downtown, but to maintain active uses which are compatible with the office and retail uses which already exist in that area of downtown.

Ryan said that construction on the building will be under way by the end of 1979 with completion scheduled for 1981.

Developers of the apartment tower, to be known as Devonshire Towers, are Lawrence Ruben, Harvey E. Rothenberg, and Alvin Schragis, all of New York City. Mr. Schragis is involved with Carol Management, which owns the Doral chain of hotels in Florida and other major real estate holdings.

The building is a Z-shaped structure, with one section fronting on Devonshire Street and another fronting on Washington Street. There will be a pedestrian pathway connecting Washington and Devonshire Streets.

The one-, two-, and three-bedroom units will be on the top thirty-two floors, with a rooftop swimming pool. The building will also have three levels of underground parking.

Architects for the building are the Boston architectural firm, Steffian, Bradley Associates, Inc.

IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM FOR BOSTON HARBOR

Mayor White Announces Comprehensive Program for Development of Boston Harbor

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 29, announced a comprehensive program for coordinating development along the Boston waterfront with recommendations for providing public access to the harbor and increased commercial and residential uses.

The report was produced by the Boston Redevelopment Authority with Sasaki Associates, designers of Boston's Christopher Columbus Waterfront Park.

It provides a $35-million, improvement program for the Boston waterfront from Commercial Wharf to Fort Point Channel, and an inventory of waterfront land uses along Boston Harbor.

The report makes recommendations for preservation, recreation, and development in the harbor-front neighborhoods of East Boston, South Boston, Dorchester, Charlestown, and the North End/Waterfront, as well as management and funding strategies, legislation, and programs to achieve the improvements outlined in the fifty-page study.

Mayor White said, "Boston's waterfront is on the verge of an exciting period of development. Both residents and tourists are coming in record numbers to play, work, relax, and enjoy themselves along our waterfront. Competition for use of the land along the harbor is increasing. This report is part of our efforts to deal with the issues raised by this competition.

"We are setting the course for our waterfront for the rest of the century. The people of Boston's neighborhoods will have greater access to the harbor system, and we will develop the economic potential that exists in new housing and new commercial uses."

Over 2,000 acres of land border Boston harbor, with nearly 700 acres of that land lying vacant at the present time.

About 550 acres are used for industrial purposes, 440 acres for public recreation, and 316 for commercial uses. Over 3,000,000 people live within 25 miles of the harbor and 200,000 people in Boston live within walking distance of the harbor and the rivers entering the harbor.

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan said the report grew out of the establishment within the BRA of a Harbor Planning Task Force to review the issues of public access, public open space, transportation, development, and land inventory.

The goals outlined in the study are:

- To maximize public access to the waterfront
- To encourage tax-generating waterfront development
- To retain activities which reflect the working waterfront's character
- To provide municipal boat landing facilities
- To provide water connections to the Harbor Islands and park area
- To encourage commuter transportation through development of an inner harbor ferry system
- To preserve and enhance environmental and navigational conditions
- To retain historic character

A major recommendation of the report is to implement these goals by having the Downtown-Waterfront and Fort Point Channel area designated the seventh site of the existing multisite Boston National Historic Park.

It is estimated that improvements recommended for the area between Commercial Wharf and Fort Point Channel will cost $35 million, most of which is eligible for funding under a variety of local, state, and federal programs.

MULTISERVICE CENTER
MUNICIPAL BUILDING

Mayor Kevin H. White, on October 30, announced plans for a $500,000 renovation of the former Brighton Municipal Building as a multiservice center for Brighton's sizable elderly population.

Funded by the George Robert White Fund, a city administered trust, the multiservice center, one of the first of its kind in the City of Boston, will offer a variety of services:

- health care, including dental care, mental health care and counseling and a podiatry clinic in addition to conventional health care programs designed for the elderly
- hot lunch program
- educational, recreational, and cultural programs
- informational, referral, and advocacy counseling services.

Said Mayor White, "What this means is that, for the first time, seniors in Brighton, will be able to get low-cost health care designed specifically for the elderly and their special needs, in their own neighborhoods. Much of the service at the center will be preventative health care, attempting to cure those small ills before they become major problems."

Mayor White added, "But the services here will cover the whole range of elderly needs: from the senior shuttle, to educational programs, to recreation. It may even be just what the doctor ordered for the loneliness which so often comes with aging."

The center, which will be administered by the Department of Health and Hospitals in cooperation with the city's Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly, will operate on a $300,000 annual budget from a variety of resources.

Construction is scheduled to begin on the renovations by March 5, 1980, and to be completed by November 15, 1980.

Project architects are Chisholm Washington Associates.

It's all very well to be sincere, but some people are sure to wonder what you're up to.

"The stork brought me," a little girl said proudly.

"Well," a second girl said with equal pride, "I arrived in the doctor's little black bag."

"Humph!" snorted a third little girl whose mother had been late getting to the hospital, "I came by cab!"

III. LETTER OF THANKS

"Dear Commissioner Paul:

On October 21, 1979, at approximately 5 a.m., we had an occasion to request the assistance of your department due to a fire in one of our kitchens. I would like to bring to your attention the professional manner in which your men carried out their duties, under the command of District Chief George Rull.

We all hear today how public service departments don't have today what they had in years gone by. I come from a fire fighting family; my father over 30 years service in Chelsea, and a brother with twenty years service in Chelsea. I spent twenty-three years on the Massachusetts State Police. Believe me, the Boston Fire Department, dealing with them Sunday morning, still has it.

A direct credit to you and your leadership.

Very truly yours,

Signed/Daniel L. Delaney, Jr.,
Director of Security, Suffolk Downs."

CONTRACT AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contract without public advertising, based on the the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT Actuarial Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the following firm for actuarial services in reviewing bid specifications and individual bids submitted regarding the City of Boston's group life insurance program: William M. Mercer, Incorporated, 200 Clarendon Street, Boston Mass. 02116.

The total amount of the contract will not exceed $3,500. This contract will be in effect from March 20, 1979, through April 1, 1979.

William M. Mercer, Inc. is an independent insurance consulting firm that has expertise in the area of actuarial calculations and is highly qualified to review the bid specifications and assumptions made by insurance companies which have responded to the City of Boston's specification. The firm's fee for services is reasonable and its experience and expertise in the field of actuarial calculations persuades me that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for competitive bids.

Respectfully,

Edward T. Sullivan,
Director.

Purchasing Division
Generator Seat, Etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 26, 1979, your Honor approved a letter to award a contract to Power Equipment Co. the only bidder on a publicly opened bid of April 20, 1979, for furnishing a gasoline-fueled generator seat and installation to the Commission on the Affairs of the Elderly in the amount of $15,000.

Subsequent to April 26, 1979, the Purchasing Division was informed by the J. H. Westerbeke Corp. that it had mailed a bid to the Purchasing Division and the Auditor's Office on April 16, 1979. Since Neither the Purchasing Division nor the Auditor's copies of the bids were received, it must be presumed to have been lost in the mail. J. H. Westerbeke Corp. sent us a copy of its bid which is in the amount of $8,843. — net with delivery in approximately three weeks from receipt of order.

These generators are used in the vans and provide an auxiliary electrical plant essential to the operation of support services for handling of food.

Because of the need of quick resumption of the discount food service for Boston's Elderly and the very substantial difference between the two bids, I feel that it is in the city's best interests to accept the lower late bid.

Therefore, your approval is requested to rescind the previous award to Power Equipment Co. and to award a contract, without further advertising, to J. H. Westerbeke Corp., Ledin Ave., Avon, for the reasons cited above in the amount of $8,843 — net, a cost I consider reasonable.

Respectfully yours,

Peter J. Duggan,
Acting Assistant Purchasing Agent.

Incident Report Forms

Dear Mr. White:

On November 27, 1978, your Honor approved the award of a contract to Control Data Corporation, 60 Hickory Drive, Waltham, for furnishing incident report forms to the Police Department. Control Data Corporation has informed me that, due to paper shortages resulting from prolonged paper strikes, it cannot fulfill its contractual requirements. Therefore, the contract has been terminated.

Because Control Data Corporation was remiss in not notifying me immediately of their supply problem, the Police Department now has only a scant, two-week supply of the incident report forms.

Following is a summary of informal bids and delivery dates received by the Purchasing Division for these forms:

Data Forms, Inc., $68.88 per M, two weeks, earliest delivery; Burroughs Corp., $75.50 per M, three weeks, earliest delivery; Moore Business Forms, $99.47 per M, four weeks, earliest delivery.

Therefore, your approval is requested to award a contract to Data Forms Inc., 149 Market Street, Brighton, without advertising, in the amount not to exceed $3,444 — net thirty days. This company is a responsible corporation and the cost is considered reasonable.

For the reasons outlined above and because of the urgent need for these forms, further advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Ambulance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Boston City Hospital for one Type I modular ambulance.

The City Hospital currently operates a fleet of twenty, modular ambulances, fifteen of which were manufactured by Modular Ambulance Corporation. Restrictive purchase of the SA-140 Modulance manufactured by Modular Ambulance Corporation is requested due to the proven satisfactory field performance experienced by the Emergency Medical Technician and Fleet Maintenance Staff. Significant cost efficiencies and increased operative time can be realized through the stocking of interchangeable replacement parts and accessories. Department personnel are familiar with the operation and service of the modular ambulance. When necessary, repairs covered by warranty have been performed locally to our satisfaction.

The cost effectiveness and serviceability of ambulances which incorporate modular patient compartments that can be transferred to several chassis over their useful lives and standardization of major equipment have been on-going objectives of the department.

Permission is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Miller Meteor Sales Inc., 322 Washington Street, Brookline, for one 1978 Modulance modular ambulance. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $25,959 — net.

This company is the exclusive distributor for modular ambulances in New England, New York, and New Jersey. This company is a responsible corporation and the price is reasonable.

It is essential to purchase this type of ambulance to maintain uniformity of inventory of spare parts. In the last two years, Health and Hospitals department has purchased many of this type ambulance and has serviced the needs of the citizens of Boston and the Health and Hospital Department as well.

In view of the above-mentioned circumstances and due to the urgent need for an additional ambulance, it is my opinion that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent

Communications Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Permission is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Motorola Communications and Northeast Electronics Inc., 19 Bradston Street, Boston, for furnishing life support-communications equipment to the department of Health and Hospitals. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $34,820.15 — net.

This company is covered under a competitive bidding process supervised under federal and state requirements by the Massachusetts Office of Emergency Medical Services of the Department of Public Health conducted in June, 1978. Subsequently, this company was awarded that contract to furnish equipment and this is simply a purchase of one item from that award.

Additionally, the following items represent an addition to the Department of Health and Hospitals communications control console and base station network. In order to expand the communications system to keep pace with the expansion of the ambulance service, the equipment is urgently needed.

Therefore, we must purchase the proper components manufactured by this company. Many of the components, even if they could be made by another manufacturer, would not function properly with the Motorola equipment and could create a serious servicing and warranty problem if they were not Motorola-supplied products.

The equipment to be purchases is as follows:

(a) Console Transmit/Receive Module B1315, with patch and wild card; (b) ST1256/ST1264ST1265/ST1199 channel elements, (c) RF Load T1013A, Tone Oscillator, DC Power Supply 41011-AA Wave Whip Antenna, 100' RG-58U coaxial cable, radio fuses and Micor Control Cable Sets; (d) ADC — JC-4/24M Connectorized jackfield, 100' ADC connectorized cable; ADC—Bantam Patch Cords PJ714, ADC—Bantam Patch Cords PJ712.

This company is a responsible corporation and the prices are reasonable.

In my opinion, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Fire Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Fire Department for furnishing miscellaneous supplies and equipment to the Fire Department for the fire apparatus.

Middleboro Fire Apparatus Company Inc. is the sole supplier for the type of equipment requested. Permission is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement to Middleboro Fire Apparatus, Inc., 70 Wareham Street, Middleboro. The amount of the contract is not to exceed $16,085.99 — net.

This company is a responsible corporation and very dependable for prompt delivery of necessary equipment and their prices are reasonable.

In my opinion, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Data Processing Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This office is in receipt of requisitions from the Suffolk County Registry of Deeds for the lease or rental of data processing equipment. This equipment is used to prepare, verify, collate, and reproduce data for all of the applications of the Data Processing Unit.

Permission is requested to award a contract, without public advertisement, to International Business Machine Corporation (IBM), Armonk, New York, with local offices at 400 Wyman Street, Waltham, in an amount not to exceed $22,000 — net. Period of contract will be from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, inclusive.

Because the lease or rental and maintenance of these machines is required to perform the operations of Registry of Deeds and the price is reasonable, it is my opinion that advertising for bids would serve no useful purpose.

This letter is being submitted late because of a general review of the city's data processing system conducted by Coopers and Lybrand.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Switchgear

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This office is in receipt of a requisition from the Public Facilities Department for one switchgear to be located at the East Concord Street entrance of the Boston City Hospital grounds.

Since the Boston Edison Company owns the switchgear and since no other company could compete in supplying this equipment, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be accomplished by publicly advertising for bids.

Permission is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Boston Edison Company (Commercial Marketing Department) 800 Boylston Street, Boston.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $12,000 — net.

This company is a responsible corporation and the price is reasonable.

Respectfully Yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Computer Service

Dear Mr. White:

Permission is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Sperry Univac, 60 Williams Street, Wellesley, in an amount not to exceed $6,228 — net. The period of the contract will be from January 1, through June 30, 1979.

Under the terms of the contract, the contractor will service and maintain a 9200 computer owned by the Boston Municipal Criminal Court.

Since Sperry Univac is the manufacturer of the equipment, it is uniquely qualified to perform this service and maintenance.

Because of the reason cited above and the reasonable cost of these services, it is my opinion that publicly advertising for bids would serve no useful purpose.

The late submission of this request is, due to the inadvertence of the Municipal Criminal Court, a timely requisition was not furnished to the Purchasing Division.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Computer Service

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Computer Partners, Inc., 34 Washington Street, Wellesley Hills. The contract will be in an amount not to exceed $12,000 for the period of July 23, 1979, through October 19, 1979. Provision for this contract will be from Building Department funds.

The purpose of this contract is to provide maintenance for an automated management information system (MIS) for the building Department. Computer Partners has already successfully completed a detailed design of the MIS and is progressing effectively and efficiently on system implementation. Because of the need for maintenance of a new system, the inadequate resources of the Data Processing Department, and excellent experience to date with Computer Partners, I recommend Computer Partners for this work. Their cost to maintain the system is reasonable.

Therefore, for the reasons cited above, public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

Francis W. Gens,
Acting Commissioner.

Mailing Services, Etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The Coleman Corp., 363 Albany Street, Boston, has been furnishing labor, materials, making new subscription plates, and addressographing for the City Record, City of Boston, for more than fifty years. They also transport 1,260 copies of the City Record weekly to the South Postal Annex, Boston.

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and award a $4,000, one-year, no-bid contract to the Coleman Corporation. Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $4,000 yearly, which I consider exceptionally reasonable. The term of said contract shall be from July 1, 1979, to June 30, 1980. The firm is very accommodating, has not increased prices for more than fifteen years, and is accessible for immediate urgent changes.

A recent survey revealed that the Coleman Corporation price of $4,000 yearly would be far lower than prices quoted by other comparable firms averaging $8,000 to $10,000 yearly.

Respectfully,

Joseph J. Fahey,
Editor.

DEVELOPMENT AND CONSTRUCTION Feasibility Studies

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with public bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $25,000, to the Boston Landmarks Commission, operating under the administrative jurisdiction of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, a corporation organized pursuant to M.G.L.A. c., 121B, located at One City Hall Plaza.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Regional Training Center, Room 1008, J. W. McCormack Post Office and Court House Building, Boston, to provide professional job-related training courses for EEPA staff and management personnel. The U.S. Office of Personnel Management is the best source for these courses in consideration of both cost and content.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period February 1, 1979, through September 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $22,000.

Because this is a contract for educational services, at a reasonable cost, from an agency of established reputation that conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA funded operations, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Casa Myrna Vasquez, a nonprofit organization with offices at 342 Shawmut Avenue, for the purpose of providing employment and training to six Public Service Employment (PSE) participants. The six PSE positions include three hotline and community outreach workers; two community outreach workers; and one clerk-Secretary I. These positions will involve the following: staffing a hotline to receive emergency calls from women, children, and men in crises of domestic violence and to provide phone support, referral, information and resources to those who utilize the hotline service; establishing an outreach and advocacy program to provide consultations, programs, and training on preventive mental health in the City of Boston; and providing clerical support and assistance in distribution of resources.

This agency was selected through a competitive evaluation based on the following criteria:

1. The ability of the agency to employ the unskilled, long-term unemployed; 2. the ability of the agency to provide suitable training to CETA enrollees; 3. the agency's value in addressing the needs of the residents of Boston; 4. the ability of the agency to supervise the enrollees.

Funds for the payment of the enrollee wages and fringe benefits will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title II of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period of March 19, 1979, through March 18, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $58,000.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the Bill Joyce Auto School, 152 Belgrade Avenue, Roslindale for the purpose of providing Class II Drivers License Training for forty CETA Public Service Employment (PSE) participants. The contractor will provide formal classroom instruction as well as behind-the-wheel training.

A survey and evaluation of various driving schools was conducted. The contractor was selected based on its reasonable cost and efficient program structure. This award is retroactive as the budget planning estimate indicated that the total cost of the contract would not exceed $2,000 and, therefore, payment by service order would be possible. However, due to cutbacks in the CETA Public Service Employment grant to Boston and new CETA regulations, there is an increased emphasis on training in order to increase the opportunities to secure unsubsidized employment for participants upon termination from PSE. Participant demand for training has greatly increased and therefore, more use of these training opportunities has occurred than originally planned.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective August 31, 1978, through March 31, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $9,000.

As this is a negotiated award at a reasonable cost for educational services from an agency of established reputation and is consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the Trustees of Health and Hospitals, a nonprofit organization with offices at 818 Harrison Avenue, for the purpose of operating the training component of the Elderly Services-Homebound project. Two hundred twenty-five CETA Public Service Employment participants will be trained to survey the needs of the elderly population of four Boston neighborhoods (Allston/Brighton, the South End, Fenway and Back Bay) and to service these needs through home visits, escort services, and referrals to appropriate agencies. The PSE participants will receive two weeks of preservice training; continuous in-service training in basic skills on an as-needed basis.

This project was selected based on the contractor's past exemplary performance on similar CETA-funded programs. Trustees of Health and Hospitals has proven its effectiveness in CETA project administration and implementation. In addition, Trustees of Health and Hospitals is the only agency which can suitably provide for these services due to the educational facilities, neighborhood linkage and experience in the home care field.

Funds for the operation of the project will be provided through a federal government grant to the City of Boston under the Title II of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period January 2, 1979, through December 31, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $80,615.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. Therefore, I request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the East Boston Neighborhood Health Center, a nonprofit organization with offices at 79 Paris Street, East Boston, for the purpose of providing employment and training for six Public Service Employment participants. The contractor has been awarded the following positions: one record clerk; two housekeepers; one security guard; and two clerical workers. These six positions will assist the health center in accomplishing a smooth transition and in providing an expansion of patient care, outreach, and education services.

This project was selected through a competitive evaluation based on the following criteria:

1. The ability of the agency to employ the unskilled, long-term unemployed; 2. the ability of the agency to provide suitable training to CETA enrollees; 3. the agency's value in addressing the needs of the residents of Boston; 4. the ability of the agency to supervise the enrollees.

Funds for the payment of the enrollee wages and fringe benefits will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title II of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period of March 5, 1979, through March 4, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $58,500.

As this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. Therefore, I request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record pursuant to granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Justice Resource Institute, a nonprofit organization with offices at 130 Atlantic Avenue, for the purpose of providing employment and training to three Public Service Employment (PSE) participants. The PSE positions are as follows: one advocate for a Female Offenders Program; one child family advocate for the Children in Need of Services (CHINS) Program; and one teacher for a Special Needs Program. The advocates will perform screening, intake, assessment, and referral services to clients in the programs. The teacher will be responsible for curriculum planning and development, and classroom teaching in an alternative education program for young women in the juvenile justice system. The advocates will perform screening, intake, assessment, and referral services to clients in the programs above.

This agency was selected based on its past exemplary performance in operating CETA programs and on an evaluation based on the following criteria:

1. The ability of the agency to employ the unskilled, long-term unemployed; 2. the ability of the agency to provide suitable training to CETA enrollees; 3. the agency's value in addressing the needs of the residents of Boston; 4. the ability of the agency to supervise the enrollees.

This award is retroactive as EEPA determined that an early start date would best serve the interests of the participants and the contractor was willing to commence operations, in good faith, before the contract was completed.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title II of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period February 19, 1979, through February 18, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $33,000.

As this is a negotiated contract, at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. Therefore, I request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Self Directed Placement Corporation (SDP), 3010 Cowley Way, San Diego, for professional training services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) in support of the operation of the city's Public Service Employment (PSE) programs under CETA. The purpose of the contract is to train PSE trainees in a proven "do-it-yourself" job search and self-motivation methodology in order to enhance the likelihood of a positive termination from CETA into unsubsidized employment.

This contractor was selected on the basis of a thorough investigation conducted by the PSE placement manager for local and national firms capable of providing these services. Haldane, Performance Dynamics, Inc., Cambridge Job Factory, and Bolles and Crystal were among the firms surveyed. No other firm offered a program so well suited to CETA enrollees with comparable placement statistics. Further, the performance-based, rate structure employed by SDP allowing fee payments for each participant to be split for course enrollment, course completion, and final placement, is the most favorable to the city among firms surveyed and places a high incentive on the contractor for maximum performance. SDP's success rate is based on similar work performed under contract to the Baltimore and San Diego CETA prime sponsors.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period June 1, 1979, through May 31, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $575,000.

Because this is negotiated contract for professional services at a reasonable cost that conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Third World Jobs Clearinghouse, Inc., 15 Worcester Street, for the purpose of providing hands-on training in construction skills to approximately 200 economically disadvantaged Boston women. The program will prepare women to enter and perform effectively in nontraditional, entry-level jobs in fields offering good employment prospects. Participation in the program will enable trainees to sample a wide variety of tasks, develop competence in handling tools, and make broader, more informed, occupational choices.

The contractor was selected pursuant to a publically advertised request for proposals. The eleven responses received were competitively evaluated based on criteria developed by the State Employment and Training Council, which stressed:

1. Strengthening coordination between state and local employment services; 2. facilitating the transition from training to employment; 3. increasing employment opportunities for groups suffering from high unemployment rates.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a grant from the State Employment and Training Council under section 204 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period March 1, 1979, to February 29, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $148,121.

As this is a previously advertised award at a reasonable cost, consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted in the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Manpower Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts, Inc., 236 Huntington Avenue, for the purpose of operating a youth vocational exploration program which links industry and educational institutions in providing a world-of-work orientation for economically disadvantaged Boston youth.

The contractor was selected pursuant to federal regulations by EEPA's Employment and Training Department after consultation with the Committee for Boston, which body serves as the CETA Prime Sponsor Planning Council, to provide manpower service to those most in need through the continued funding of Title I contractors of demonstrated effectiveness (29 CFR 95.14).

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under Title I of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period March 1, 1979, through September 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $50,000.

Because this is a negotiated contract at a reasonable cost, consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

AFDC Work Program

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts, a nonprofit organization at 236 Huntington Avenue, for the purpose of conducting a supported work program for AFDC recipients. In conjunction with the Burdett School, which will provide intensive secretarial skills instruction, the Urban League will perform support services, place participants at appropriate worksites, and act as the fiscal agent for the program.

The contractor was selected pursuant to a publically advertised request for proposals. The eleven responses received were competitively evaluated based on criteria developed by the State Employment and Training Council, which stressed:

1. Strengthening coordination between state and local employment services; 2. facilitating the transition from training to employment; 3. increasing employment opportunities for groups suffering from high unemployment rates.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a grant from the State Employment and Training Council under section 204 of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act Amendments of 1978, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period May 15, 1979, to April 30, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $81,717.

As this is a previously advertised award at a reasonable cost, consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Evaluation Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Shalom Saul Saar, 303A Holden Green, Cambridge, for professional services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) in connection with evaluation studies of the city's prime sponsor CETA operations. The contractor offers a high level of expertise in evaluation methodologies and statistical analysis; has performed meritoriously under contract in connection with an evaluation of the FY '78 Summer Program for Economically Disadvantaged Youth (SPEDY); and thereby possesses a superior knowledge of CETA programs and contracting agencies. Mr. Saar will act as a consultant to the Research, Planning and Evaluation Division to provide technical assistance on the following evaluation studies:

A. Northeastern Follow-up — Data Collection, Research Issues; B. Assessment Centers; C. Comparative Analysis of Positive and Negative Title I Terminees; D. Youth Monthly Narrative Reports; E. Evaluation of Youth Programs; F. Job-Readiness Study; G. SPEDY Follow-up; H. Vocational Exploration Program Study (VEP); I. Brandeis Study.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Comprehensive Employment Training Act of 1973, as amended, P.L. 93-203 et seq. The contract will be effective for the period March 1, 1979, through May 31, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $4,800. The contractor will be reimbursed at the rate of $123 per diem, a reasonable cost in light of his professional credentials and experience. This request is retroactive because final negotiation of the scope of work and delivery dates caused a delay in the EEPA authorization for the contract.

Because this contract for professional services, at a reasonable rate conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Printing Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Patel and Flanders, 17 Aldersey Street, Somerville. The purpose of the award is to honor bills for design, typesetting, and printing work provided to the Operational Services Unit of EEPA in good faith on an emergency basis. In August, 1978, a second printing of the EEPA Annual Plan booklet was required in preparation for the Community Economic Development conference, an important cooperative effort with private sector employers. Patel and Flanders was chosen based on their ability to meet the deadline established, and the high quality and reasonable cost of their previous production work for EEPA. The award is retroactive due to the incorrect routing and eventual misplacement of contract approval forms at EEPA.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, as amended, P.L. 95-524. The contract will be effective for the period August 1, 1978, to August 31, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $4,100.

Because this is a retroactive contract for services satisfactorily provided at a reasonable cost, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to Lucas Printing

Companies, Inc., 99 State Street. The purpose of the award is to honor bills for materials provided to the Boston Plan Project YES in good faith on an emergency basis which did not allow for the delay incident to formal advertising. In February and March of 1978, during the first weeks of Project YES start-up, it was necessary to immediately secure computer enterable multiply forms for preparation of job listings and job matching. In contacting the city Printing Section, it was learned that delays of a significant period would be necessary before materials could be procured using that channel. As an alternative, on the basis of a telephone survey of potential vendors, it was determined that Lucas Printing Companies, Inc., offered the best source which could meet our deadline at a competitive price.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. The contract will be effective for the period February 1, 1978, through April 30, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $2,200.

Because this is a retroactive contract for materials satisfactorily provided at a reasonable cost, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Programs Development

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Self Development Group, a nonprofit organization, with offices at 120 Tremont Street, for the purpose of designing and developing a program to serve juvenile offenders who meet the eligibility criteria of the Boston Plan Project YES. The program will focus on the special needs of young offenders, and through outreach, assessment, and counseling, create a bridge between the criminal justice and manpower systems. The contractor was selected pursuant to its knowledge of all phases of the criminal justice system, and its experience in furnishing supported work, skill training, and job placements tailored to the offender client.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. The contract will be effective for the period January 8, 1979, to March 2, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $5,000.

As this is a negotiated award, at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted in the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc., a nonprofit organization at 15 Green Street, Charlestown, for the design of a career development curriculum for participants in the Boston Plan Project YES. Under the terms of the contract, Boys' Clubs will develop curriculum providing job search recommendations, money management instruction, and information about available social service sources. The contractor will also furnish technical assistance and training in the use of the curriculum.

The contractor was selected based on its extensive experience and success it has had in providing work orientation to CETA participants in previous programs. This award is proactive due to delays in negotiating the terms of the contract.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective October 1, 1978, to September 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $49,000.

Because this is a negotiated award at a reasonable cost, consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids / advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted in the City of Boston Code, § 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Mr. Donald Richard, 34 Bates Street, Cambridge, for consulting services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration in connection with the ongoing operation of the Boston Plan Project YES. The purpose of the amendment is to retain the contractor for an additional eighty-six workdays and to extend the provision of services from April 30, 1979, through September 30, 1979. Mr. Richard has provided competent management consulting in the identification and solution of systems problems within Project YES. Under the amendment he will assume additional duties to assess the training needs of Project YES units and to design and implement appropriate training programs for each staff. The retention of this contractor will help insure the continued successful operation of this national demonstration project.

Funds for this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. This amendment will extend the contract five months and increase the award by $10,320. The contract will then be effective for the period November 1, 1978, through September 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $15,480. The contractor will be compensated at the rate of $120 per diem.

Because this is a negotiated contract for professional services at a reasonable rate that conforms to federal government requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Ms. Barbara Burke-Tatum, 65 Morton Village Drive, for consulting services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) in support of the EEPA Youth Services Department. Under the terms of the contract, the contractor will coordinate and conduct Request-for-Proposal planning, workshops, and proposal processes for FY 1980 youth programs funded under the Youth Employment and Training Program (YETP) and Youth Community Conservation and Improvement Program (YCCIP).

The contractor is very qualified to aid EEPA in this task due to substantial experience in youth program design and administration for human service agencies in Boston. In addition, the contractor has a demonstrated and valuable knowledge of the EEPA Youth Services Department programs acquired during the past position as an EEPA deputy director in charge of YETP and YCCIP programs.

Funds for operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93 (YEDPA). The contract will be effective for the period April 2, 1979, through July 31, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $5,760. The contractor will be compensated at the rate of $120 per diem, a reasonable rate in view of the contractor's professional experience.

As this is a negotiated contract, at a reasonable cost, for professional services that conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by public advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

Consultant Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with Ms. Nance Lyons, 176 Commonwealth Avenue, for consulting services to the EEPA. During 1978, the contractor provided sound professional advice to the Administrator's office and other staff managers in support of the operation of CETA programs for the City of Boston. Because of the complete federal revision of the CETA rules and procedures due this year, it would be prudent for EEPA to retain Ms. Lyons to provide services in the following areas during 1979:

1) Revision of EEPA contract boiler-plate (three versions); 2) review and interpretation of federal regulations to insure EEPA compliance; 3) redrafting of EEPA hearing and grievance procedures for contractors and participants; 4) assist in contract negotiations.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period January 30, 1979, through January 30, 1980, at a total cost not to exceed $20,000. The contractor will be compensated at the rate of $150 per diem of $20 per hour, whichever applies.

Because this is a negotiated contract for professional services, at a reasonable rate, that conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

FIRE DEPARTMENT Storage Tanks, etc.

Dear Sir:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award to Pressure Systems, Inc., 911 South Chapman Street, Greensboro, N.C., the task of installing additional storage tanks in the air compressor room at Fire Headquarters, as follows:

Install two additional storage tanks approximately 1,600 cubic feet each in the air compressor room; install one air storage rack for horizontal mounting of two vessels; installation includes delivery, fittings, high-pressure tubing and labor.

The contract price for the work described is $4,725 on service order No. 19768-79. The service order is covered under contract No. 200 for repetitive services for the year 1978-79. In my opinion, the contract cost is reasonable.

In my opinion, the contractor is qualified to do the work herein described and no advantage would accrue to the city through publicly advertising this work inasmuch as Pressure Systems installed the original system and is the only company who is equipped to do this work.

Sincerely,

George H. Paul,
Fire Commissioner/Chief.

Therefore because of their experience and the reasonableness of the cost, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Box 271, 79 Cambridge Street, Burlington, for the period July 1, 1979, through June 30, 1980, at a cost not to exceed $3,421.

The above cost includes all necessary parts, labor, and travel required to maintain this equipment in good operating condition.

Gilford Instrument Laboratories is qualified to do the work in question as Gilford is the sole manufacturer of this equipment, can provide immediate competent service personnel, and has ready access to necessary spare parts.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a highly specialized nature, for the reasons stated above, and as the cost is reasonable, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I request your Honor's permission to extend for one year, without advertising, the city's contract with Johnson Controls, Inc., 16 Wheeling Avenue, Woburn, for furnishing operation and preventive maintenance of mechanical equipment and installations for Boston City Hospital Mechanical Plant and Ambulatory Care Center, for the period July 1, 1979, through June 30, 1980, at a cost not to exceed $342,988.

Inasmuch as the contract is being extended on the same basis and same price, and Johnson Controls, Inc., who was awarded the original contract pursuant to public bidding as the low bidder, has provided excellent service and as the price, in my opinion, is reasonable, no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising, for bids.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

HOUSING INSPECTION DEPARTMENT

Legal Services

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $20,000, to Clavell & Texidor, Attorneys at Law, 1 Court Street, for professional legal services. Payment for this contract will be made from the Community Development Block Grant. Period of performance shall be from July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979.

Under the terms of the agreement, Clavell & Texidor will conduct a title search for approximately 135 properties owned by persons who are applying for home improvement loans funded by the federal government's section 312 Rehabilitation Loan Program. In accordance with federal requirements, a search of title is a prerequisite for each property under consideration for a home improvement loan in this program when the rehabilitation cost estimate exceeds $3,500.

We have contacted the HUD community development representative for section 312 in order to obtain an estimate of legal fees charged for these services. Rates in seven cities ranged from $111 to $211 and averaged $156 per case. The law firm of Clavell & Texidor has quoted a fee of $135 per case, plus the cost of municipal lien certificates. This cost is reasonable.

Therefore, for the reason cited above, public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Very truly yours,
John A. Vitagliano,
Commissioner.

LAW DEPARTMENT

Legal Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Nance Lyons, Esquire, 100 Federal Street, for legal services to be rendered to the office of the Corporation Counsel.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Ms. Lyons will represent the City of Boston in any litigation involving the Employment and Economic Policy Administration on an "as-required" basis.

Funds for this contract will be provided from the Law Department budget. Ms. Lyons will be paid at a rate of $50 per hour for services provided from January 15, 1979, through June 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $5,000. Payment will be on the basis of actual time, plus disbursements. Because of the continuing nature of the litigation she will handle, it probably will be necessary to renew this contract for the period commencing July 1, 1979.

Because of the need that arose to retain Ms. Lyon's services immediately to handle an urgent matter in federal court, it was not possible to initiate this contract prior to her commencing performance.

Because of Ms. Lyons' knowledge of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) and the regulations promulgated thereunder, the professional nature of her services, and because the cost of her services is reasonable, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids in this instance.

Sincerely,
Joseph D. Alviani,
Acting Corporation Counsel.

MANPOWER PLANNING

Training Programs

Dear Mr White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with the Reading Institute, 116 Newbury Street, for the purpose of providing training to CETA Public Service Employment (PSE) participants. The contractor will provide a general basic skills curriculum related to preparation for the General Equivalency Diploma (GED) for twenty (PSE) participants. In addition, the contractor will conduct continual assessment and monitoring of the trainees; and maintain trainee attendance records.

A survey and evaluation of various GED instruction programs offered in Boston were performed. The contractor was selected based on its cost-effectiveness and responsiveness in program design. This award is retroactive as the budget planing estimate indicated that the total cost of the contract would not exceed $2,000 and, therefore, payment by service order would be possible. However, due to cut-backs in the CETA Public Service Employment grant to Boston and new CETA regulations there is an increased emphasis on training in order to increase opportunities to secure unsubsidized employment for participants upon termination from PSE. Participant demand for training has greatly increased and, therefore, more use of these training opportunities has occurred than originally planned.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal grant under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective October 31, 1978, through March 31, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $6,000.

As this is a negotiated award at a reasonable cost for educational services from an agency of established reputation and is consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted in the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s.5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to contract with North Bennet Street Industrial School, a non-profit, educational institution with offices at 39 North Bennet Street, for the purpose of providing worksite supervision, training and support services for twenty-six Project Y.E.S. eligible youth. Eight youths will be trained in jewelry making; ten will be trained in building maintenance and weatherization; and eight in offset printing. The contractor was selected pursuant to a public advertising request for proposals (RFP). In addition the contractor has demonstrated expertise in these training areas. The contract will provide for instructor salaries in connection with the training program described above.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Project Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. The contract will be effective for the period April 1, 1979, through September 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $17,000.

As this is a negotiated contract, at a reasonable cost, which conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, I request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s.5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Computer Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to Meta Software, Inc., 1860 Broadway, New York, for consultant services to the EEPA in support of the Boston Plan Project Y.E.S. data processing operations. Meta Software has performed heretofore under contract to the city in connection with the design of the project Y.E.S. Management Information System (MIS) and therefore is best qualified to undertake the present work involving modifications and updating of the computer programs underlying the MIS operations. The contract also provides for system maintenance during the contract term.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Project Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. The contract will be effective for the period March 1, 1979, through July 31, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $33,000.

Because this is a negotiated contract for professional services at a reasonable rate that conforms to federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by advertising for bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s.5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

If the unit price of any item appears to the Commissioner to be abnormally high or low, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract, and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract. The workforce requirement (employee manhour ratios per trade) for this contract are as follows: Minority—25 percent; Boston Resident—50 percent; Female—10 percent.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 15 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

"GANG SQUAD" AND FOOT PATROLS PERMANENT

Boston's innovative "Gang Squad" will be made permanent, Mayor Kevin H. White announced on November 3.

The Mayor also announced that this year's experimental program of adding 160 foot beats throughout Boston's neighborhoods was a success and would also be made permanent.

The Mayor said that along with other supplemental motorcycle and mounted patrols, as well as added car patrols, Boston now has 330 percent more police patrols than four years ago.

The Gang Squad has been proven a highly effective response to the problem of youth crime over the past six months, utilizing over 100 veteran officers from the department's Mobile Operations Patrol, the Mounted Patrol, and K-9 units in fifty-one areas throughout the city with a high incidence of youth crime.

The Mayor said the foot patrol program had been well-received throughout the city. "Foot patrols are not as impersonal as car patrols," the Mayor said. "Foot officers get out on the street where the people are."

Mayor White said, "The response to the Gang Squad program has been remarkable. It is well-received in the neighborhoods, but more importantly, it has significantly reduced the reported incidence of youth crimes. Rowdy young people now realize how serious we are about curbing senseless neighborhood violence."

The statistics for the first six months of the Gang Squad operation are impressive for the 19,387 youth gang complaints handled:

- 2,213 arrests of young people for gang-related incidents;
- 2,289 young people taken into protective custody for detoxification as a result of public drunkenness;
- 14,909 groups of loitering young people dispersed; and
- 3,655 field-citing reports filed on members of youth gangs which were the subject of "911" complaints.

The Gang Patrol approach was just one component of a multi-pronged offensive against youth crimes in Boston.

Last year, Boston Police received 57,000 complaint calls for youth-related crimes.

On June 28, Mayor White unveiled a set of major initiatives to combat youth crime in Boston.

In addition to the increased police presence in the neighborhoods, that program included:

— a public education program to increase the awareness among adults as well as youth about the problem of youth crime, and ways to stop it;

— higher priority for youth crime activities such as public drinking, vandalism, and other disruptive activities.

— and a "postcard program" which would notify by postcard any parent whose children are the subject of 911 emergency call complaints.

New Fire Station

Mayor White also announced that within six months, construction would begin on the new $1.5-million, Jamaica Plain fire station, to be built on the site of the former Gino's on Centre Street.

The Mayor said the new fire station, together with the new police station to be built in Jamaica Plain, would give the neighborhood "the best community public safety facilities in the city."

MAYOR SWEARS IN ANOTHER FIFTY POLICE RECRUITS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on November 1, swore in another fifty new recruits to the Boston Police Department at ceremonies in Dorchester.

This brings to 201 the number of new officers hired during the past six months.

Mayor White said it was the largest police hiring program ever undertaken by the city.

The Mayor said the city would hire an additional 250 officers during this fiscal year.

"With these new officers we will be able to continue our program of adding foot, motorcycle, and horse patrols throughout all of Boston's neighborhoods," Mayor White said. "Already for every five patrols we had in 1975, we have fourteen today."

"We added 160 foot patrols, 60 motorcycle patrols, and 46 mounted patrols. This is by far the largest number of neighborhood police patrols in the history of the city," he added.

The new class is composed of twenty-four white males, one white female, ten black males, nine black females, two Hispanic males, and four Hispanic females. Twenty-three members of the class are veterans and one is a former police cadet.

Speaking at the swearing-in ceremonies at the Richard J. Murphy Elementary School in Dorchester, Mayor White said that the recruit class, "reaffirms the city's commitment to the safety of each individual in the City of Boston."

"Each of you will be a vital part of our commitment to increase the presence and visibility of police in the neighborhoods. I want every citizen in every neighborhood to feel comfortable and secure," the Mayor said. "Your presence will be a crucial step toward that end."

Members of this class passed the last police exam given by the state in May, 1978, and their names were finally released to the city in February, 1979, after the Mayor appealed to the Governor to speed up the selection process. The delay was caused by an inability of the Division of Personnel Administration to determine a passing score.

FRANKLIN PARK SITE FOR NEW COMMUNITY CENTER

Mayor Kevin H. White, on November 4, announced the award of a grant totaling $627,000 from the George Robert White Fund for the construction of a new community resource center in Franklin Park.

The community resource center is designed to serve as the focal point for community activities from social and recreational, to educational and civic functions for the Roxbury, Mattapan, and Jamaica Plain neighborhoods.

Said Mayor White, "This center is something that this area has needed for a long time. It will bring neighbors together with a common purpose, and it will provide an added dimension to the life of this area by strengthening its identity."

Estimates project that 62,000 persons yearly will use the center in some way.

Located just inside the entrance to Franklin Park at the junction of Blue Hill Avenue and Columbia Road, the resource center is centrally located for neighborhood use.

Designed by the architectural firm Castro-Balno, Piscioneri, and Feder, the center will have a large auditorium, classrooms, a library, conference rooms, and a gallery to display projects by neighborhood children.

The resource center, scheduled to open its doors in January, 1981, is just one aspect of a $1.7-million, improvement project at Franklin Park.

That plan includes:

- rebuilt golf clubhouse, $200,000;
- Phase I Master plan for park improvement, $400,000;
- Phase II Masterplan for park improvement, $600,000.

THANKSGIVING DAY

In the first year of his office, President George Washington issued a proclamation recommending that November 26, 1789, be kept as a day of "national thanksgiving" for the establishment of a form of government that made for safety and happiness. For years the festival was almost exclusively a New England institution, celebrated by religious services in the churches, the sermon often a political address, and by the gathering at the old home of the scattered members of the family. The day gradually became a custom in the western and some of the southern states, each appointing its own day. In 1863 President Lincoln issued a proclamation in which he "appointed and set aside" the last Thursday in November as a day of national thanksgiving "for the defense against unfriendly designs without and signal victories over the enemy who is of our own household." Until 1939 each president followed Lincoln's example in proclaiming the last Thursday in November a national day of Thanksgiving. In that year Franklin D. Roosevelt, desiring to lengthen the interval between Thanksgiving and Christmas, named the next to the last Thursday as the date of celebration. But in December, 1941, Congress passed a resolution making the fourth Thursday a legal holiday. Governors in the various states usually issue proclamations to this effect. The day is also celebrated in all the territories and possessions.

CB RADIO AT MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

CB Radio makes it from the highway to the edge of the Charles River with the opening at Boston's Museum of Science of a new exhibit, "Citizens Band Radio: Twenty Years in Touch."

Now through December 23, the exhibit offers visitors a chance to talk on the radio across a 20-foot space, explore the science involved in CB gear, take a computer quiz on Federal Communications Commission regulations, and glimpse CB technology of the future.

Freestanding panels incorporate CB gear, photos, graphics, and text. The exhibit explains that almost 14,000,000 licenses have been issued since the radio service was established in 1958. One in eight cars carries a CB radio and 20 percent of all American farm families use one as a principal means of communication. Nationwide, 5,000,000 people become CB users annually. In June, 1978, Massachusetts ranked twenty-third among the states in number of licenses granted. (Texas was first with more than a million.)

In addition to its popularity in long-distance travel and as a means of communication in rural areas, CB radio is also used by the Coast Guard, which monitors CB Emergency Channel 9 at sea; on land, CB React Base volunteers monitor that channel twenty-four hours a day.

Sponsored by the Lawrence Hall of Science, California, the FCC, and the Electronic Industries Association, the exhibit is touring the country under the auspices of the Association of Science-Technology Centers.

"T" CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN, PRIORITY

Suggestions from concerned riders are helping the MBTA designate priorities for its clean-up campaign, which began on September 15, 1979.

More than 100 telephone calls and letters have been received to date and wash and maintenance crews have been sent to various locations in the Downtown Boston area, in response to these suggestions.

The first phase of the program involves cleaning, painting, and making repairs at some of the larger downtown stations. Subsequent phases of the program will bring cleaning crews to suburban locations.

Major cleaning has been performed at State Street, Government Center, and Washington Stations (Red Line platform). Work is currently in progress at Park Street, Copley, Arlington, Andrew, and Washington Stations (Orange line platform).

"The public's input into the clean-up campaign is most important," said Anne Doyle, manager of the program. "We've received many useful suggestions and comments from riders. In some instances, the riders have helped decide priorities and direct action has resulted in a cleaning, painting, or repair job. We have a list of items that the riders want to see happen, everything from bench cleaning and painting to entire station revamping. We are looking forward to acting swiftly in following up these ideas with our action."

MBTA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Robert L. Foster said, "I am pleased with the progress that has been made in the clean-up program. Although it will take some time before all the goals of the program are reached, it will remain a priority program. The public's response to the program has been beneficial and I hope that it continues."

Notices about the clean-up program have been posted at various locations. Comments and suggestions should be sent to Anne Doyle, Public Affairs and Information Department, 50 High Street, Boston, Mass. 02110, or by calling Ms. Doyle at 722-5215.

MBTA REQUESTS BIDS FOR INTERIM BUS TERMINAL AT SOUTH STATION

The MBTA is advertising for bids from both general contractors and subcontractors for construction of the $820,000 South Station interim bus terminal, Robert L. Foster, chairman and chief executive officer, announced today. The new facility will be located on Atlantic Avenue in the Dewey Square area and will be used by Trailways intercity buses whose terminal at Park Square occupies a site required for construction of the new state Transportation Building.

Subcontractors' bids are due Monday, November 26, and general contractors' bids on Thursday, December 6. Bids will be publicly opened on both dates at 2 p.m., at MBTA headquarters, 50 High Street, Boston.

The site of the new interim bus terminal is owned by the City of Boston which is leasing the property to the MBTA for up to five years in accordance with legislation passed by the 1978 Legislature. The 1978 legislation also provides 50 percent of the cost to be borne by the Executive Office of Transportation and Construction. The remainder will be paid by Trailways.

The new facility, designed by Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, will consist of berths for ten buses and a complete terminal building with passenger waiting areas, ticket offices, baggage area, and restrooms. The building will be of concrete with glass, skylights, and steel trusses. Trailways will provide its own furnishings and equipment.

Scheduled to be completed in July, 1980, the interim terminal will serve Trailways and its private carrier tenants at Park Square until the new $90-million, South Station Transportation Center is completed in 1985. The center will be an intermodal facility for railroad and intercity and commuter bus passengers and will have an interior passageway connection to the Red Line's South Station.

MAYOR WHITE SAYS ELECTION VICTORY "MOST SATISFYING" OF HIS CAREER

Mayor Kevin H. White said the election victory giving him a fourth term as Mayor of Boston was "the most satisfying of my career" because it showed "broad-based support from every neighborhood in the city.

"Boston is no longer electorally divided," Mayor White said. "The city is unified as we enter the 1980s."

Mayor White thanked the voters of Boston for their "vote of confidence" in his ability to run the city, and pledged an administration that will "meet and surpass the hopes and expectations of all Bostonians."

Final figures showed Mayor White winning seventeen of the city's twenty-two wards, and nearly three-fourths of the city's 252 precincts. The Mayor finished with 78,048 votes to 64,269 for his opponent, State Senator Joseph Timilty.

A NEW MASON MEMORIAL BUILDING

The new headquarters of the United Way of Massachusetts Bay, will be renamed the Mason Memorial Building in a special ceremony on Tuesday, November 27, 1979. The dedication will take place at 4:30 p.m., with a President's reception from 4:45 to 6 p.m. The 1979 television simulcast, "United Way News," will be shown at 5:30.

The building will be named in honor of sisters Ida M. and Ellen F. Mason, two Boston philanthropists who donated the United Way's previous headquarters at 14 Somerset Street to the United Way's predecessor organization in 1949 in the name of community service.

The Somerset Street building was sold to Suffolk University when the United Way purchased its current building in Post Office Square from the Continental Insurance Companies in 1978.

In addition to the United Way, the new building houses the United Way's Information and Referral Service, its Voluntary Action Center, and United Community Planning Corporation. Other available space in the building will be leased to commercial tenants at competitive commercial rates, allowing the United Way to stabilize its own occupancy costs in the years ahead.

Invitations to the dedication will be mailed to United Way leadership and community volunteers in early November.

UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN RUNNING WELL

General Campaign Chairman William J. Pruyn, president of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, reported at the second report luncheon on November 2, that the campaign has reached the $15,504,764 mark on the way to the $21-million goal. From all indications, the campaign is running well, and several reasons account for its success.

First, the theme — Run for the money — has proven to be very popular. Developed by Hill, Holliday,

Connors, Cosmopolos, United Way's 1979 voluntary advertising agency, the concept has been picked up by many companies and has generated a great deal of employee enthusiasm for United Way campaigns. Companies like the First National Bank of Boston, the Charles Stark Draper Laboratory, Boston Gear, Raytheon, and Mitre Corporation have actually sponsored road races, giving their campaigns a big lift.

Second, the Pacesetter program was very successful this year, with fifteen companies achieving an overall increase of 25 percent in executive/employee campaigns.

Third, corporate giving has increased, averaging 10 percent above last year. Corporate leadership is apparently very much aware of the effect rising costs can have on United Way agencies and their ability to deliver services.

Fourth, besides increasing their corporate gifts, top management in corporations is providing solid leadership and commitment to their executive/employee campaigns. This, surely, is having its effect: executive/employee campaigns in major corporations are running 15 to 20 percent ahead of last year. This is significant: the greatest potential for new dollars lies in executive/employee campaigns.

Finally, group solicitation is having its effect. Educating employees about the United Way is a critical element in any campaign, and group solicitation is one of the best ways to do so: to give each employee an opportunity to attend an educational program on what the United Way is, what it does, whom it serves, and how it benefits the community.

The campaign ends on November 20.

Smokeout pledge cards and posters are being distributed with this order and any smoker who wishes to take a day off from smoking should consider signing the pledge card. A Gallup poll conducted after last year's smokeout showed that of the 3.5 million smokers nationwide who took the pledge to quit for the day, 2.5 million were still not smoking two weeks later. CONTRACT AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

MANPOWER PLANNING

Consulting Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award a contract to Technical Development Corporation, 11 Beacon Street, for consulting services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration in support of operation of the city's manpower programs under CETA. The contract will provide high-level, technical assistance in program design, the preparation of grant applications, and the investigation of funding sources. The contractor was competitively selected as best from among four consultant firms responding to a publicly advertised request for proposals (RFP).

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period February 15, 1979, through April 15, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $5,000. This request to contract is retroactive because several elements of the award required negotiation prior to execution.

As this is a negotiated, competitive procurement for professional services at a reasonable rate, no public purpose would be served by further formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,

George Bennett,
Administrator.

OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Project Evaluation

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to B.P.M. Associates, Inc., of 12 Stoneholm Street. The amount of the contract will not exceed $30,000 for the period between April 2, 1979, and December 31, 1979. This contract time period is subject to extension set forth in Article XXII, Term of Agreement. The cost of the contract is reasonable.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) under section 203 (c), 301, 303, and 304 of the Federal Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-851), as amended by the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644) and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

A competitive process was used to select a firm to perform a comprehensive evaluation for the NAPS project. The Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice distributed a (RFP) request for proposal to twenty-eight firms in reference to the (NAPS) Neighborhood Action Program for Safety — Evaluation Plan October 18, 1978. The review panel consisted of the following members: Faye Farrington, (MOCJ); Leo Boudreau (MOCJ); Pat Ryan (OPS); Richard Soderberg (OPS); Susan Morgan (MOCJ). The review panel met December 7, 1978, for the purpose of selecting a contractor. Based on the discussions and the results of the evaluation weight selection criteria by the review panel, it was unanimous opinion of the review panel to contract with B.P.M. Associates, the top-rated firm.

In light of unique service and talents required to perform the functions of this contract, and given the relevant experience both with Boston Police data and neighborhood surveys, plus the police information is already stored in their computer, and given the extensive background of the B.P.M. Associates, Inc., staff in data analysis, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

Brian M. Leahy,
Executive Director.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Cable TV Studies

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with public bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $24,500 (including food, lodging, and transportation expenses and legal fees) to Smith, Cooper Associates, 501 Kings Highway North, Cherry Hill, New Jersey. The term of the contract will be from February 1, 1979, to March 31, 1979.

Under the conditions of the agreement Smith, Cooper Associates will provide primary consulting services in obtaining data relative to cable television development in the City of Boston. This data will focus in such areas as off-the-air television reception quality in the neighborhoods, state and federal cable television laws and regulations, city-wide public interest in cable, technical feasibility with regard to construction, economic impact, franchising procedures, and the prospects for cable television delivery of consumer services.

Smith, Cooper Associates offers a unique blend of tested expertise in the cable television field and broad knowledge of urban affairs. Based on these facts and on the city's need for reliable and credible information with which to review its cable television policy, I recommend that we enter into a contract with Smith, Cooper Associates.

Because of the highly specialized nature of the professional services to be performed, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose and that the cost as stated above is reasonable.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Kelliher,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with public bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $35,000 to Peter D. Hart Research Associates, Inc., 1529 O Street, N. W., Washington, D.C. The term of the contract will be from February 1, 1979, to March 31, 1979.

Under the conditions of the agreement, Peter D. Hart Research Associates, Inc., will conduct a city-wide survey, by neighborhood, to investigate public attitudes and opinions on matters relating to the subject of cable television. The general objectives of the study are to examine the perceptions of neighborhood residents as to the present quality of their television reception, to measure the level of public interest in cable television, and to determine whether or not (and if so, how much) residents would be willing to pay for cable television services.

Peter D. Hart Research Associates, Inc., is a nationally known and widely respected survey research firm with unique and extensive knowledge of Boston and its neighborhoods. Based on these facts and on the city's need for credible, scientifically gathered, and impartial data with which to review its cable television policy, I recommend that we enter into a contract with Peter D. Hart Research Associates, Inc.

Because of the highly specialized nature of the professional services to be performed, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose and that the cost as stated above is reasonable.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Kelliher,
Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

Rodent Extermination

It is respectfully requested that your Honor approve my selection of the Trustees of Health and Hospitals of the City of Boston, Inc. (hereinafter designated the "Contractor") with principal offices located at 818 Harrison Avenue, to implement a program of rodent control at the Public Garden, Boston Common, Granary Cemetery, and King's Chapel Cemetery for the period December 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $3,325.

The program will include a three-phase baiting program for quick-kill of rodents followed by a monthly inspection of all areas starting in March, 1979, to determine the presence of active rodent infestation. The activity will be noted and the burrows poisoned and closed.

A monthly report will be submitted to the Parks and Recreation Department which will detail detected potential infestation or sanitary problems which may lead to increased rodent population. In addition, the Contractor will provide a half day's baiting service to coincide with the spring period of high population growth.

Additional monies will be provided under supplementary services to compensate the Contractor for any services required in addition to the monthly program and the spring baiting program if due to unanticipated outbreak of infestation emergency extermination services are required.

The services to be provided will be paid for the following rates:

Three-phase Baiting Program, $1,200
Monthly Service, four days at $250 = $1,000
Spring Baiting, one-half day at $125 = $125
Supplementary Services, $1,000
Maximum Liability, $3,325.

The Contractor will utilize the expertise of resources of the Boston Environmental Health Program and is therefore uniquely qualified to provide these services. In my opinion the compensation to be paid is fair and reasonable.

The three-phase baiting program service for quick-kill of rodents was provided December of 1978, prior to the submission of this letter requesting authorization to dispense with public advertising in the City Record. In late November, the rodent infestation in three of the areas had increased and numerous visual sightings of rats during daylight hours were reported to the department and also observed by Parks personnel. Due to the potential health hazard that existed I proceeded to eliminate the problem by immediately utilizing the services of the Boston Environmental Health Program.

As the proposed contract is one for performance of special services, a public solicitation for bids would serve not useful purpose. Therefore, your Honor's authorization is requested to dispense with public advertising in the City Record in the award of this contract.

The proposed contract will be charged to 11-41-29).

Very truly yours,
Allan M. Austin,
Commissioner.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

Neighborhood Resources Study

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, located at One City Hall Square, for services in relation to and to be paid from HUD Grant H-2830-RG, which was accepted by City Council on December 7, 1977. This grant has been awarded to the city's Office of Program Development to study the neighborhood resource allocation practices employed in major United States jurisdictions.

Under the terms of the contract, the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with Rolf Goetze as the investigator, will conduct an analysis of neighborhood preservation, neighborhood revitalization strategies, displacement issues, and neighborhood monitoring and analysis systems in thirty-six cities and urban counties. In addition, the Boston Redevelopment Authority will assist the city in developing project policy guidelines in site-visit preparation and in the preparation and revision of all written documents produced during the course of the project. The Boston Redevelopment Authority will also participate in selected site visits, share with the city joint responsibility for preparation of a post-site visit working paper documenting, and assessing allocation practices, and be solely responsible for a component of the final report which examines the key contextual factors that pertain to resource allocation.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority, through Dr. Rolf Goetze of its Research Department, is uniquely qualified to perform these services. Dr. Goetze is a nationally renowned expert in the area of neighborhood change theory. He has pioneered the development of neighborhood classification and monitoring systems and his participation in the Neighborhood Resource Allocation Project is essential to its success.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $18,900, a cost I consider reasonable. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979. This letter of award is late in being submitted because of lengthy negotiations about the precise nature of the contract between the city and the BRA, and about the exact details of the scope of services. The contractual delay notwithstanding, in good faith the BRA has already begun work on some aspects of the project and the city is now anxious to reimburse the BRA in full for its services rendered thus far.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
Wayne A. McNamara,
Director.

PROPERTY EQUALIZATION

Dear Mayor White:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Joseph E. Hunt and Company, Inc. of 2416 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, for consulting services to be rendered in connection with the implementation of the City of Boston's program for property equalization. The amount of the contract will not exceed $26,000, and will run from February 1, 1979, to June 30, 1979. The contractor will be paid at a rate of $50 per hour for project manager and associates services; $37.50 per junior associate; and $3.13 per hour for supportive staff. I have determined that this amount and these rates are reasonable.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Joseph E. Hunt and Company, Inc., who previously developed the Boston Plan for Equalization, will monitor the initial stages of the implementation of the program. The consulting services will include, but not be limited to the following areas: 1) refinement of administrative and system requirements; 2) providing technical assistance and testimony for any hearings or conferences with the Department of Revenue or any other agency or Court of the Commonwealth regarding the methodology utilized in developing the equalization plan; 3) development of courses in assessing practices for personnel in the Office of Equalization and the Department of Revenue.

Because of the expertise and familiarity that Joseph E. Hunt and Company, Inc., have with the field of mass appraisal and most particularly with the Boston Plan for property equalization and the reasonable cost of services provided, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids in this instance.

Respectfully,
Arthur Shea,
Director.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

1. The offerer's or bidder's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth herein.

2. The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area, are as follows: (See Appendix 1 to Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Specifications).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required by the specifications set forth in 41 CFR 60-4.3(a), and its efforts to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract resulting from this solicitation is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract, and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

3. The contractor shall provide written notification to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs within ten (10) working days of any construction subcontract in excess of $10,000 at any tier for construction work under the contract resulting from this solicitation. The notification shall list the name, address, and telephone number of the subcontractor, employer identification number, estimated dollar amount of the subcontract; estimated starting and completion dates of the subcontract; and the geographical area in which the contract is to be performed.

4. As used in this notice, and in the contract resulting from this solicitation, the "covered area" is Middlesex County, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Bidders attention is also called to the requirements of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts included as Appendix No. 2 to Division II, Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-Discrimination and Affirmative Action Program.

Authorization for the bidders to view the site of the work on the MBTA's property shall be obtained from the office of the Project Manager, Mr. J. A. Carey (Tel. No. 722-5806).

A prebid conference will be held on November 20, 1979, at 10 a.m., in the office of the Project Manager, Construction, 58 Da Street, Somerville, Mass. It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications should be submitted in writing at the same time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of eligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a deposit of three thousand eight hundred dollars ($3,800) in the form of a bid bond, cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued by the MBTA by a responsible surety, bank, or trust company, payable to the order of the MBTA.

The Authority reserves the right to reject all or all proposals, to waive informalities, to advertise for new proposals or proceed to do the work otherwise, as may be deemed to be for the best interests of the Authority.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond, each for the amount of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

UNITED WAY CONTRIBUTIONS EXCEED $20 MILLION

The United Way of Massachusetts Bay has raised a total of $20,807,026 in its 1979 Run for the Money fund-raising campaign as of November 20, General Campaign Chairman William J. Pruyn of Marblehead reported at the United Way's enjoyable campaign dinner on November 20, at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel.

The $20.8 million figure is 99 percent of the 1979 goal of $21 million. It represents $1.6 million new dollars over last year's campaign — the largest, single, annual increase in United Way history. It also represents the fourth straight year that the United Way has raised more than $1 million new dollars.

Pruyn, president of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, praised the thousands of volunteers who helped to make the campaign a success and at the same time vowed to continue the effort to reach the $21 million goal.

"We are less than one percent away from our $21 million goal," Pruyn told the 900 volunteers at the dinner. "With only $200,000 needed to reach that goal, the campaign is by no means over. There are still a number of employee campaigns not completed and still a number of individual pledge cards outstanding. We will continue our efforts to make that goal until every pledge is recorded."

"It has been a great campaign," Pruyn continued, "but we can make it even better by reaching that $21 million goal. My thanks go to everyone who has made a contribution. To those who have yet to pledge, I ask you to give generously. The United Way is a significant force in this community of Metropolitan Boston, helping to make it a better place for all of us to live."

Money raised by the United Way in its 1979 campaign will be distributed in 1980 to more than 160 affiliated agencies in the Mass. Bay area for the delivery of human services during the year. The City of Boston employees goal of $162,000, we are happy to report, was attained.

MOTORISTS: TAKE NOTE

Massachusetts will allow a right turn at a red light as of January 1, 1980, but Registrar Richard E. McLaughlin issues a caution to motorists.

"Don't get the idea that right turns on red are going to be all that common in our state. Nearly 2,700 intersections—or about nine out of ten— will be posted "No Turn On Red," the Registrar said.

"Massachusetts is a densely populated urban state with millions of pedestrians. The primary law governing the operation of any vehicle is the operator must have it under control at all times, and pedestrians have the right of way.

"At the few intersections where the right turn on red will be allowed, the operator must still treat it as a stop sign; that is, the vehicle must be brought to a complete stop before making the turn," the Registrar said.

McLaughlin added, "Don't be the first to acquire a no-fix ticket by either ignoring the "No Turn On Red" sign, or not stopping before making the turn. There is also a three-year insurance surcharge imposed on those who run a red light."

McLaughlin also reminded motorists the new law does not go into effect in Massachusetts until January 1, although neighboring states already have it in force.

WINTER WORKSHOPS AT CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Winter workshops at the Boston Children's museum are packed with ideas for imaginative and economical holiday gifts and decorations.

"Celebrations" presents ideas gathered by museum staff from a variety of family and ethnic traditions; "Holiday Hoopla" shows participants how to use materials from the museum's Recycle Shop to make holiday cards, children's toys, tree decorations, and inexplicable gizmos for friends. "Measuring the Universe" another recycle workshop, uses the industrial scraps to make clocks that drip, scales that stretch, and other measuring devices.

Celebrations takes place Thursday, December 6, 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., or 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.; "Holiday Hoopla," December 15, 10 a.m. to 12 noon, or 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.; "Measuring the Universe," Saturday, January 19, 10 a.m. to 12 noon, or 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

All workshops are for adults and there's a fee of $5. Preregistration is required; call 426-6500, extension 206.

MASSACHUSETTS REALTORS AWARDED NATIONAL COMMUNITY SERVICES PRIZES

For "outstanding work" in the area of vandalism prevention, the Massachusetts Association of Realtors has received second place honorable mention honors in the National Association of Realtors Make America Better program. The association also won the national State President's Award for 100 percent participation of its twenty-five local boards of realtors in various community service programs.

Massachusetts Association President, John M. Peckham III, accepted the awards November 13 at the National Association Convention in Louisiana. In addition, the North Bristol County Board of Realtors received the first place award for the best small board program in the country for its crime prevention activities.

According to Peckham, "Community service has long been an integral part of realtor action in Massachusetts. With the statewide theme, "Vandalism Hurts," our members contributed tens of thousands of volunteer hours to show the public, particularly youngsters, that there are real people—neighbors, friends, relatives—being hurt, often severely, by acts of vandalism. In addition, there is the high cost to the community and to individuals, as well as the dangers presented by vandalized property."

The association began working last year on the project with local police and other crime prevention officials throughout the state and purchased various promotional materials, including three 16mm films on vandalism prevention.

Various local boards conducted poster and essay contests in schools to show the "Hurt"; paid for advertisements in local media on problem and potential solutions; spoke at community gatherings, distributed buttons, brochures, and other materials. Among the most effective crime prevention program that board members have assisted is "Operation Neighborhood Watch," in which citizens help police by reporting break-ins or suspicious behavior. This program brought the first place award to the North Bristol County Board.

The chairman of the association's Make America Better Committee, which is responsible for these community service projects, is Richard B. DeWolfe of Milton. "Vandalism prevention is only one of several Make America Better Programs accomplished all year by realtors," said DeWolfe. "Others include Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) classes, town cleanups, student scholarships, community beatification projects, distribution of "tot finder" fire safety, and other materials."

On the national level, Olga C. Packard of Wakefield is vice-chairman of the National Association Make American Better Committee.

The association also has other committees working on the behalf of local communities and property owners. Programs include energy conservation, property rights protection, neighborhood revitalization, equal opportunity in housing, and others.

Peckham concluded, "Our motivation for voluntary community service is simple. What's good for our community also is good for both our business and our quality of life. It always is pleasing to be honored for one's achievements. But it is most gratifying when the achievement covers such a broad base of our members all pulling together for a better quality of life."

Founded in 1924, the Massachusetts Association of Realtors is the parent organization for the twenty-five local boards of realtors in the Commonwealth. The term "Realtor" is registered as the exclusive designation of members of the National Association of Realtors who subscribe to a strict code of ethics.

LUNG ASSOCIATION URGES FLU SHOTS FOR ELDERLY

Talk about "a mild flu year" is a matter of concern to the Christmas Seal people at the American Lung Association of Boston, according to President Aram Pothier, who urges people not to be complacent about getting flu shots—especially elder citizens.

"People over age sixty-five are in a high-risk group when it comes to complications of even mild flu attacks," says Pothier, "and they are all the more at risk if they have asthma, bronchitis, brochiectasis, pulmonary fibrosis, emphysema, TB, or other chronic lung disorders."

One of the common complications of flu in high-risk populations, according to the Lung Association now in its seventy-fifth anniversary year, is that it often paves the way for respiratory problems such as pneumonia. "Uncomplicated flu usually isn't too serious in otherwise healthy people," says Pothier, "and in four or five days the headaches and nasal discharges and sore throats and aches and pains usually subside—but even a mild case of flu can be disastrous for ill people."

The Lung Association recommends flu shots for the high-risk populations mentioned, for others with chronic health disorders, and also for medical personnel and people providing essential community services.

Information on availability of flu shots can be obtained from your local physician, Board of Health, or Visiting Nurse Association. Boston has an Elderly Hot Line that provides information on where the vaccine is available. The number to call is 722-4646.

The Christmas Seal people at American Lung Association of Boston have free literature on all phases of lung disease. It can be obtained by writing to 51 Sleeper Street, Boston, MA 02210.

IT'S ICE-SKATING TIME!

Metropolitan District Commissioner Guy A. Carbone has announced that five, open-sided rinks have been opened for the 1979-80 ice-skating season.

Included among the rinks now open are: the Kasabuski Rink in Saugus, the Emmons-Horrigan Rink in Charlestown, the Kelly Rink in Jamaica Plain, the Daly Rink in Brighton, and the Cass Rink in Roxbury.

Admission to all rinks is 25¢ for those under eighteen years of age and for senior citizens, and 50¢ for adults.

Public, private, and parochial schools in the MDC Parks District may use the rinks free of charge for 9 a.m. to 12 noon on school days.

Adults accompanying children under ten years of age to weekday morning and afternoon sessions will also be admitted free of charge.

Rinks will be closed on Christmas Day. On Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, they will close at 12

SKATING LESSONS PROGRAM

Metropolitan District Commissioner Guy Carbone has announced that a program of elementary ice-skating and figure-skating lessons has been established at several MDC rinks in the Greater Boston area.

"We have worked to set up this program in order that more people in our MDC district can avail themselves of the opportunity for recreation at our facilities," Carbone said. "This provides a chance for beginners to learn to skate and for those who are already proficient skaters to take up figure skating," he noted. There will be a reasonable charge for the lessons.

Information about skating lessons at MDC rinks may be obtained by phoning the MDC Recreation Office at 727-5250 or by visiting the office, situated at 20 Somerset Street, Boston.

CREATIVE STRATEGIES FOR THE EIGHTIES

The equity market and syndications as investment opportunities and unconventional sources of real estate financing will be extensively explored at a December 4 program in Boston.

The program, which will run from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel, is being sponsored by the Rental Housing Association and the Building Owners and Managers Association, both of which are divisions of the Greater Boston Real Estate Board.

According to the program coordinators, the session is designed to inform participants on how to assemble or develop equity capital to create financing for other purposes, such as commercial and residential projects, both new construction and rehabilitation of existing structures.

The general session will be keynoteed by Daniel Rose of Rose Associates, New York and Boston, who will discuss "Creative Strategies for the Eighties."

Following the general session, four workshops are scheduled so that participants may attend two of the four. The workshops and their leaders are:

"Massachusetts Intrastate Offerings"—Harold Brown of Hamilton Realty Co. and Jeremy Hubball of Northland Investment Corp.

"Assisted Housing"—Gordon H. Berg & Co., BMFC, Inc.; James S. Hughes of Boston Financial Technology Group; and Gary A. Jenkinson of CMJ Management Co.

"S.E.C. Registered Offerings"—Stephen B. Boyle, E.F. Hutton & Co., Inc.; John A. Cervieri, Jr., of Property Capital Trust; and Daniel Rose.

"Private Placements"—G. Daniel Prigmore, CDM, Inc., and Neil St. John Raymond of Raymond Cattle Co.

At a wrap-up session, the moderator, panel leaders, and participants will evaluate the various advantages and requirements of the different forms of equity vehicles and syndications.

Coordinators for the program are Richard W. Bland II, of Hunneman Investment Management Corp. and Dexter J. Kamilewicz of the Beal Companies.

OPENING OF THE HUMPHREY CENTER PLANNED

Boston Public Schools Superintendent Robert Wood, on November 8, announced the management structure which will facilitate the opening of the Hubert Humphrey Occupational Resource Center in September, 1980.

The highlights of the announcement include the following:

—The formation of the McCormack Committee. A broadly based voluntary committee, chaired by Edward J. McCormack, Jr., and composed of public, private, and community representatives, will review the role the Humphrey Center can play in the revitalization and development of the neighborhoods and surrounding areas contiguous to the Southwest Corridor. The committee will also analyze the compatibility of the educational programs projected for the center and available job placement opportunities in Greater Boston.

—Assignment of management responsibilities. Mr. Robert Peterkin, director of Budget Management, will become the interim director of the Humphrey Center, effective immediately. His key responsibilities will include curriculum development, budget, staff and student recruitment, and scheduling. Mr. Peter Meade, senior officer for Intergovernmental Relations, will be responsible for external relations associated with the Humphrey Center opening and will provide staff work required by the McCormack committee. He will also oversee the transition of the Department of Vocational/Occupational Education, relying heavily on the advice and counsel of the senior staff of that department.

—A partnership between the Digital Corporation and the Humphrey Center. This new pairing between a Boston Public School and Boston business coincides with Digital's commitment to the core city and enables the center to give special emphasis to curriculum development in the high technology area and related job placement.

—A new linkage with public and community-based job opportunity programs. The Tri-Lateral Task Force, the Private Industry Council (PIC), the city's YES program and the Youth Committee will give special support to a coordinated effort on work-study and job-related programs now supported by external funds. Ms. Mary Amato, working within the Office of Intergovernmental Relations, will provide departmental liaison.

In commenting on these developments, Superintendent Wood said "This show of support by the leadership of our community is yet another investment in Boston's public education system. The opening of the Humphrey Center will be a fitting celebration for the 350th birthday of the City of Boston and a reminder that our urban youth are the future of our city."

On many occasions police officers are requested to appear at a District Court and a Superior Court proceedings on the same day. Unless their presence is essential at the commencement of the Superior Court, due to the status of a particular case, these officers are permitted by the Superior Court prosecutor to attend the District Court proceeding before going to the Superior Court.

Therefore, effective immediately, in view of the number of cases appearing on the daily trial list at Superior Court in the month of November, 1979, any officer who has to appear in a District Court, prior to Superior Court, shall telephone the Superior Court supervisor, First Session (Telephone 725-8714), prior to departing from the District Court to determine whether his Superior Court case has been called in the First Session of said court and continued to another date. In this event the officer's presence will not be required at Superior Court session and he will be advised by the court supervisor not to appear at this court.

Commanding officers of all districts and units will insure that the above is brought to the attention of all officers by reading this order at the several roll calls.

BENEFIT SALE AT MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Hundreds of art objects including sculpture, stained glass, paintings, prints, pottery, and much more will be offered at the Boston Museum School's First Annual Benefit Sale of Fine Arts and Crafts from December 5 through 23. Net proceeds from the sale will go towards the $4.1-million-dollar fund drive to complete the School of the Museum of Fine Arts.

Outstanding works by Museum School faculty, renowned alumni, and accomplished students will be displayed in a "warehouse setting" with crates, barrels, and ladders in the MFA's grand Tapestry Hall. Says Steve Lennox, coordinator of the Benefit Sale, "We chose to keep the installation of the objects as simple and without frills so that the prices of the works themselves could be kept within a reasonable price range." The art will range in price from as low as $1 for an original gift card to $2,000 for a 22-karat gold necklace set with an opal, to thousands of dollars for works by some of Boston's finest artists and craftsmen.

Highlights in the sale include colored pencil drawings by Barnett Rubenstein, whose exhibition at the Boston Museum last year drew large, enthusiastic crowds; sculpture by Christopher Sproat; paintings by Linda Etcoff, Natalie Alper, and Domingo Barrares; and a four-column, electronic sculpture which generates sound in response to human movement by electronic musician and visual artist, Larry Johnson.

Artists whose works are in the Benefit Sale have generously offered to donate one-half the proceeds of the sale to the Museum School Fund Drive. The $4.1-million-dollar program calls for renovation of the current main building at 24 The Fenway and the construction of an addition to the school on the same site to replace rented quarters. Plans for the renovation and addition have been designed by Graham Gund Associates, Inc., a Cambridge-based architectural firm. The Benefit Sale of Arts and Crafts is one in a series of events to raise funds for the completion of the school.

Hours of the sale will be: 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., on Tuesdays; 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Wednesday through Sunday; closed Monday. Visitors to the sale only will not be charged a general admission fee.

NUREMBERG EXHIBIT AT CITY HALL

Modern tapestries from Germany will adorn the lobby of Boston City Hall, December 3, 1979, to January 2, 1980, as part of a nationwide tour on loan from Nuremberg, Germany.

The exhibit, sponsored by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs and the Goethe Institute of Boston, is the creation of the Nürnberg Gobelin Manufaktur, a prominent group of contemporary German artists including some former Bauhaus Masters; Hubert Berke, Johannes Itten, Herbert Bayer, and Eitel Klein. The group was founded on the early German tradition of fine tapestry weaving dating back to the Middle Ages. The modern exhibit on tour is inspired by these early masters of the Byzantine and Romanesque periods.

The exhibit will open on December 3rd at 5:30 p.m. with a slide lecture by Dr. Anneliese Harding of the Goethe Institute of Boston. The lecture, entitled, "The Painter and Weavers of the Bauhaus," will provide a historical backdrop for the Nuremberg collection on display.

MASS. REALTORS AID BOSTON STUDENTS

The Massachusetts Association of Realtors has donated over 5,000 looseleaf binders for distribution to students in Greater Boston schools. Association President John M. Peckham III and Milton H. Shaw, both of Boston, presented the $6,500 supply of binders to Elizabeth G. Cook, senior officer for Community and Public Affairs of the Boston Public School Department, Tuesday, November 20.

"We have asked that the notebooks be allocated through the school system particularly to those most needy students," said Peckham. "Parents have enough expenses in dressing, equipping, and sending their children to school. We hope that this will make at least a small dent in that cost."

The association previously used the 10 x 11½-inch, three-ring binders in its Real Estate License Exam Preparatory Course. After revising the course notebook format, the realtors offered to deliver their supply of previous binders to the School Department who agreed to issue them to individual schools.

"The Massachusetts Association of Realtors has always included active community service in its professional program," said Peckham. Earlier this year, the association sent a contribution for twenty-five oak trees to the hurricane-torn areas of Mobile and Baldwin County, Alabama. Also, the association has won an award from the National Association of Realtors for the work of its twenty-five local boards in a statewide vandalism prevention project, part of its "Make America Better Program."

The term Realtor is a registered trademark and exclusive designation of members of the National Association of Realtors, who subscribe to a strict code of professional ethics.

INVITATION TO A PLAY

The Theatre Arts Department invites you to view its fall production, Man with Bags, Eugene Ionesco's most recent play in English — or rather, in the very American idiom of playwright Israel Horowitz's adaptation. Man with Bags (L'Homme aux valises) is a highly contemporary epic journey in which some seventy characters materialize in the dreams of a central character, identified only as the "First Man," who manages to be both very specific and very universal. This cycle of dreams is neither surreal nor particularly absurd, given the everyday reality of dreams; it makes perfect sense, but its logic is not that of waking life. Richard Eder of The New York Times described the world-renowned Ionesco's latest effort as a "rich, varied and most remarkable work . . . it takes the form of a kaleidoscope of scenes, some funny, some somber and some shocking."

This highly visual production is directed by Tim McDonough of the Theatre Arts Department, with scenery, lighting, costumes, make-up and sound designed by student artists. Admission is free.

Performances are in the College II Theatre, Harbor Campus, Morrissey Boulevard, Dorchester. Performance dates:

December 5, Wednesday — 2:30 p.m.

December 6, Thursday — 2:30 p.m.

December 7, Friday — 7:30 p.m.

December 8, Saturday — 7:30 p.m.

NEW CHAIRMAN FOR MHFA

Walter J. Kelliher, a former eight-term mayor of the City of Malden and an attorney-at-law, has been appointed a new member and chairman of the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency.

The announcement was on November 15, by MHFA Executive Director John T. Eller. Eller welcomed Kelliher to the agency and said "We are fortunate to have in Walter Kelliher, a man who has firsthand knowledge of both public and private sector housing programs and an understanding of how these programs can be most successfully implemented at the local level. His experience in public administration and his demonstrated commitment to providing housing for all income groups will be of significant value to the agency as it continues to address the housing needs of the people of Massachusetts."

Kelliher, sixty-six, fills a vacancy created by the resignation of Roger W. Foster, a Fitchburg real estate appraiser and consultant and former vice-chairman of the agency. Kelliher will serve for the remainder of Foster's seven-year term, which expires on September 6, 1980.

MBTA ASKS U.S. AID TO REBUILD BUDD CARS

The MBTA Board of Directors, on November 19, authorized the filing of a $41,480,000 capital grant application with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA) to assist in rebuilding ninety-three Budd rail diesel cars.

The self-propelled, stainless steel cars, originally built by the Budd Company in 1952-1958, would be rebuilt as all-electric coaches, hauled and powered by the Authority's new locomotives. The rebuilding project would give the equipment an additional twenty-five to thirty years of life.

The rebuilt cars would replace fifty-six coaches being leased from the Toronto Area Transit Operating Agency until May 2, 1981.

In its application, the Authority is requesting 85 percent of the total estimated project cost from the Interstate Highway Transfer account. The local share of $7,320,000 is available in the 1979 transportation bond authorization from the General Court.

CONTRACT AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

Boiler Replacement

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As a result of major ruptures in the heating boiler of the Highland Street Public Works Garage, it has been determined the boiler is beyond repair and requires a replacement. The loss of heat creates a serious problem for personnel and vehicles housed within this garage and unless corrective action is taken immediately, the extreme cold will cause additional damage to this facility. Further it is imperative the boiler be replaced to maintain the ability of the Public Works Department to operate at a time when storm conditions can seriously affect the safety of persons and property.

Because of the exigency of the situation and the danger to persons and property arising therefrom, I requested and received written approval from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with meeting the requirements of section 44A, chapter 149 G.L., as it pertains to public advertising, providing we obtained prices from at least three reputable contractors normally engaged in this type of work. The bid results are as follows:

John E. Kelley Plumbing and Heating Co., Inc., $34,137; P. J. Janis Plumbing and Heating Co., $35,855; Consolidated Heat and Power, $37,500.

Your Honor's written approval, therefore, is respectfully requested in recognition of the fact that an emergency situation does exist, to authorize dispensing with public advertising for bids and to award a contract for this work to John E. Kelley Plumbing and Heating Co., Inc., 45 Green Street, Jamaica Plain, for a total amount not to exceed $34,137.

Donald B. Mason,
Director.

Furniture Delivery, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on April 11, 1979, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals advertisement in the City Record, and to award a contract to Casey & Hayes, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation of 430 First Street, Boston.

Under the terms of the contract, Casey & Hayes provided for the handling, storage, delivery, and installation of new furniture in connection with construction of five schools (Mattapan Elementary, Quincy, Southwest, Charlestown, and Barnes.) during the period February to August, 1976, at a cost for such services not to exceed $9,925, which is a reasonable cost.

For your Honor's further information this firm performed these services satisfactorily, in good faith, and at the request of this department. Inadvertently, neither the city nor Casey & Hayes consummated the required contract for these services. The amount due and payable were included in certain change orders of general contractors for each project. However, because these contracts are in various stages of litigation this method of payment is not feasible.

Your Honor's written authorization is requested to dispense with public advertisement, pursuant to the City Charter, and award, without advertising, a contract to Casey & Hayes, Inc., 430 First Street, Boston, in the amount not to exceed $9,925.

Respectfully,

Donald B. Manson,
Director

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Consultant Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request your written authority to dispense with public advertising and award a contract in the amount not to exceed $40,000 to the Boston Redevelopment Authority. Payment for this contract will be made from the Fiscal 1979 Highway Loan, 6-53-16-720. Said cost, I believe to be reasonable.

Under the terms of the contract, the BRA will secure, supervise, and manage consultant activities with regard to the redesign of South Street, Roslindale.

Due to the nature of the tasks to be performed and the proven abilities of the BRA to carry out these tasks, no useful purpose would be served by public advertising and bidding.

Very truly yours,

Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner,

Bridge Inspections

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At the present time, there are forty-six bridges under the ownership of the City of Boston. For the purpose of maintaining safe passage for ocean-going traffic, as well as pedestrian and vehicular traffic, I propose that each bridge be subjected to inspection by a qualified engineering firm to determine the condition of each bridge.

There is every indication that Washington is addressing itself to the conditions of bridges around the country with an eye toward increasing the various funding sources available. It has been my experience that the city with plans and specifications ready to go into construction will receive a higher allocation of monies than those cities who do not.

Universal Engineering Corporation is a leader in the field of bridge engineering and inspection. They have a complete staff of qualified engineers and technicians to perform these duties and in the past have performed many services for the Public Works Department relative to its bridges. Due to this vast amount of experience and in-depth knowledge of our bridges, I do not believe that public advertising would serve any useful purpose.

Therefore, I respectfully request that public advertising be suspended and a contract be awarded to Universal Engineering Corporation, 100 Boylston Street, Boston, for engineering services in connection with work to be done for each bridge that would include a detailed inspection in the field of the superstructures, substructures, supporting structures, and operating machinery. A comprehensive report of findings will be prepared, as well as recommendations for immediate and long-range, corrective measures to be taken and an estimate of the cost for both recommendations.

It is proposed that the inspection program would have all the bridges fully inspected in a twelve-month period and the cost for this service would be $300,000 which I consider to be reasonable.

Very truly yours,

Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner.

Electrical Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

During the blizzard in February, 1978 the motor and the pier at the Summer Street Bridge (L Street) over the Reserved Channel was destroyed by the high winds and heavy seas. Also destroyed was a motor that operates the drawbridge at the Northern Avenue Bridge over the Fort Point Channel.

Extensive electrical work was necessary to bring both bridges up to operational status as soon as possible and since J.W. McCarthy, Ltd., 15 Saville Avenue, Quincy, was currently under contract to the City of Boston for electrical repairs to bridges, it was under an emergency situation that we had them perform the necessary work.

It was understood through meetings with representatives of the City of Boston's Public Works Department, Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Public Works, and the Federal Highway Administration, that due to the emergency nature of the work and that this area was declared a federal disaster area, the contractor would be paid through funds obtained from the federal government.

The funds have now been paid to the City of Boston and will have to be paid to the contractor for work that was done.

J.W. McCarthy, Ltd., was low bidder on a City of Boston contract for electrical repairs to existing equipment at various drawbridges in the city, but his bid was challenged by the second low bidder and J.W. McCarthy, Ltd., withdrew its bid.

J.W. McCarthy, Ltd., to date has not received any funds for the emergency work that was done.

Therefore, I respectfully request that public advertising be suspended and a contract be awarded to J.W. McCarthy, Ltd., 15 Saville Avenue, Quincy, for work done in conjunction with emergency repairs to the Summer Street Bridge over the Reserved Channel and the Northern Avenue Bridge over the Fort Point Channel, for an amount not to exceed $9,087.41, which I consider to be reasonable.

Very truly yours,

Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT

Management Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Real Property Board on March 14, 1979, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to George B. H. Macomber Company, 89 Brighton Avenue, Boston.

Under the terms of the contract, the George B. H. Macomber Company will be providing special construction-related management expertise to the Real Property Board throughout the design and construction phases for the Lafayette Place Parking Facility. Compensation for these services shall not exceed $200,000 during the period of the contract which in my opinion is a reasonable cost. This service will be required throughout the duration of this project which is expected to last approximately two years, commencing on March 15, 1979, and terminating March 14, 1981.

The George B. H. Macomber Company has had considerable construction and construction management experience in the Boston area and Mr. George Macomber has personally agreed to participate in the service to be performed.

The construction management contract is a requirement of the Lafayette Place Tripartite insofar as the city is required to engage a construction manager to ensure that the parking facility is designed and developed in accordance with the overall development plan. The Real Property Board, although not required, invited several major construction firms to submit expressions of interest for this contract. Those invited included the following:

J. F. White Company, Turner Construction, Macomber Company, Vappi & Company, Volpe Company, Perini Corporation.

From the above group, only Macomber, Turner, Volpe, and Perini expressed interest. Upon reviewing their proposals and meeting personally with each company, the Real Property Board has decided to recommend the George B. H. Macomber Company.

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, as well as George B. H. Macomber Company's vast experience in the construction and construction management field, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

Joanne A. Prevost,
Commissioner.

The appropriation for this work will come from the Real Property Department Account 1-01-85-29-2. The amount is not to exceed $4,500, which is a reasonable cost for this work.

Sincerely yours,
Joanne A. Prevost,
Commissioner.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at District V schools: provide criterion-referenced reading tests and machine scoring to pupils in the J. E. Burke and Dorchester High Schools.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of his training and experience in criterion-referenced reading tests and machine scoring provided last year and continuing this year.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws, Chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 79-5D-0107.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of the superintendent of schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Mary Murray, 156 Stratford Street, West Roxbury. The contract shall be in effect during the period of January 11, 1979, to June 30, 1979, and occur at a cost not to exceed $3,000, which is deemed to be reasonable by the committee.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at District IX schools: organize and coordinate the material provided by the twenty-four schools of the magnet district and develop with the participation of parents and students a newsletter which will provide an information line to all members of the magnet district — students, parents, teachers, and administrators. The newsletter will also be available to nonmagnet districts.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of her academic background (i.e., A.B. in English and communications) and her diversified and highly responsible experiences with the media and communication. She has worked as an advertising assistant responsible for preparing articles for publication and various capacities for several radio stations, including news director and reporter.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws, Chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 79-9D-0197.

Very truly yours,

such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws, Chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Project No. 79-2D-0303.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws, Chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under grant from chapter 636, state-approved Projects Nos. 79-BC-0712, 79-MEP-0502, and 79-MEP-0515.

The Building Commissioner is allowing a thirty-nine-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting within seven (7) days after the signing of the Mayor's award.

The contractor's attention is called to XXIV, Protection of the Public. These measures, which appear in the contract, are of two general types: revisions to the demolition contract specifications, and modifications or additions to the Clearance of Unsafe Buildings Program itself.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246) IF APPLICABLE.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization, if applicable.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 25 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order

11246. A statement of workforce needs as requested by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. A section 3 affirmative action plan consists of tables AAP-1 to AAP-3 and forms AAP-1 and AAP-2 and can be found at pages ST1-ST7 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his ability to comply with these requirements. All prospective bidders will be required to attend a prebid conference prior to submitting a bid. The time and place will be announced.

ABCD AIDS FUEL ASSISTANCE QUALIFIERS

Applications from low-income individuals and families for fuel assistance payments are currently being accepted in Boston, Brookline, Dedham, Needham, Newton, and Waltham, according to an announcement by Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD).

Funds for the fuel assistance program come from federal and state governments and are administered locally by community action agencies (CAP). The money will be distributed this winter for as long as it is available to people who apply and qualify, with highest priority going to the elderly and the handicapped. It is expected that funds will begin to come in to the local agencies by the middle of December.

To qualify, families and individuals must have a gross annual income (before taxes and deductions) below the following levels:

Household size	Gross annual income
1	$5,100
2	6,750
3	8,400
4	10,050
5	11,700
6	13,350

For each additional person, add $1,650 to the gross annual income level.

Heads of household also qualify simply if they are eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Depending on a person's income status, the following items constitute proof of income:

1. On welfare — a signed and currently dated statement from the social worker noting the type of benefits and amount received;

2. Employed — a statement from employer, or wage stubs showing income from at least the previous three months;

3. Unemployed — a signed and currently dated statement from the Department of Employment Security (DES) on amount of weekly benefits and length of time received, or current DES claim card showing benefits received for at least the previous three months;

4. Social Security — a signed and currently dated statement from SSA or SSI office showing amount of benefits for at least the previous three months or a copy of a currently dated SSI or SSA check;

5. Retired — a signed and currently dated statement from pension source showing amount of benefits for at least the previous three months or a copy of the current pension check;

6. Veteran — a signed and currently dated statement from the Veterans Administration (VA) showing the amount of benefits for at least the previous three months;

7. Other — (such as a person receiving alimony payments): a signed and currently dated and notarized statement of at least the previous three months' income from the payment source.

"Income" means total income of every adult member of the household. Applicants are strongly encouraged to bring income proof for the previous full year, but must, at the very least, supply proof of income from the previous three months.

After having determined that a household or an individual is eligible because of income, the head of household should bring in a statement of need for oil, gas, or electricity. The following documents constitute evidence:

1. For anyone: a currently dated unpaid fuel or utility bill, or a notice of planned shutoff from a fuel or utility company;

2. For elderly or handicapped: a current utility bill or a statement from the fuel dealer;

3. For COD customers: a statement from a fuel dealer noting cost to fill up the tank.

Applicants who bring the appropriate, valid documents will find that their applications can be processed faster and have their bills paid sooner than those whose papers are incomplete.

Applicants should be aware that the rules about eligibility come from the federal and state governments, which fund the program, and are designed to help people in most need of assistance. Checks to pay fuel bills are made out and mailed directly to the fuel or utility company. The federal government has set $400 as the maximum amount to be paid in fuel assistance for any

TO OUR READERS

Effective January 1, 1980, the cost of the City Record will be increased to $8.00 per year. The price change is made necessary due to increases in the cost of labor, materials, mailing, and other services that involve the publishing and distribution of the paper. Single issues will cost twenty cents.

household during the course of this winter.

ABCD anticipates that processing the applications may take three weeks from the time an application is filled out to the day the check goes into the mail.

To apply, people must go to the office in their area to fill out an application. Handicapped and elderly people who are housebound may call the office to make arrangements for a home visit to have the application filled out. Anyone may call the special ABCD fuel assistance line — 357-6031 — to find out the address of a local intake office.

CONSUMER COUNCIL

The Boston Consumers' Council is a good place to turn if you are having difficulty getting home heating fuel delivered or if you are dissatisfied with a contractor making repairs on your home.

The Consumers' Council keeps a record of all oil dealers and repair shops that have unfavorable consumer practice records. Though they cannot recommend a particular company, they can steer people away from the bad ones.

The Council has worked closely with the City Energy Office to establish a clearinghouse of information on the cost of fuel and payment plans at each of the fuel dealers in town. The Energy Office does monthly surveys of all Boston oil dealers using the information to draw up a list of dealers that have good consumer practice records, as well as those that sell oil in small increments (twenty-five to fifty gallons for example). The Council also helps establish credit arrangements between fuel dealers and customers.

If you have any problems concerning the purchase or delivery of fuel or heat shutoffs, call the Boston Consumers' Council at 725-3320. Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. At night, or on weekends, call the Mayor's Elderly Hotline at 722-4646.

LUNG ASSOCIATION 75th ANNIVERSARY YEAR

Christmas Seal Drive in full swing.

The same progress in research and technology that helped curb tuberculosis in the early years of the twentieth century has also produced airborne hazards and personal habits that cause equally dangerous lung disease for us today, according to Aram Pothier, president of American Lung Association of Boston, which now has its seventy-fifth anniversary year Christmas Seal Drive in full swing.

"Few people believed there was any hope of bringing TB under control back in those early years," says Pothier, "but the founders of the American Lung Association didn't let public opinion get them down. They just forged right ahead and in a very short time they made incredible strides in prevention and treatment of TB."

The Lung Association people today, according to Pothier, are still working to keep TB under control, and are waging vigorous battles against cigarette smoking and air pollution. They are also in the forefront of the battle against the ravages of children's respiratory problems such as asthma, the older population's emphysema disabilities, and chronic bronchitis problems in the general population.

These programs are supported throughout the nation from donations received in the Annual Christmas Seal Campaign, which is now in full swing at the American Lung Association of Boston.

"Most people have already received their Christmas Seals in the mail," says Pothier. If you haven't received yours yet, call the Association office at 426-8330 and they'll be happy to provide them to you.

The association also has educational pamphlets or just about every phase of lung disease prevention. This free information is a seventy-fifth anniversary year public service activity of the local group, and is available on request by telephone or by writing to The American Lung Association of Boston, 51 Sleeper Street, Boston, Mass. 02210.

MAYOR WHITE ANNOUNCES $1.2 MILLION FOR YOUTH EMPLOYMENT

The City of Boston's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) has received more than $1,000,000 to expand employment and educational services to economically disadvantaged youth, Mayor Kevin H. White announced on November 20.

Through Project YES, the largest youth employment program administered by EEPA, five new programs will emphasize services to court-involved youths, out-of-school youths, Chinese and Hispanic youths and teenage mothers. All high school seniors in Project YES will receive career counseling and assistance in finding permanent employment. The largest of these new programs will be operated by Project YES in close cooperation with the Boston School Department. Project YES will work with several community agencies in operating the other programs.

"We guarantee a job to every youth who is entitled to one through Project YES," said Mayor White, "and that includes a guarantee to the youths who face special problems in school or on the job. With these new programs, we're enhancing our guarantee to reach eligible youths to offer them jobs and to encourage them to finish school."

Originally funded in February, 1978, Project YES offers eligible youths, sixteen to nineteen, part-time jobs as an incentive to complete their high school education. Economically disadvantaged youths who live in school Districts 4, 5, 6, or 7, qualify for a Project YES job — as long as they attend school or an accredited educational program.

"We feel it's important that we help youths who are out of school to get back into school — and it's important for kids who are out of work to get a job," said George Bennett, EEPA's administrator. "Through Project YES, and with cooperation from Boston's high schools and community agencies, we offer kids a chance to get a job and finish school."

The $1.2 million received from the U.S. Department of Labor will enrich already existing employment services available through Project YES:

- Intensive In-School Enrichment Program will combine a morning job with an afternoon educational program at Dorchester, English, and Jeremiah Burke High Schools. At each school, thirty students with poor attendance and thirty out-of-school youths will be enrolled in the program. Additional counseling services will be available to more than 2,000 Project YES enrollees at these schools. Parent workshops will be conducted by the City-Wide Educational Coalition to encourage greater parent participation. Funding: $382,396 matched by $174,440 from Boston School Department; total funding: $556,836.

- Linguistic Minorities Program will serve approximately 300 Chinese and Hispanic youths through the Council of Administrators of Hispanic Agencies (CAHA) and Chinese Youth Essential Services. Outreach, counseling, English as a second language classes, and alternative education will be provided.

- Program for Adjudicated Youth (PAY) will provide specialized outreach, job development, and additional support and counseling services for at least 200 youths in the criminal justice system. The Self-Development Group, an agency founded by ex-offenders, will conduct workshops and provide counseling. Funding: $78,750.

- Program for Out-of-School Youth will add support services to twelve alternative education programs funded by Project YES. Some of these programs help students prepare to take a high school equivalency exam, and others are operated as part of Boston Public Schools' Flexible Campus program. Child care services, tutoring and remedial education, and human relations training are among the support services. Funding: $287,523.

- Employability Support Program (ESP) will provide work orientation and preparation to approximately 1,000 newly enrolled youths, and will provide placement and other transitional services to about 650 graduating seniors. Job hunting, as well as independent living workshops on how to establish credit or plan a budget, for example, will help these youths to make their own careers and life decisions. Funding: $206,378.

Only five other cities in the United States have received funds to operate large-scale entitlement programs like Project YES. With this enrichment money, total funding for Project YES has reached more than $42 million.

HISTORY THROUGH ARCHITECTURE: INTERESTING, INFORMATIVE

Community Schools Newsletter

The first semester of the "History through Architecture" course is in full swing and approximately 115 elder Bostonians are having fun learning about the history and architecture of their neighborhoods and the City of Boston. The course, coordinated jointly through the Elderly Commission and the Boston Community Schools began its first session recently with a slide presentation by the coordinator for "Jubilee 350," Sylvia Weisenfeld. The slide show contains an excellent overview of the many exciting events planned for celebrating Boston's 350th birthday in 1980.

Throughout the ten-week course many interesting and informative programs are being planned to create a comprehensive project. The class members will visit historic sites, museums, and architectural landmarks. To give participants an exciting beginning the spectacular slide presentation "Where's Boston?" is also included on the agenda which focuses on the entire city and its diverse history. Further exposure is given to the specific neighborhoods in which the classes are being held through lecturers, such as Bob Burke from the Landmarks Commission and Mr. Douglass Shand Tucci, a Boston historian and author. The two current areas of the city in which we are holding classes are Dorchester and Jamaica Plain. A visit and tour of the John F. Kennedy Library seems to be a unanimous choice for the Murphy Community School members. In Jamaica Plain, the group has been honored with a private tour of the Loring-Greenough House, including a gracious tea given to our class by the members of the Jamaica Plain Tuesday Club. Anthony Sammarco, president of the Dorchester Historical Society has invited the Dorchester group on a special tour of the 1806 William Clapp House.

Mr. Fred Kresse, special consultant to the project, has designed a project booklet called Streetscene. This booklet is intended to interest students in participating in at least one of the ten unique projects outlined and described in detail. Already members are being drawn into actively contributing to the classes as was recently witnessed by a special tour of the Arnold Arboretum by a Jamaica Plain resident, Mr. Henry Keaveney. He elaborated on the history of the park system and lead a group of interested members through the lush and beautiful surroundings of the Arboretum.

To add to the list of distinguished guests, Mr. John Dobie, an urban designer from the BRA, visited the class in Dorchester and spoke on the problems of signage in the city which triggered an exercise called Good Signs/Bad Signs from the project booklet. The members were asked to first view an example sheet of overcrowded and unsightly signs after which they were presented with an empty sheet containing a row of buildings on which they reconstructed an original placement of signs and storefronts. This exercise generated a lot of thought on the aesthetic quality of sign placement, as well as an interest in the current status of signage in the members' specific neighborhoods.

The "History through Architecture" project, funded by the National Endowment on the Humanities, is a yearlong course divided into three, ten-week programs designed to be educational as well as enjoyable. The second semester will begin in early January at the Ohrenberger Community School in West Roxbury, the Condon Community School in South Boston, and the Cleveland/Marshall Community School in Dorchester. The course is free and open to anyone living in Boston who is sixty years or older. Transportation is available to those who need it. Anyone interested in joining the classes can call the project director, Elizabeth Whyte, or the project assistant, Chris Toomey, at the Elderly Commission, 725-3988 or 725-3989. Sign up now and be assured a place in the next class.

SAFETY TIPS

- Smoke Detectors: Have smoke detectors installed in your home. They are required by law, to be installed in every house and apartment by August 1, 1980. Most people die from smoke and toxic gases rather than the fire itself. Smoke detectors wake you when the fire starts, thus giving you time to evacuate. Call the Fire Department at 442-8000 for advice on the best place to install smoke detectors.

- Space heaters: The most important thing with electric space heaters is to have adequate wiring — a 220-volt line. Also don't place heater near draperies; don't overload the circuit by using too many appliances at once; and don't put the space heater on the same circuit as your television. Remember to shut it off when you go out.

- Ovens: Don't use your oven as a space heater. It was not meant to be use continually and it is very expensive to run. If it's a gas oven, and the flame should go out, it could be deadly.

- Fuses: If a fuse blows, replace it with an identical fuse. Don't replace it with a penny; a fire can start very easily.

- Draperies: Everything absorbs heat. Keep draperies away from radiators.

- Clothing: Don't wear loose clothing around the stove while cooking. Clothing catches fire quickly. If possible wear flame retardant clothing.

- Kerosene-burning space heaters: Using the non-vented type kerosene-burning space heaters is a fire hazard, and is against the law.

- Wood Stoves: Before installation get an application from the Building Department. Be sure the stove has been approved by Underwriters Laboratory (UL) and/or the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA). Give consideration to the size stove you wish to purchase, type of wood to use, the hours of burning, thermostatic controls, stability, draft controls, and blower attachments. Choose a good location where the stove is protected and where it will not be brushed against, causing fire or personal injury. Keep a fire extinguisher near the stove and if you suspect fire call the Fire Department immediately, cut off the air supply, close the damper and evacuate the premises.

"T" UNVEILS NEW BUS STOP SIGNS

On Wednesday morning, December 5, MBTA Chairman Robert L. Foster, members of local citizens' groups, and residents of the Forbes Building, an apartment at 545 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain, joined in a ceremony at that location unveiling one of the 18,000 new bus stop signs that will be erected at more than 7,000 local bus and trackless trolley stops during the next twelve months.

"It is appropriate that this ceremony take place at this location," said Chairman Foster. Jamaica Plain has a deeply interested and highly vocal group of citizens concerned with their public transportation system. It is fitting that these new signs, which will make using the T much easier than ever before, be installed in this neighborhood.

"It is doubly appropriate that this specific site was chosen. A number of senior citizens live in the Forbes Building and use the T daily. These new signs will make using the system easier and much more convenient than ever before," said Foster.

The new bus stop sign program, estimated to cost $2.4 million, is part of the MBTA's federally funded Transit Efficiency Program. The Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA) pays 80 percent of the program cost with 20 percent coming from the MBTA's legislatively authorized bonding powers.

The new signs are being fabricated and installed by L & C Flashing Barriers of Canton, the lowest responsible bidder on the contract. They have between five and seven two-man crews working on putting up new poles and the new signs. Completion date for the entire installation is expected to be September of 1980.

The new signs were designed by MBTA personnel and represent the first time in the Authority's long history that the thousands of bus stop signs will be uniform in design and will, most importantly, do more than just indicate a stopping point.

Designed differently from other traffic type signs, the new bus stop sign is highly visible in the urban environment. It is round at the top, 12-inches wide and 34-inches high — (38-inches in tow zones). The signs are black, red, and white on a yellow background.

The sign facing the street, regulatory in nature, shows the circle T logo of the Authority, a schematic representation of a bus, and the international NO PARKING symbol. The sign facing the sidewalk is informational and shows the circle T logo, plus bus route numbers and destinations.

MBTA TO CHANGE SEATING IN SILVERBIRD FLEET

MBTA Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Robert L. Foster, on November 27, announced a program to renovate the seating arrangement in the MBTA's seventy-six car fleet of "Silverbirds" used on the Red Line and thereby increase the car's capacity as well as provide, for the first time on rapid transit cars, provisions for carrying wheelchair patrons.

The first car with the new seating arrangement is already in service and has been well-accepted by the riding public. Individual car capacity has been increased by thirty passengers. This has been accomplished by turning forty seats laterally, thus providing more standing room. Additional grab-bars for standees have been installed. One of the complaints about the old seating arrangement was a lack of places for standing passengers to hold on to which created crowding at the doorways.

With the new arrangement, there will be no need to bunch up at the doors and this should reduce the loading/unloading times at stations and thus speed up the ride a bit.

Each car will have one seat that folds up to reveal a wheelchair tie-down for handicapped passengers. The Red Line is currently accessible to wheelchair patrons at Harvard/Brattle Station in Cambridge and Park Street Station in Boston. The two new Red Line stations, at Quincy Adams and Braintree will also be accessible to wheelchairs.

The cost of the program, is estimated at $1.2 million, or about $9,600 per car, and is funded 80 percent by the federal government and 20 percent by the MBTA local bonding authority. All seventy-six Silverbirds are expected to be converted by summer of 1980.

CONTRACT AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Educational Material

Various Services, Chapter 44

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of the superintendent of schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Ms. Janet M. Caruso. The contract shall be in effect during the period of January 2, 1979, to June 20, 1979, and occur at a cost not to exceed $4,000, which is deemed to be reasonable by the Committee.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Jackson-Mann School:

1. Instruct Jackson Elementary School students in the development of media skills;
2. act as consultant to teachers in preparation and use of audio-visual materials;
3. assist Jackson teachers in the visual presentation of materials to mainstreamed/hearing-impaired students;
4. maintain inventory and repair of extensive audio-visual equipment.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because she has been employed on contract with the Jackson-Mann School since September, 1977, as the media specialist. She holds a Master's Degree from Boston University in media technology. In addition, Ms. Caruso is successfully employed for three and one half hours per day as the media specialist for the Horace Mann Unit of the Jackson Mann School. This contract for two and one half hours per day would complete a full day of work at the Jackson-Mann School. Consequently, it is the determination of the School Committee that public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of General Laws chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be funded by District IX Discretionary Funds.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its superintendent, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Dr. Terrell A. Clark, 51 Hall Avenue, Watertown. The contract shall be in effect during the period of January 2, 1979, until June 30, 1979, and occur at a cost not to exceed $3,750, which is deemed reasonable by the committee. The cost per evaluation is $150.

The contractor will provide the following support services at the Jackson-Mann School: Dr. Terrell Clark will be required to administer a comprehensive battery of psychological tests to students, write extensive reports, and participate in the Evaluation Team meetings for each child whom she services.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because she has the required expertise in deaf education, can communicate in sign language, and has extensive clinical experience with deaf individuals.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provisions of General Laws chapter 44, s. 53A, and is to be subject to the receipt of funds under a P.L. 94-482, Project 79-035-013-438-1, Cost Center 064.

Yours truly,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Flight Simulator

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Pacer Systems, Inc., 87 Second Avenue, Northwest Industrial Park, Burlington, for furnishing a Pacer Mark II Basic Flight Unit to the Grover Cleveland School, at a cost not to exceed $3,139.95.

Please see attached letter from R. Fraser, Career Exploration Coordinator, stating that to the best of his knowledge, no other company makes this model and make flight simulator. Also, after calling various distributors, that they obtain the best price by buying direct. The company is also 10 percent less than any other quoted price, therefore the cost is reasonable.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Computer Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your authorization for the award of a contract without public advertising to: PHD Systems of Computing, Inc., Lakeside Park, Door, 12 Wakefield, for rendering of services between February 15, 1979, and April 15, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $3,454, which is deemed reasonable by the committee.

The contractor will provide the following service: to make minor modifications and extensions to a computer procedure for scoring student tests from a variety of optical test documents. The procedure was developed by the named contractor under a previous contract which was publicly advertised.

The contractor has unique expertise to perform the above services because the original representative is still on their staff and is the best source of minor alterations and extensions.

It is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

The necessary funds are resident in the budget of cost center 084.

Yours very truly,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Alarms Maintenance

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action in awarding a contract without public advertising, to the following firm for the supervision and maintenance of intrusion alarm systems presently in operation in four school buildings — 3M Alarm Service, 63 Washington Avenue, Chelsea.

The total amount of the contract will not exceed $6,195.16, and the contract will be in effect from July 1, 1979, through June 30, 1980. It is my considered opinion that this cost is reasonable and fair.

This company has been providing this service to the Department of Planning and Engineering for many years and is uniquely qualified to perform this work in these school buildings. Inasmuch as this equipment has over a period of years been leased from this firm and along with the fact that the equipment is tied in with their central station and is monitored on a full-time basis by them, the 3M Alarm Service is the only firm that can supply this service to the four school buildings covered by this proposed contract. In addition this program operates in conjunction with the City of Boston, Public Facilities Department Electronic Security Patrol.

It is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Meals Transportation

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Dandy Dinners, Inc./ J & S Service, 86 Liberty Street, Quincy, for the transportation of meals from the Central Food Facility for the period April 6, 1979, to May 4, 1979, at a cost of $.075 per meal and total cost not to exceed $33,000. This contractor is qualified to do this work and in my opinion the cost is reasonable.

Because the original vendor was unable to perform due to a strike, and time is of essence in meeting this emergency, no useful purpose would be served by advertising for formal public bids.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

School and Office Furniture

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The C. Walsh Co., Inc., 100 Southamptton Street, has available in their storage warehouse some school and office furniture which must be disposed of immediately. The equipment, listed below, is used equipment and is in first-class condition, and was manufactured by reputable manufacturers such as Steel Age Steelcase, Shaw Walker, and other national concerns that manufacture first-rate equipment.

The equipment value of the items listed below on the retail market, if new, is approximately $33,810, and can be purchased for a quick disposal price in an amount not to exceed $9,660.

Forty Swivel chairs, with and without arms; forty 30 inch x 60 inch desks; twelve teachers' tables; seventy files, mostly four drawer; six secretaries chairs; five storage cabinets; three conference tables; four upholstered lounge chairs; three bookcases, miscellaneous sizes.

I request your approval to award a contract, without advertising, for the purchase of this equipment for which there is an immediate need in the schools of the City of Boston at a price not to exceed $9,660. This represents a saving of $24,150, if new equipment were to be purchased.

The above items have been inspected personally by myself and members of my staff and are considered to be in excellent condition and ready for immediate use.

Respectfully submitted,

Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Leasing Certain Premises

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action in leasing, without advertising, certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the Department of Adult Educational and Recreational Activities of the Boston School Department.

The premises to be leased consists of rooms to be used for Adult Educational instructional purposes, and lavatory facilities, on the second floor at 584 Columbia Road, Dorchester, owned by Denver Realty, Inc.

The terms of the lease will be for one year on a month-to-month basis from February 1, 1979, to and including January 31, 1980.

The rental for the term is $9,120 in equal monthly installments of $760. Funding is provided under the Adult Education Act, PL 91-230. The contract cost is in my opinion, reasonable.

Since the premises are suitable, and have been used for the adult education program for several years under prior leases, it is not felt that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,

Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Mailing Meters, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Pitney Bowes, Inc., Trapelo Road, Waltham, for furnishing purchase of mailing machine bases and provide rental of meter machines for various locations for the Citywide Parents' Advisory Council, at a cost not to exceed $5,000.

The Citywide Parents' Advisory Council stated that public interest would not be served by public advertisement because Pitney Bowes, Inc. is the only provider able to meet their needs in terms of type and size of equipment and cost. Other providers, for example, Friden or Orbitron, provide computerized, larger machines mostly to mailing houses such as United Parcel Service, etc. Therefore, it is their opinion that Pitney Bowes, Inc. is the satisfactory firm to supply the above equipment, and the cost is reasonable.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Signal Service

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to American District Telegraph Company of 11 North Avenue, Burlington, for installing a protective signal service at White Stadium, Franklin Park near Walnut Street, Jamaica Plain, November 1, 1978. The cost of this contract shall not exceed $2,744.00.

Description, as now installed, Burglar Alarm Service:

West Stadium — Separate Alarm — eight outside doors to stadium, contacts two doors leading to press area; contacts one trap door to roof of press room; contacts twelve windows in press room; contacts six portals leading from stadium to concession area contacts.

East Stadium — Separate Alarm — eight outside doors to stadium, contacts six portals leading from stadium to concession area contacts.

The American District Telegraph Company has rendered protective single service at White Stadium for twenty years. Their work is exceptional and the price is consistent with previous years. For this reason we cannot see any reason to patronize any other firm, nor advertise, at this time, because their performance and cost is satisfactory.

The supervisor of athletic facilities, as well as the Department of Physical Education recommend the services of A.D.T. Co. because of past performance and cost, and recommend that it would be in the best interest of the Boston Public Schools to enter into a contract with A.D.T. Co., of Burlington, and to dispense with the requirement to advertise for bids at this time.

Very truly yours,

Thomas E. Moran,
Director, Department of Physical Education.

Instructional Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendations of its superintendent of schools, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Dina Loeb, 23 Dale Street, Brookline. The contract shall be in effect during the period of March 1, 1979, to June 15, 1979, and occur at a cost not to exceed $3,000, which is deemed to be reasonable by the committee.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Ohrenberger and certain other schools as the need arises: a) evaluate children's physical, emotional, and intellectual functions; b) evaluate children's functional disabilities; c) select and utilize strategies for working with multi-handicapped students; d) provide hands-on therapy to certain special needs students whose educational plans call for occupational therapy, and who are entitled to compensatory services as mandated by court order.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because she is a highly qualified, certified, occupational therapist who has the education and experience to fulfill the requirements of this position. Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation of funds, under the provision of Cost Center Code 166.

Very truly Yours,

Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its superintendent, I request your authorization for the award of a contract to Susan G. McNine, 27 Holyoke Road, Somerville. The contract shall be in effect during the period of December 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, and occur at a cost not to exceed $2,000, which is deemed to be reasonable by the committee.

The contractor will provide the following instructional services at the Ohrenberger School: consultation to parents and teachers on behavior management; toilet training; self-help skills; and inservice training to teachers and aides in behavior modification techniques.

The contractor is especially qualified to provide the above services because of prior experience since December 1976, in this position at the Ohrenberger, as well as experience in parent training and teacher training at Lincoln Hill and Delta House; program director at Lincoln Hill Camp.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this agreement and the expertise of the contractor on providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an additional appropriation of funds, under the provision of the Department of Special Services, cost center 050, expense code 910.

Very truly yours,

Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Consulting Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with the usual form of advertising and to award a contract for consulting services to Mrs. Dora Fredman of 1455 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton. The amount of the contract will not exceed $4,000, and will run from February 26, 1979, through June 30, 1979. I deem the contract cost to be reasonable.

The work to be performed under the proposed contract will involve the following:

Mrs. Fredman will assist the Collecting Division in processing municipal lien certificates, those that require information from tax title files. She will also advise the Collecting Division with respect to water and sewer tax matters, with specific emphasis on the new Water and Sewer Commission. She is uniquely qualified for this job having worked for the city for twelve years on such assignments before her recent retirement.

The processing of municipal liens, particularly those which involve tax title accounts is a most important step in the enforcement of tax collections. The demand for this service reaches its peak in the spring and early summer, the period of greatest activity in the residential market. Mrs. Fredman's long experience and detailed knowledge will be of great benefit. I believe that nothing would be gained by advertising for competitive services.

Sincerely,
Lowell L. Richards, III,
Collector-Treasurer.

SUFFOLK COUNTY Leasing of Vehicles

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As District Attorney for Suffolk County, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Bonded Leasing Company, Inc., 955 Turnpike Street, Canton, in an amount not to exceed $10,993 for a six-month period, January 1, 1979, through June 30, 1979. It is my opinion that this cost is reasonable.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Governor's Public Safety Committee under the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644).

The purpose of the grant is to allow the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office to establish an intensive investigation and prosecution unit.

Bonded Leasing Company, Inc., is an automobile leasor which has provided vehicles to the above-mentioned project for the past four years. The vehicles have all been leased before so that we are able to lease them at a reduced rate, and have been equipped with devices necessary to allow the office to perform the tasks specified in the grant.

Five automobiles will be leased at a six-month per vehicle cost of $1,428, and one automobile will be leased at a five-month cost of $1,435. One vehicle will be leased at a six-month cost of $1,698. We have solicited informal proposals from other leasing firms. In each case the alternatives to Bonded Leasing Corporation were over and above the average cost.

Bonded is also the only company who would grant us a six-month contract.

As in the past, the leasing vehicles will be utilized for public surveillance activity. To publicly advertise the specifications of the automobiles would defeat the purpose for which they are to be leased.

It is my conclusion, based on (a) the low cost of these vehicles; (b) the granting of a six-month contract; (c) the unique manner in which these vehicles will assist this office; and (d) the need for preservation of confidentiality with respect to the leasing of these vehicles, that public advertising will serve no useful or practical purpose.

Pardon our delay in communicating this request to your office, with a new administration it is difficult to attend to all important matters on schedule.

Respectfully yours,
Newman Flanagan,
District Attorney.

The City of Boston, acting by its Building Commissioner, Room 807, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, MA 02201, hereinafter referred to as the Awarding Authority, invites sealed general bids for the demolition and site clearance of the following buildings:

970 Saratoga Street, Ward 1.
22 Woodville Street, Ward 8.
48 Cobden Street, Ward 11.
22 Circuit Street, Ward 12.
86 Elm Hill Avenue, Ward 12.

35 Waverly Street, Ward 12.
19 Fowler Street, Ward 14.
103-105 Glenway Street, Ward 14.

Technical specifications may be obtained at the office of the Awarding Authority.

General bids will be received up until 11 a.m., Boston time, Thursday, December 20, 1979, at the office of the Awarding Authority, Room 807, Boston City Hall, 1 City Hall Square, Boston, MA 02201, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. Two copies of the general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or in the form of a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid will be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and the Housing and Urban Development Department, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for the employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or national origin.

The Building Commissioner is allowing a thirty-three-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting within seven (7) days after the signing of the Mayor's award.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

The contractor's attention is called to XXIV, Protection of the Public. These measures, which appear in the contract, are of two general types: revisions to the demolition contract specifications, and modifications or additions to the Clearance of Unsafe Buildings Program itself.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246) IF APPLICABLE.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goal shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization, applicable.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 25 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit Minority Business and General Contractor Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with the requirements.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment ment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as requested by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. A section 3 affirmative action plan consists of tables AAP-1 to AAP-3 and forms AAP-1 and AAP-2 and can be found at pages ST1-ST7 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his ability to comply with these requirements. All prospective bidders will be required to attend a prebid conference prior to submitting a bid. The time and place will be announced.

General bids must be submitted on the form for general bid obtained from the Awarding Authority. The general bids shall be completely filled in, signed, enclosed in an envelope, sealed and plainly marked with the description of the work to be done. Two copies of the general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or in the form of a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid will be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and the Housing and Urban Development Department, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for the employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or national origin.

The Building Commissioner is allowing a twenty-seven-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting within seven (7) days after the signing of the Mayor's award.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

The contractor's attention is called to XXIV, Protection of the Public. These measures, which appear in the contract, are of two general types: revisions to the demolition contract specifications, and modifications or additions to the Clearance of Unsafe Buildings Program itself.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246) IF APPLICABLE.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization, if applicable.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 25 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as requested by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. A section 3 affirmative action plan consists of tables AAP-1 to AAP-3 and forms AAP-1 and AAP-2 and can be found at pages ST1-ST7 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his ability to comply with these requirements. All prospective bidders will be required to attend a prebid conference prior to submitting a bid. The time and place will be announced.

The objective of this examination is an opinion on the fairness with which the financial statements present the source and status of funds in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, the Grant Agreements and Federal Management Circular 74-4, and a determination that the city's accounting system and related internal controls are operating effectively, and whether adequate records and safeguards are being maintained over grant funds.

MBTA BREAKS GROUND IN SOUTHWEST CORRIDOR

With Governor Edward J. King making the keynote speech, the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority broke ground on December 3, in Jamaica Plain, marking the start of one of the initial contracts for the construction of the Southwest Corridor Project. The project is a $669-million program of transportation improvements, including the relocation of the Orange Line from the South End to Forest Hills, and the reconstruction of the railroad between Forest Hills and the Back Bay for both MBTA commuters and Amtrak inner city trains.

MBTA Chairman R. L. Foster noted the significance of both the transit project itself and the fact for the first time in the Authority's history, the prime contractor is a minority-owned firm. The president of Eastern Seaboard Engineering Corporation, Paul S. James, was present for the ceremony observing the start of his $460,530 contract for the removal of the four existing railroad tracks in the Southwest Corridor between Forest Hills and Back Bay Station.

Chairman Foster cited the numerous economic and social benefits of the Southwest Corridor Project and its related development plan. He called it "an outstanding example of comprehensive planning and investment for the purpose of urban revitalization," noting that the total capital investment in the area will eventually total more than two billion dollars.

Both the transit project and the Authority's Minority Business Enterprise efforts were lauded by the panel of speakers, which included Transportation Secretary Barry M. Locke, MBTA Director Richard Taylor, and Boston Redevelopment Authority Director Robert Ryan.

POSTMASTER OFFERS TIPS ON PRIORITY MAIL

One of the lesser-known, but very effective, package delivery services offered by the U. S. Postal Service is Priority Mail, according to Boston Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan.

"When you send a package by Priority Mail, it is separated from the regular parcel mail stream and treated as First-Class Mail," said Postmaster Sullivan. "If the destination is nearby, the package receives expedited surface transportation. For all other places in the U. S. Priority Mail packages go by air," he said.

As a result, more than 35 percent of Priority Mail packages are delivered the next day, and over 90 percent are delivered within three days. The Postmaster explained that the cost for a small package is not much more than Parcel Post, and about one-third the cost of overnight services.

For example, a one-pound package sent from Boston to Los Angeles costs only $2.25. A five-pound package mailed coast-to-coast costs only $4.83.

Another advantage, says Postmaster Sullivan, is that Priority Mail delivers packages everywhere in the United States unlike competitive parcel services which cannot deliver to every address in the country. Through International agreements with over 160 countries, packages can be delivered anywhere in the world that mail is delivered. Packages for foreign countries must specify "Airmail," however.

A wide variety of options such as insurance, C.O.D., and Special Delivery are available for use with Priority Mail.

The Postmaster urged package mailers to specify Priority Mail the next time they have packages that need prompt delivery, but don't justify the high cost of overnight service.

"Of course, if you have a package that has to get there overnight, then Express Mail is probably your answer," the Postmaster pointed out. "And if cost is the major consideration, then the best buy is Parcel Post, especially for heavier packages going long distances."

THEATRE DISTRICT FESTIVAL

Another First For Cultural Affairs.

The past and future of Boston's Theatre District was on display Sunday December 16, when the public was invited to explore the historic district through walking tours, receptions, and other special events.

From 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs provided visitors to the Theatre District with brochures to guide them on a walking tour through the various historic landmarks. The brochures were available at Park Street and Boylston MBTA locations and at Downtown Crossing. Restaurants and retail outlets along the route offered special discounts to visitors and holiday entertainment was provided.

The future of the Theatre District will be represented by the first public presentation of Ben Thompson's concept for revitalization of the district. There was a multimedia presentation in the lobby of the Savoy Theatre at 539 Washington Street.

The flavor of Boston's theatrical past was presented by theatre historian William Morris Hunt with tours of the Shubert Theatre on Tremont Street.

On display in the Wilbur Theatre lobby was a pictorial essay of Boston's theatres combining the Harvard Theatre Collection, the Jackson Theatre Collection and the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities.

At 5:30 p.m., the public was invited to the Savoy Theatre for a preview presentation of the television commercial, "There's No Boston Like Show Boston," produced by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs. A reception for the national and local celebrities who appear in the film ended the day's activities. All events were free.

"THERE'S NO BOSTON LIKE SHOW BOSTON"

Actors, rock stars, sports celebrities, dancers, singers, and media personalities joined together to proclaim, "There's No Boston Like Show Boston."

The occasion was the filming of a television commercial, coordinated by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs, spotlighting the activities of Boston's Theatre District which is scheduled to receive a major revitalization.

On Sunday, December 16, at 5:30 p.m., the public was invited to a special preview presentation of the commercial at the Savoy Theatre, 539 Washington Street, Boston.

The use of the theme song, "There's No Business Like Show Business," marked the first and only time that composer Irving Berlin has allowed any of his tunes to be used for any commercial purpose.

Among those appearing in the privately funded film were actors Richard Chamberlain and Betsey Palmer; Ann Marie Sarazin and Elaine Bauer of the Boston Ballet; New England Patriot "Sugar Bear" Hamilton; Sacks Treatre President A. Alan Freidberg; former Boston Celtics star, John Havlicek; the cast of "Ain't Misbehavin'" and "This End Up"; rock stars James Montgomery and Peter Wolf; television personalities Sonya Hamlin, Robin Young, Marty Sender, and David Brudnoy; Boston Phoenix publisher Stephen Mindich; Real Paper theatre critic Arthur Friedman.

According to OCA Director Helen Rees, the film was conceived as one aspect of a major promotional campaign for the Theatre District revitalization, which will include renovation of existing theatres, construction of new facilities, and a marketing study on audience development.

New Bilingual Education Program

New Program Expected to Improve Bilingual Education in Boston Schools.

Boston Public School students with limited ability to speak and understand English are expected to achieve better in both language and academics as the result of a new program designed to improve bilingual services adopted by the Boston School Committee.

The committee adopted such a plan at its meeting on November 30, but the action was almost lost to public attention in the shadows of the committee's long-awaited adoption of the United Facilities Plan proposing to close several Boston schools.

The new plan is known as the Voluntary Lau Compliance Plan, named for the Lau vs. Nichols case of 1974 before the U.S. Supreme Court in which the court held that the San Francisco school system, a recipient of federal funds, failed to provide English language instruction to students of Chinese ancestry and thus was in violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Boston's Voluntary Lau Compliance Plan outlines procedures for public schools to follow in the placement of students with limited ability to speak English into appropriate programs based on regulations of the Office of Civil Rights.

Schools will receive clear guidelines regarding the courses to be taught in English and those to be taught in the native language of the student. Boston already has bilingual programs in nine languages: Spanish, Chinese, Italian, Cape Verdean, Greek, Portuguese, Haitian French, Vietnamese, and Russian.

Bilingual guidance services will be improved, as will occupational and vocational education programs for students with limited proficiency in English. Language testing based on the Lau Plan also will strengthen the evaluation process for students with special needs, such as those who are physically handicapped.

Betsy Tregar, acting coordinator of Boston's Lau Unit, explains: "Students in bilingual programs will be taught their basic academic subjects in the native language and be integrated with English-speaking students for nonacademic subjects such as music, art, physical education, etc. Where space is available, English-speaking students in a standard curriculum program, who also speak the second appropriate language, will be able to choose electives in the bilingual program."

MBTA ASKS U.S. AID FOR NEW BUSES, VANS

The MBTA Board of Directors, on December 3, authorized the filing of a $36,796,800 capital grant application with the Urban Mass Transportation Administration toward the purchase of 300 buses with wheelchair accessibility and 122 vans for "The Ride" over the next three years.

The filing of the federal aid application at this time, according to Robert L. Foster, chairman and chief executive officer, will permit the authority to continue its bus replacement program so that each spring, starting in 1981, 100 new buses can be added to the fleet. He pointed out that under an existing grant, the authority, next spring, will take delivery on 127 new transit buses.

Lift-equipped vans for The Ride would be delivered at the rate of thirty in 1981; fifty in 1982; and forty-two in 1983. Communication equipment would be installed in the vans.

The estimated total cost of the buses and vans with spare parts is $45,996,000. Local share funding would be by bond issues authorized by the General Court.

Awards Sign Contract

The MBTA Board of Directors today approved a $249,547.20 contract award to Demco Sign Co., Inc., of Boston, for furnishing and installing traffic control, regulatory and transit user information signs within the Red Line's new Braintree Station Complex. In addition, the contractor will furnish and install variable message indicator signs on Route 3 and local streets to direct vehicular traffic to the station and 1,200-car parking garage.

Demco's bid was the lower of two bids publicly opened on November 8.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts based on the following information:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT
Purchasing Division
Drugs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 19, 1977, your Honor approved a letter to award contracts to several companies for furnishing drugs to the various departments from July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978, inclusive, as a result of publicly opened bids on June 15, 1977.

The award of a contract for one company was inadvertently omitted. Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated August 16, 1977, to include the award of a contract to Picker Corporation.

The approximate total of contract will be $3,497.75 — net.

Respectfully,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Orthopedic Supplies, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 26, 1978, your Honor approved a letter to award contracts to several companies for furnishing orthopedic instrumentation supplies and accessories to the Department of Health and Hospitals as a result of publicly opened bids on May 17, 1978.

The amount of the contract for one of the companies, Zimmer, U.S.A., read $12,000, net thirty. Due to increased orthopedic surgery at the Boston City Hospital, permission is requested to amend the original letter dated June 22, 1978, to have the amount of the contract for this company read $22,000, net thirty days.

Respectfully,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Repairing Tubs

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request your Honor's permission to amend, without advertising, the city's contract with Charles Lee Disposal, Inc., 1 Ellery Street, South Boston, for performing work of repairing steel rubbish and laundry tubs under the care of Boston City Hospital for the period October 3, 1978, through June 30, 1979, for an amount not to exceed $4,500. The request for bid was advertised in the City Record of September 18, 1978, and awarded on November 1, 1978.

This amendment shall increase the contract sum by an additional $4,000, resulting in a total liability to the city under this contract, so amended to an amount not to exceed $8,500. Because of the age and condition of the tubs and the number of accidents that have occurred, more repairs than anticipated have been required since the original estimate was made in September, 1978.

Therefore, because of the above reason and also because Charles Lee Disposal, Inc., has provided prompt and excellent service in the past, and because in my opinion the cost is reasonable, I recommend approval of this amendment.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.
Tabulating Paper

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 27, 1978, your Honor approved the award of a contract to Burroughs Corporation, 1776 Heritage Drive, North Quincy, Mass. 02171, on Proposal 427, for furnishing stock tabulating paper to the various city departments from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979.

Burroughs Corporation has informed me that, due to paper shortages resulting from prolonged paper strikes, it cannot continue to furnish stock tabulating paper at the contract price. It has requested a price increase on Item 1 of this proposal from $5.68 per M to 7.40 per M, for the undelivered balance of approximately 50 percent of the estimated quantity.

I have inquired of other competitive bidders, and I am satisfied that the price increase is justified and the cost is reasonable.

Therefore your approval is requested to amend the contract with this company to have the amount to read not to exceed $47,694 an increase of $4,300, above the present contract amount of $43,394.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Two copies of the general bid shall be filed with the Awarding Authority, at the office designated above, accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or in the form of a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the City of Boston in the sum of 5 percent of value (not to be less than $100, not to exceed $50,000). One copy of the general bid will be filed with the City Auditor. The general bids shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. In addition, no general bid filed by the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders may be withdrawn prior to execution and delivery of the general contract, unless no award has been made upon expiration of the prescribed time therefor.

The successful bidder will be required to provide insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law, General Laws (Ter. Ed.), chapter 152, to all persons to be employed under the contract, and sufficient proof of compliance with the foregoing stipulation will be required before commencing performance of this contract.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and the Housing and Urban Development Department, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for the employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or national origin.

The Building Commissioner is allowing a twenty-one-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting within seven (7) days after the signing of the Mayor's award.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

The contractor's attention is called to XXIV, Protection of the Public. These measures, which appear in the contract, are of two general types: revisions to the demolition contract specifications, and modifications or additions to the Clearance of Unsafe Buildings Program itself.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246) IF APPLICABLE.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization, if applicable.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 25 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as requested by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. A section 3 affirmative action plan consists of tables AAP-1 to AAP-3 and forms AAP-1 and AAP-2 and can be found at

POLICE DEPARTMENT INITIATES NEW PROGRAM

The Boston Police Department has launched a new program for neighborhood responsive policing on December 3, in District 4, Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has announced.

The program has three basic elements:

1. The assignment of individual officers to work in specified neighborhoods.
2. The creation of citizen/police panels to identify neighborhood priorities and concerns.
3. The use of uncommitted patrol time by officers to work on neighborhood priorities and concerns.

This innovative plan has been developed in response to Mayor Kevin H. White's desire to provide for a more effective and efficient deployment of police resources. Mayor White will closely monitor this program in order to determine whether this plan can be successfully implemented throughout the entire City of Boston.

The elements of the program are designed to permit officers to develop an identity with neighborhoods and neighborhood residents to know their police officers; to address the problem of the large number of repeat calls for services that involve no criminal activity; and to concentrate police effort on neighborhood problems. The present system tends to keep officers moving from one part of the district to another, handling a constant stream of isolated incidents.

District 4 is made up of the Back Bay, Kenmore Square, East Fens and the West Fens in the Fenway, and the South End.

The new program is the result of a two-year planning effort by the Boston Police Department and the Boston-Fenway Program, Inc., a nonprofit organization of twelve of the major institutions in the Back Bay Fens.

As part of the program development, an intensive analysis has been made of the total demand for police services. The analysis shows that 85 percent of all calls for police service involve no criminal activity and approximately 87 percent are repeat calls. The basic elements of the Neighborhood Responsive Policing Program seek to reduce the incidence of repeat calls by treating the broader problems in neighborhoods rather than simply responding to individual calls as if they were isolated events.

All the officers in District 4 are involved in the program in one of two ways. Sixty of the officers have chosen to be assigned to Neighborhood Response Units which will spend their working time within one of four quadrants within the district. These quadrants replace the thirteen fragmented patrol sectors which have previously existed, and the quadrant boundaries, unlike the old sectors, respect neighborhood boundaries.

The remaining ninety patrol officers in District 4 have chosen to be assigned to Rapid Response Units which have district-wide responsibility to assure that there are no delays in the response to emergency calls. Analysis and tests over the last two years show that the new system will not increase the time required to respond to calls.

The department, in designing the new program, has taken the best elements of its highly successful team-policing programs, first implemented in District 15, Charlestown, and applied them to delivery of police services in the most active police district in the city.

Officers in Neighborhood Response Units will participate in the citizen/police panels to be created in individual neighborhoods as the second element in the program. (Three panels are already operating in the East Fens, West Fens, and St. Botolph Street neighborhoods.)

At each panel meeting, neighborhood crime statistics are reviewed; citizen members alert officers to specific concerns and important problems for residents; citizens and officers agree on priorities for joint action; and at the next meeting, the results of the joint action are reviewed.

The third element in the program is the use of uncommitted time by officers to focus on the priorities and problems identified by the panels. This is an extension of the existing directed patrol strategy in District 4. Directed patrol activities have previously been limited to crime problems. They will now be extended to include those social problems in neighborhoods which are also the responsibility of the police and which are the basic cause of a larger proportion of repeat calls.

The combination of the three elements will enable officers in Neighborhood Response Units to acquire knowledge and understanding of their assigned neighborhoods and to develop rapport with citizens and residents necessary to combat problems effectively.

The department has arranged in-service training sessions for 911 operators and dispatchers so they can work effectively within the new District 4 structure. The officers who have volunteered for Neighborhood Response Units have also attended training sessions on the overall plan and on the workings of the panel process.

Other changes in the District 4 structure include an expansion of the duties and responsibilities of supervising officers to assure effectiveness of neighborhood units; new roles and expanded use of detectives in the immediate investigation of crimes; and expanded functions for the motorcycle and mounted patrol officers in the district.

Development of the program has been funded by the Boston-Fenway Program* with grants from the Cabot Corporation Foundation, Eaton Foundation, Ford Foundation, Godfrey M. Hymans Trust, and the Permanent Charity Fund.

The program has been developed under the general supervision of Deputy Superintendent James J. MacDonald, commanding officer of Area C which includes District 4, and Captain James N. McDonald, District 4 commanding officer. Lt. William Bratton, duty supervisor of District 4, is director of the program, assisted by Ms. Julie Rossborough, program coordinator.

The statistical analysis needed for program development and continued evaluation of public meetings and the panel process is being carried out by the Northeastern University Center for Applied Social Research under the general direction of Prof. William Bowers. The direct costs of this are borne by the Boston-Fenway Program, and Northeastern University has made substantial contributions of computer time and other services.

The participating institutions in the Boston-Fenway Program are Boston State College, Boston University, Wheelock college, Northeastern University, Wentworth Institute of Technology, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, the Boston Symphony Orchestra, YMCA, Forsyth Dental Center, Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, the Museum of Fine Arts, and the Cotting School for Handicapped Children.

BRA APPROVES "CARD" PROGRAM

The Boston Redevelopment Authority has approved preparation of commercial area revitalization district (CARD) designation for the North Station area, Dorchester Lower Mills, and the Museum of Fine Arts/Huntington Avenue area.

CARD or commercial area revitalization district, is a state-sponsored program of development incentives which can help local businessmen obtain financing for capital improvements that were formerly available only to industrial enterprises.

Under CARD, local businessmen interested in expanding are eligible for financing through tax-exempt bonds issued by the Boston Industrial Financing Agency. Such bonds mean that the businessmen can finance expansion with mortgage money that is at least two or perhaps three percentage points lower than a conventional bank mortgage.

In the North Station area, the CARD designation is a first step in the BRA's long-range program to encourage revitalization of that section of downtown. CARD program benefits would be useful in supporting the rehabilitation efforts of private property owners and tenants of the Bulfinch Triangle on Canal Street.

The CARD proposed for Dorchester Lower Mills is an outgrowth of a development strategy proposed to the city by the consulting firm, Harrington, Keefe and Schork. Benefits available through CARD would serve as a major new tool for private investment and as an integral part of the funding mechanism for resume of the Baker Milk Chocolate complex, as well as the rehabilitation of the branch library building.

CARD in the museum area would be utilized to construct a major parking facility for the Museum of Fine Arts and adjacent commercial developments, possible a motel or restaurant.

Mayor Kevin H. White said, "CARD provides us with a valuable tool for encouraging economic growth. These most recent CARD plans fit in with ongoing plans to revitalize commercial areas throughout the city. I am hopeful that businessmen will soon benefit from this program."

BRA Director Robert J. Ryan said, "CARD can be particularly helpful in promoting economic growth at a time when interest rates are so high that businesses are holding back on expansion plans.

"I am especially pleased that CARD is serving as a follow-up on plans we announced earlier in the year for both the North Station area and Dorchester Lower Mills. I am confident CARD will be a mechanism through which we can begin to implement these plans."

CARD plans have already been approved for Museum Wharf and West Broadway, South Boston; Grove Hall and Dudley Station, Roxbury; Fields Corner and Bayside Mall, Dorchester; Cleary Square, Hyde Park; and Roslindale Square, Roslindale.

The three plans approved by the BRA Board will now be submitted to the City Council. If approved by the City Council, the plans are then submitted to the state's Department of Community Affairs. Approval is granted if the local agency, in this case the BRA, presents a plan which is aimed at avoiding or correcting deterioration of a predominantly commercial area.

RENTAL HOUSING ASSOCIATION REPORT

Chapter 710 of the Acts of 1979, will govern the acceptance of families with children in developments with 100 or more apartments when it becomes effective on February 7, 1980. This new law amends subsection 11 of section 4 of Chapter 151B of the General Laws, which makes it unlawful for the owner or agent of rental property to discriminate. As a result of this amendment, such large development will be exempt if the number of children who reside in the development equal one-half of the number of units. In such developments, families with children "may be restricted to specific types of apartments or buildings." This exemption does not apply to publicly assisted or subsidized developments for the elderly or handicapped, where, under the present law, the owner or agent may restrict the tenancy. The new law defines a child as a person sixteen years of age or less, and it does not permit the eviction of any present tenant. Credit for this one goes to Representative Timothy Bassett (D-Lynn). RHA Director Gary Jennison also deserves a vote of thanks for his work on this measure.

H. 4110, which would have required the owner/manager of rental housing to provide tenants with 24-hour advance notice of entry into an apartment, was engrossed by both the House and the Senate during the closing moments of the session. Labeled by Representative John Businger (D-Brookline), the sponsor along with Senator Alan Sisitsky (D-Springfield), as the "tenant right of privacy bill," this measure was pocket vetoed by Governor King.

The Department of Public Health has finally promulgated the new revision of Article II of the State Sanitary Code. There are no substantive changes in this new version; it was only put into the new form for all state regulations. RHA is reactivating efforts to seek substantive changes in this regulation.

S. 1608, the so-called good cause eviction bill, which was given a favorable report by the Urban Affairs Committee in April, died at prorogation.

MAYOR MEETS WITH MBTA ADVISORY BOARD

Mayor Kevin H. White, on Dec 14, proposed a compromise solution to the current impasse between the MBTA Advisory Board and the "T" management over a $16 million supplemental budget request now before the Advisory Board.

The plan, which was developed by Mayor White after private negotiations over the past three weeks with state leaders, calls for a four percent cap, paralleling the state's property tax cap, on all annual contributions from MBTA member communities.

The proposal seeks further that any increase over the 1978 level of local property tax levies resulting from approval of the supplement now before the board should be split between the Advisory Board communities and the state.

And Mayor White proposed the Governor appoint a special task force composed of business and communities leaders to recommend funding and management reforms that the MBTA could institute to prevent a budget over-run situation in the future.

Mayor White's plan, which was presented recently to the King Administration, was the subject of discussion by the MBTA Advisory Board budget committee and the full Board at a special meeting called by Mayor White, the Board's chairman, on Monday December 17.

The $16 million supplemental increase is in addition to the $20 million extra the Board passed this year for the MBTA's $265 million 1978 operating budget, and would bring total 1979 spending at the MBTA to $301 million.

Possible members of a special MBTA task force proposed by Mayor White are:

Richard D. Hill, Chairman of the Board, First National Bank;

William E. Tilburg, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Jordan Marsh Co;

Herbert Roth, Chairman and President, LFE Corp. and President, Jobs for Mass;

Arian Altschuler, former Secretary of Transportation and presently at MIT;

Francis B. Gummere, Vice-President, Wm. E. Filenes & Sons; and

George McCarthy, regional Representative for the U.S. Secretary of Transportation.

PARKING PROCEDURES DURING SNOW EMERGENCIES

Traffic and Parking Commissioner Emily Lloyd has announced winter parking regulations for declared snow emergencies for the City of Boston.

This year parking will be prohibited on the even-numbered side of streets during snow emergencies. The regulation will remain in effect, on a twenty-four hour basis until the emergency is officially lifted.

The New England Parking Association will assist Boston residents during declared snow emergencies by allowing patrons to park overnight in participating facilities at the cost of $1 from 6 p.m. to 8 a.m. Posted rates will apply after 8 a.m. and those using the facility must have a resident parking sticker or an other form of identification verifying Boston residence. The program will go into effect on December 15.

The even-numbered regulation does not apply where parking is already prohibited on one or both sides of the street; along divided highways (such as Commonwealth Avenue); in areas where angle parking is permitted; and in municipal off-street parking areas.

"The decision to restrict parking during legitimate snow emergencies is an effort both to ensure the health and safety of the city's residents, and to make certain that there will be parking spaces available for residents when there is no snow emergency," Commissioner Lloyd explained.

Fines for non-compliance with the snow emergency regulations are $15 for all sections of the city.

TO OUR READERS

Effective January 1, 1980, the cost of the City Record will be increased to $8.00 per year. The price change is made necessary due to increases in the cost of labor, materials, mailing, and other services that involve the publishing and distribution of the paper. Single issues will cost twenty cents.

NEW CONTRACT MANUAL AVAILABLE

The Law Department has announced the publication and distribution to all departments of the City's first manual of contract procedure. According to Joseph D. Alviani, Corporation Counsel, "The contract manual is an attempt to standardize and simplify the manner in which the city and county enter into contractual relationships and thereby expedite the initiation, preparation, processing, and execution of at least the more routine types of contracts. While the manual does not purport to address all contract questions, we believe it will be a useful reference guide for most purposes.

"It is intended that this manual of procedure serve (1) to inform department heads generally of the contract process and their legal responsibilities with respect to initiating and approving contracts; and (2) to provide detailed guidelines for those individuals in each department directly involved in the actual preparation and processing of contracts," Mr. Alviani emphasized.

An orientation session on the use and implementation of the contract manual was held for all departments and staff agencies on December 13, 1979. Response to the publication of the manual has been enthusiastic.

Additional copies of the manual are available by calling the Law Department at 725-4052.

MDC URGES: REDUCE WATER COSTS

Metropolitan District Commissioner Guy A. Carbone, in an effort to encourage cities and towns using MDC water to reduce leakage in their local water systems, has suggested he would be willing to discuss and perhaps seek legislation reducing water costs to communities successful in such projects.

At a meeting called by Commissioner Carbone at Newton City Hall, he urged representatives of more than 40 cities and towns buying MDC water to conduct leak reduction programs. It was during an informal speech to the representatives of the water using communities that he made the suggestion of a price reduction. Most cities and towns currently using MDC water pay at a rate of $240 per million gallons. He also pointed out that Governor King recently signed into law Chapter 805 of the Acts of 1979, which provides $10 million in state financial assistance to cities, towns, and water districts for leakage studies, repairs, and rehabilitation of their systems.

Commissioner Carbone, noting the MDC water delivery system loses no more than three to four percent of its own water through leakage, insisted the same cannot be claimed by MDC water using communities. He said he was "shocked" to find that one community has 37 percent of its water unaccounted for. He urged the community representatives to check their meters, pipes, and all other facets of their local delivery systems in an effort to locate leakages and losses, pointing out the distinct possibilities of shortages in the next few years. He reiterated a previous stand that the MDC will explore every effort to increase its water supply from eastern Massachusetts. Meanwhile, the Environmental Impact Report on Northfield project in which water would be drawn from the Connecticut River to supply the Greater Boston area will continue.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts based on the following information:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT
Purchasing Division

Body Armor

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 27, 1978, your Honor approved a letter to award contracts to two companies for furnishing body armor to the Police Department as a result of publicly opened bids of September 20, 1978.

The purchasing copy of the bid of AAA Police Supply was received late at Purchasing but on time at the Auditing Department.

Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated October 31, 1978, to have the award to AAA Police Supply read $8,141.75, — net, which appeared on the Auditor's copy of bid.

Respectfully,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Program Products

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On December 29, 1978, your Honor approved a letter dated December 18, 1978, to award a contract to International Business Machines Corporation (IBM), Armonk, New York, and with local offices at 610 Lincoln Street, Waltham, Mass., for a license to use program products and specially developed IBM programs for the period from July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979.

The amount of the award letter read $47,568, which was incorrect.

Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated December 18, 1978, to read $15,563, the correct amount of the contract.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Data Processing Machines

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On January 3, 1979, your Honor approved a letter to award a contract to International Business Machines Corporation for the rental and maintenance of previously installed data processing machines for various city departments for the period from July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979. The amount of the original contract, No. 912, was not to exceed $129,984.

Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated December 18, 1978, and the contract to have the amount of the contract not to exceed $140,592.

This is necessary because of the rental and maintenance of eight additional data processing machines required for the efficient operation of the Data Processing Unit of the Administrative Services Department.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Hay and Grain

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 19, 1979, your Honor approved a letter to award a contract to Bio Medic Service Center, Inc., and orders to Mansfield Feed & Farm Supply, Inc.

Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated April 12, 1979, to have the awards for furnishing hay and grain to the Police Department to the following-named companies as a result of publicly opened bids of April 6, 1979.

Contract for Mansfield Feed & Farm Supply, Inc., $98,654, less 2 percent discount, time of payment; order for Bio Medic Service, Inc., $360, net thirty days.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT Laboratory Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request your Honor's permission to amend, without advertising, the city's contract with Smith Kline Clinical Laboratories Inc., 343 Winter Street, Waltham, Boston Medical Laboratory, Inc., 19 Bay State Road, and Clin-Chem Laboratories, Inc., 1106 Commonwealth Avenue, under which contract the above corporations have agreed to perform, for the period July 1, 1978, through June 30 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $104,000.

This amendment shall increase the contract sum by $170,000, increasing the city's total liability under the contract, as so amended, to an amount not to exceed $274,000. The increase is occasioned by the utilization of tests performed by outside laboratories not foreseen when the contract was originally processed, periodic vacancies in our Biochemistry Laboratory, and equipment breakdowns.

Therefore, because of the above-stated facts, and because the cost, in my opinion is reasonable, your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to amend this contract, without advertising, under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

Advertising Services

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby request your Honor's permission to amend the city's contract with Allied Advertising Agency, Inc., 830 Statler Office Building, under which said company has been providing advertising agency services to the Department of Health and Hospitals for the purpose of facilitating the recruitment of nurses for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $34,000.

This amendment shall increase the contract price by a sum not to exceed $25,626.29, and it shall increase the total cost of this contract to a sum not to exceed $59,626.29. This amendment shall further change the contract by providing that Allied Advertising shall also render advertising services for the recruitment of non-nursing personnel for the department.

The extent of advertising during the contract period was greater than originally anticipated and was due, in large part, to the continuing shortage of qualified nurses. In order to secure adequate staffing to maintain a minimal level of patient care at Boston City Hospital, Long Island Chronic Disease Hospital, and Mattapan Chronic Disease Hospital, particularly in specialty areas where vacancies increased during the winter and spring months, advertisements were placed more frequently and in more attractive formats. The number of publications in which the advertisements appeared also increased so as to reach more Boston communities. Along with other recruitment methods, advertising has been necessary to be able to obtain needed nursing personnel in this highly competitive area.

Another factor affecting the contract amount was the increase from $2.85 to $3.08 in the line rate charged by the Boston Globe, where most of the advertisement were placed, in August, 1977.

The increase in contract amount also resulted from the use of Allied Advertising's services in the recruitment of non-nursing personnel after in-house recruitment for qualified candidates had been exhausted. The price for these services reflects the actual costs of advertising which, for this portion of the contract, amounted to $16,450.

Therefore, inasmuch as the services were rendered for the purposes of obtaining essential personnel, as the cost, in our opinion, is reasonable and in view of the above, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract under the terms stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On October 1, 1977, the Assessing Department entered into a contract which was approved by your Honor on December 7, 1977, and awarded without public advertising with the law firm of Gilman, McLaughlin and Hanrahan, 10 Post Office Square, Boston, Mass., for legal services in representing the City of Boston and its offices with respect to proceedings at the Appellate Tax Board and in the courts relating to disproportionate taxation. This contract is for the period of October 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $100,000.

Due to the nature of the litigation, the contractor has been required to render more legal services than anticipated in the terms of the original contract. Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by providing for the extra services and by increasing the liability of the city under this contract by $100,000. The additional compensation to the contractor will be payable at the same rate specified in the terms of the original contract, which I have determined to be reasonable. The cost of the contract as amended shall not exceed $200,000.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed and the need for the continued services of the firm of Gilman, McLaughlin and Hanrahan, who have great expertise in this area of law, advertising for bids would serve no useful public purpose.

Very truly yours,
Barbara G. Cameron,
Acting Commissioner.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Day Care Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am hereby respectfully requesting your Honor's permission to amend an award letter with Escuelita Agueybana, d/b/a Inquilinos Boricuas en Accion, a corporation, located at 1 Paseo Boriquen, Boston, Mass., which was approved by you on May 19, 1978.

The original amount of the award letter was $10,000, and the amended award letter will increase the grant by $10,000. The total amended amount will not exceed $20,000. Payment for this contract will be made from fourth-year funds of the Community Development Block Grant. The period of this will remain from September 1, 1978, to August 31, 1979.

The increase of $10,000 is due to the following: In putting together the Community Development application for fiscal year 79, the Office of Program Development erroneously listed Escuelita Agueybana for $10,000. It should have been listed for $20,000, as it is a continuation of a day care program that was funded by the city in fiscal year 78 for $20,000. This amended award letter is simply correcting an error made on the part of the city last spring.

Under the terms of the agreement, Escuelita Agueybana, d/b/a Inquilinos Boricuas en Accion, Inc. will continue to conduct a bilingual, bicultural, day care program which will reinforce the child's verbal and comprehension skills both in English and Spanish.

On the basis of Escuelita Agueybana's expertise and experience to deliver day care services for the South End community and the reasonable cost of these services, I recommend that the award letter between the city and Escuelita Agueybana be amended at this time. Moreover it is my view that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
Katharine D. Kane,
Deputy Mayor.

Security Service

I am hereby requesting your Honor's permission to amend an award letter approved by you on January 9, 1979, with the Washington Hill Community Association, Inc., located at 5 Beechland Street, Roslindale, for the provision of administrative services (i.e. information/referral, educational programs, recreational programs, etc.) for the association area at the cost not to exceed $20,000, during the period of October 15, 1978, through October 14, 1979.

The Washington Hill Community Association, Inc., was allocated $80,000 of fourth-year funds of Community Development Block Grant to provide administrative services and security services. At the time of the writing of the initial award letter, only the administrative services portion of the program ($20,000) had received the required federal clearances. Recently, I received notification from the Office of Program Development that security portion of the program ($60,000) received all necessary federal clearance. Therefore, I am requesting that initial award letter be amended to include the $60,000 for the provision of security services bringing the total compensation of the contractor to $80,000.

The security services will initially be provided by an outside security agency for residents of Washington-Beech Development. Immediately upon delivery of their services, the agency will begin the process of hiring local individuals as employees of the security agency to work in the development. One of four security positions will continue to be filled by a staff member of the security agency. His function will be to provide security services on one of the regular shifts, along with providing ongoing training and supervision for all local personnel.

Due to the unique circumstances outlined above, the professional nature of the services, the demonstrated expertise of the contractor, and the reasonable cost of the services, I recommend that the initial award letter be amended to include security services.

Sincerely,
Katharine D. Kane,
Deputy Mayor.

EEPA

Youth Training Projects Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend an award letter for the Ecumenical Social Action Committee, Inc. (ESAC), fiscal agent for Oficina Hispana, 124 Amory Street, Roxbury, dated September 8, 1978, which you approved September 29, 1978.

The purpose of the amendment is to correct the effective dates stated in the original award letter. The new effective dates should be April 2, 1979, through February 9, 1980. The reason for this change is that this project was originally funded in the fall; had been rendered inactive by an EEPA hiring freeze; and has just been reactivated.

Whereas all other terms of the original award letter are correct (total allocation, $134,000), approval of this amendment will enable EEPA to execute the contract as planned.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
EEPA Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Joanne Feinberg, 24 Dimick Street, Somerville. The purpose of the amendment is to retain the contractor through February for work on the expanded evaluation of the FY '78 Summer Program for Economically Disadvantaged Youth (SPEDY). This contractor has performed in an outstanding manner working on the preliminary data gathering and analysis. The amendment will extend the award from December 1, 1978, through February 28, 1979, and increase the amount of the award by $1,650. This request is retroactive because the 78 1-a approval form was misplaced en route to the EEPA Contracts Office.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will become effective for the period June 12, 1978, through February 28, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $6,050. The contractor will be compensated at the rate of $40 per diem.

Because this is a negotiated contract for the extension of professional services, at a reasonable rate, from a contractor of proven effectiveness; no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request your approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Self Development Group, Inc., a nonprofit organization, with offices at 120 Tremont Street, Boston, for the purpose of performing continued consulting work for the Youth Services Department of EEPA. Under the terms of the amendment, the contractor will complete its design and development of a program for juvenile offenders who are eligible for The Boston Plan, Project YES.

The amendment will increase the contract cost by $1,200, for a new total amount not to exceed $6,000. The contract will be extended by two weeks, to become effective for the period January 8, 1979, to March 16, 1979. Funds for the operation of the contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93.

As this is a negotiated contract for the continued provision of professional services at a reasonable rate, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted in the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with the Cardinal Cushing Center, 1375 Washington Street, Boston. The purpose of the amendment is to increase the total budget amount by $10,000 to provide a salary increase to training instructors who have not received any raises in four years. These salary increases could not be included in the original budget because there were insufficient funds prior to this time. Now that lag funds have been identified for this purpose, the amendment will allow the contractor to continue to operate the English as a Second Language (ESL) Program for 244 Hispanic CETA trainees selected from a CETA-designated segment of the economically disadvantaged citizens of Boston.

The amendment will increase the contract cost by $10,000 to a total not to exceed $214,000. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1978, through September 30, 1979. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under Title I of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, as amended, P.L. 93-203, et seq.

As this award is for the continued operation of a program, at a reasonable cost, by a contractor of proven effectiveness, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids by advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with the St. Jude Foundation, 15 Woodside Avenue, Jamaica Plain, for the purpose of continuing Project Upgrade. Under the terms of the amendment, the contractor will continue to employ and train five CETA Public Service Employment (PSE) participants to rehabilitate the St. Jude Halfway Home for Alcoholic Men. The PSE participants will repair property and living quarters at the Halfway Home. The number of participants will be phased down as the participant reaches the eighteen-month employment limitation.

The amendment will increase the award amount by $23,000 to a total not to exceed $52,695. The contract will be extended by twelve months, to become effective for the period July 20, 1978, through January 20, 1980. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203.

As this award is for the continued operation of a program, at a reasonable cost, by a contractor of proven effectiveness, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Computer Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to retroactively amend a contract with Accudata, Inc., 31 Memorial Drive, Avon. The purpose of the amendment and the reason it is retroactive is to increase the contract amount by $1,300 to rectify an accounting error which left the contract with insufficient funds to pay the final invoice on the contract. The contractor provides data processing (computer) services in support of the Management Information System (MIS) for EEPA's employment and training programs.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will continue to be effective for the period October 1, 1976, through September 30, 1978 (no change). The contract price will be increased by $1,300 to an amount not to exceed $73,800.

Since this amendment is to pay for satisfactory services, rendered in good faith at a reasonable cost, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids in the City Record. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with National CSS, Inc., 1033 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, for the continued provision of data processing services in support of the operations of the Boston Plan, Project YES. Billing for computer services under this contract through January, 1979, averaged $12,000 per month, slightly ahead of expectations. Because of the large number of status changes for Project YES participants and additional reports required by MDRC, the project manager, recent expenses under the contract have been approximately $18,000 per month. It is anticipated expenses will remain at this level for the balance of the contract period (through September 30, 1979). This contract was initially awarded pursuant to a publicly advertised request for proposals (RFP); the amendment entails no change in the rates charged for the data processing services.

Funds for the continued operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. The contract will continue to be effective for the period January 1, 1978, through September 30, 1979 (no change). The contract amount will be increased by $198,000 to an amount not to exceed $345,000.

Because this amendment is for the continued provision of satisfactory services at the same reasonable rate, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Auditing Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Lucas Tucker, Inc., at 1616 Soldier's Field Road Extension, to allow the contractor to perform additional audit work for the Employment and Economic Policy Administration. Under the terms of the amendment, the contractor will audit three of EEPA's subcontractors to ensure compliance with Department of Labor requirements.

The amendment will extend the contract by four months, to become effective April 11, 1977, to March 31, 1979. The award will be increased by $1,000 to an amount not to exceed $44,000. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal government grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203.

Because this contract is for additional services at a reasonable rate from a contractor of proven effectiveness, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Mr. Paul E. Jurascheck, 21 Bay State Road. The purpose of the amendment is to retain the contractor through February 28, 1979, and to provide for the additional services of closing and adjusting entries on the Title VI FY '77 close-out and for correction of current payroll changes to the FY '78 CETA operations. This contract was subject to a prior-time only, amendment extending the end date from December 31, 1978, to January 19, 1979. The instant amendment will increase the contract amount by $1,000 to an amount not to exceed $7,800 and extend the contract another one and one-half months, to become effective for the period June 1, 1978, through February 28, 1979.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided for the city through a federal grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203.

As this is an award to continue the provision of professional services at a reasonable cost, no public purpose would be served by advertising for sealed bids. I therefore request approval to dispense with formal advertising in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Rental of Vehicles

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Mirak Chevrolet, d/b/a Thrifty Rent-A-Car, 75 Summer Street, Arlington. The contractor has been providing two rental vehicles to EEPA through January, 1979, to satisfy agency's motor vehicle requirements. The amendment will continue the provision of a single vehicle for an additional three-month period. This action is necessary because the used municipal vehicles acquired from the Police Department by EEPA in January require major repairs and maintenance to be fully serviceable.

The amendment will extend the contract three months, making it effective for the period February 20, 1978, through April 30, 1979. The total contract price will be increased by $1,660 to an amount not to exceed $11,000. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through grants from the federal government under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P. L. 93-203 and the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P. L. 95-93.

As this award is to continue the provision of satisfactory services at the same reasonable rate for a limited period of time, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with advertising for sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend an award letter for Mirak Chevrolet, d/b/a Thrifty Rent-A-Car, 75 Summer Street, Arlington.

The purpose of the amendment is to correct a typographical error in the total cost of the contract. The award letter dated January 25, 1979, requesting permission to amend the contract correctly requested an increase of $1,660; however, as the contract previously was executed for $11,000 the award letter should have read: "to an amount not to exceed $12,660."

Whereas, all other terms of the award letter which you approved on March 19, 1979, are correct, approval of this amendment will enable the Employment and Economic Policy Administration to execute the contract as planned.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Mr. Rent-a-Car, 339-345 North Main Street, Andover. The purpose of this amendment is to continue the rental of a "Winnebago" type camper vehicle employed in the recruitment activities of the Boston Plan, Project YES through August, 1979. The contract was originally let on the basis of a sole-source award and will continue at the same reasonable rate.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a federal grant under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P. L. 95-93. The contract will be extended six months, to become effective for the period September 1, 1978, through September 1, 1979. The contract price will be increased by $7,800 to an amount not to exceed $23,300.

Because this contract, for goods available on a sole-source basis at a reasonable cost, is consistent with federal procurement requirements for CETA programs, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in making the award pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

MANPOWER PLANNING

Day Care Program

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Aswalos House-Roxbury Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA), 246 Seaver Street, Roxbury, for the purpose of continuing the After-School and Day-Care Program. Under the terms of the amendment, the contractor will continue to employ and train five Public Service Employment participants to provide services during the school year and summer vacations to children aged six to fourteen.

The amendment will increase the award amount by $61,277 to a total not to exceed $80,000. The contract will be extended twelve months, to become effective for the period September 6, 1978, through March 4, 1980. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P. L. 93-203.

As this award is for the continued operation of a program, at a reasonable cost, by a contractor of proven effectiveness, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

CPR Training, etc.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with the American National Red Cross, Greater Boston Chapter, 99 Brookline Avenue, for the purpose of continuing the Race-for-Life Project. Under the terms of the amendment, the contractor will continue to employ and train thirteen Public Service Employment participants to provide instruction to Boston residents in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and other emergency first-aid procedures.

The amendment will increase the award amount by $77,157.56 to a total not to exceed $240,300. The contract will be extended by six months, to become effective for the period July 10, 1978, through January 4, 1980. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P. L. 93-203.

As this award is for the continued operation of a program, at a reasonable cost, by a contractor of proven effectiveness, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St. 4, s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

Community Service Expansion

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend a contract with Boston Arts Groups, Inc., 367 Boylston Street, for the purpose of continuing the Technical Expansion Project. Under the terms of the contract, the contractor will continue to employ five Public Service Employment participants to assist in the expansion of community service to Boston neighborhoods. The program included the addition of a summer music company which administered, conducted, and performed a tour of "Summerthing" at various community sites. The touring company was absorbed into the Boston Arts Group Staff for the purpose of developing new educational and community performance projects.

The amendment will increase the award amount by $28,331 to a total not to exceed $87,000. The contract will be extended six months, to become effective for the period May 22, 1978, through November 21, 1979. Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P. L. 93-203.

As this award is for the continued operation of a program, at a reasonable cost, by a contractor of proven effectiveness, no public purpose would be served by formal advertising. I therefore request approval to dispense with inviting sealed bids in the City Record, pursuant to authority granted under the City of Boston Code, St., s. 5.

Sincerely,
George Bennett,
Administrator.

MAYOR'S OFFICE Consensus Study

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with advertising in awarding a contract amendment for professional services to Consensus, Inc., of 770 Lexington Avenue, New York. The amount of the contract will be increased by $25,000 to reflect additional activities which Consensus, Inc. will perform and the period of performance will be extended until April 30, 1979. The additional activities which Consensus, Inc. will perform are listed below.

1. Baseline measurements of citizens attitudes towards police protection in selected neighborhoods chosen on the basis of an experimental design; 2. A follow-up study to measure changes in public perceptions of safety and police presence after exposure to added patrols for a period of time.

The plan for expanding the city's police patrols included an evaluation component so that future police appropriations could be based on the real impact of added patrols, as measured by police statistics, and on the basis of public perceptions of the effectiveness of the patrols.

Two bids were received in June at the time the study was first being considered. The Center for Survey Research and the Boston Urban Observatory submitted a bid to conduct 200 interviews in each wave of the study for a project cost of $25,000. Consensus, Inc. proposed to conduct 600 interviews in each wave of interviewing for the same cost. With three times as many interviews, Consensus, Inc., proposed studies in four neighborhoods rather than in one, more comparative analysis and more latitude in terms of constructing an experimental design. Under the BUO bid the unit cost per interview would have been $62.50, under the Consensus, Inc. proposal the cost would be $20.80.

In order to conduct a benchmark study, interviewing had to be before any new police patrols were deployed in July. Missing this opportunity would have made it impossible to objectively evaluate the impact of the program. For this reason, Consensus, Inc. was asked to begin work in conjunction with the contract it already had been awarded for the 1978 CD survey of citizen attitudes which provided for supplemental surveys to be provided. In order to compensate Consensus, Inc. for work under that proposal and for a follow-up measurement to be taken, we propose that Consensus, Inc.'s original contract be amended.

In its bid, Consensus, Inc. proposed the more extensive and therefore cost-effective, study program. I would therefore like to amend the original Consensus, Inc. contract as outlined above. Consensus Inc. is highly qualified for this project and based on its bid proposal I believe that public advertisement for these services would serve no useful purpose. I have reviewed these costs, and find them reasonable.

Respectfully,
Stephen P. Dunleavy,
Assistant to the Mayor.

POLICE DEPARTMENT Meals Service

Dear Mayor White:

Enclosed is a copy of your original approval of an award of a contract to Victoria Restaurant, Inc., 1024 Massachusetts Avenue, for providing meals for persons held under arrest by this department pending their arraignment in court for the period November 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

During the term of this contract the Victoria Restaurant, Inc. was required to provide more meals than was originally estimated because other restaurants refused to provide meals to us for this purpose in various police districts. This resulted in billings from Victoria Restaurant, Inc. of $1,654.50 over the original $6,000 contract price.

Therefore, in order to enable the city to complete payment on this contract I respectfully request that the amount of the contract be increased from $6,000 to $7,654.50. All other terms and conditions of the contract remain the same. I have determined that the amended contract cost is reasonable.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT Resource Study

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract between the City of Boston and the Boston Foundation, Incorporated, Boston, approved by you March 8, 1978. This request is for a downward revision in the budget. This contract with the Boston Foundation was for professional services in relation to and to be paid for from HUD Grant H-2830-RG, which has been awarded to the city's Office of Program Development to study the neighborhood resource allocation jurisdictions.

The period of this contract was from January 1, 1978, to June 30, 1978. Compensation to the Boston Foundation, Incorporated was not to exceed $20,000. However, because of a delay in the overall project timetable, the Boston Foundation, Incorporated was unable to perform all the services specified in the original contract and, as a result, incurred fewer expenses than originally anticipated. Maximum compensation shall now not exceed the amount of $10,668.36.

I respectfully request that you approve the budget revision to this contract.

Very truly yours,
Wayne A. McNamara,
Director.

CHANGING THOUGHT

I thought when I was just a lad;
T'would be such fun to be a Dad.
To never have to clean your plate;
And never go to bed till late.
To do the stupid chores I did;
It sure was tough to be a kid.
I'm older now, some wiser too;
The foot now wears another shoe.
Early, I'd like to go to bed;
I've chores that I must do instead.
On plate I leave, both bread and fat;
My diet won't let me eat that.
I had more fun when just a lad;
It sure is tough to be a Dad!

NO. 53

MAYOR STARTS FOURTH CONSECUTIVE TERM

Mayor Kevin H. White takes oath for unprecedented fourth term in Neighborhood Inaugural, January 7; Ball set for Quincy Market, January 6, 1980.

Kevin H. White will be sworn in for an unprecedented fourth term as Boston's mayor on Monday, January 7 at 10:00 a.m. at the Strand Theatre in the Uphams Corner section of Dorchester.

The historic inauguration will be preceded Sunday evening by a black tie, formal, inaugural ball set for the Quincy Market from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m.

The dual locations for inaugural-related celebrations strike the theme which has been the keystone of the White Administration over the past twelve years: Neighborhood and downtown progress in tandem, each section drawing strength and vitality from the other.

This theme serves as a point of departure for the city and the White Administration as both face the new decade.

The Inauguration

The ceremonies on Monday represent the first time that a Boston mayor has taken the oath of office in one of the city's neighborhoods. Tradition has dictated in past years that new administrations be sworn in at either Faneuil Hall or Symphony Hall.

After taking the oath of office, Mayor White will also swear in the members of the city council and school committee. The ceremony will take place before nearly 1,500 invited guests representing a broad spectrum of the city's neighborhood, religious, business, cultural, medical, academic, legal, and political interests. Members of the Massachusetts Congressional delegation, and leaders from the state government and the media will also be invited. On hand too, will be fifty high school students representing a wide cross section of Boston schools.

The ceremony will be by reserved seating only.

A brass quintet will perform works from Bach and Vivaldi throughout the ceremony.

An honor guard from the Boston Police and Fire Departments will lead the procession to the theatre stage. That group will be composed of Mayor and Mrs. White, the city council-elect, the school committee-elect, and an ecumenical representation of Boston clergy.

After the invocation, Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court Chief Justice Edward F. Hennessey will administer the oath of office to Mayor White, who will, in turn, swear-in members of the school committee and city council.

He will then present his vision of Boston for the 1980s in his inaugural address.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Strand. Later in the day, the traditional inaugural luncheon for the new city council and school committee will be hosted by Mayor White at Anthony's Pier 4 restaurant.

The Inaugural Ball

In 1967, Kevin White was elected to his first term as Boston's mayor. That year, he sponsored the first mayoral inaugural ball in the city's history for 5,000 guests at the Sheraton Boston Hotel.

This year, in keeping with the historic first of Kevin White's becoming Boston's first, four-term mayor, an inaugural ball is again planned.

Peggy Dray, a noted social function planner, has volunteered to coordinate this year's event just as she developed the 1967 celebration. The ball, a black tie, champagne formal, will be financed completely from Mayor White's campaign funds.

More than 6,000 invitations will be sent out for an evening of dancing and entertainment throughout the main market building at Quincy Market Place. Admittance to the ball is by invitation only.

Merchants at the Market building have agreed to close one hour earlier than their customary 6:00 p.m. Sunday closing time to allow preparations to begin for the festivities. The dancing will begin at 9:00 p.m. The entertainment ranges from jazz to disco to the big band sound in an effort to meet every musical taste.

The budget for the inaugural ball is not expected to exceed $20,000 from campaign funds.

The overall coordinator for the celebration is Mariellen Norris. The inaugural ceremony is being coordinated by Patricia Barry, the inaugural ball by Peggy Dray.

TO OUR READERS

Effective January 1, 1980, the cost of the City Record will be increased to $8.00 per year. The price change is made necessary due to increases in the cost of labor, materials, mailing, and other services that involve the publishing and distribution of the paper. Single issues will cost twenty cents.

LETTER TO THE MAYOR

Hon. Kevin H. White,
Mayor of Boston,
City Hall.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

You have asked me to review the Ordinance passed by the City Council on Wednesday, December 12, 1979, entitled "An Ordinance Regulating Eviction for Condominium Conversions." After a review of the relevant enabling legislation, and application of general legal concepts relating to the authority of the City Council, I have concluded that some issues exist which may make the ordinance as passed susceptible to challenge.

My reasons for this conclusion are as follows:

A. Courts have already held that a city or town may not under its home rule powers enact rent control provisions. There must be "an explicit and appropriate delegation of authority . . . in accordance with and subject to specified statutory standards." Marshall House Inc. v. Rent Review and Grievance Board of Brookline, 357 Mass. 709, 720 (1970). This requirement mandates that the scheme for regulating rents and evictions in the City of Boston be set forth in a special legislative delegation. St. 1969, c. 797 as amended by St. 1970, c. 863. A procedure was set forth in the rent control statute which required a landlord filing an action for eviction in the courts of the Commonwealth to first secure a proper certificate of eviction from the Rent Control Board. Criminal penalties are attached for failure to meet this requirement.

While the City Council and Mayor under general Home Rule powers and the authority of the special legislation could add requirements to the present statutory scheme to regulate condominium conversions through city departments or agencies (i. e. Rent Board), it is beyond general Home Rule Authority to directly impose presumptions on and grant new defenses to parties in civil court actions. For example, the ordinance passed by the City Council requires courts directly to examine the presumptions of condominium conversion evictions, and to accept a new document, i. e. an affidavit rebutting such presumption. Changes in court jurisdiction and procedure relating to summary process can only be accomplished by amendment to M.C.L. c. 239 or the adoption of a rule of court.

B. Section 205 of the ordinance as passed by the City Council states:

"There shall be not change in the assessed value of any housing accommodation affected by the provisions of section four (sic.) until the periods of notice prescribed therein shall have expired."

The duties and responsibilities of assessors for cities and towns are set forth in the provisions of M.G.L. c. 59, as amended by 59A through c. 580 of the Acts of 1978, and by s. 15 of c. 797 of the Acts of 1979. By these provisions, the assessor is required to reassess all property on January 1, of each year. The terms of s. 205 of the ordinance would alter this responsibility with respect to a certain class of housing accommodations in the City of Boston. This change cannot be accomplished by ordinance, since it alters constitutional and statutory provisions of the Commonwealth.

It is for these reasons that I recommend that you transmit a letter to the City Council indicating the potential problems outlined above and requesting that they take whatever steps they deem appropriate to adopt amendments to correct the deficiencies. I would be pleased to make myself available to the City Council for inquiries.

Very truly yours,
Joseph D. Alviani,
Corporation Counsel,
City of Boston.

"SPECIAL COMMISSIONER" FOR JUBILEE 350

Captain Albert A. Swanson, historian for the Metropolitan District Commission, was honored recently by an appointment as "Special Commissioner" of Boston's Jubilee 350 by Deputy Mayor Katharine D. Kane.

The Jubilee 350 celebration is the birthday party for the City of Boston and will be observed as a series of events and happenings over several months of 1980.

Captain Swanson has been involved with the history of Boston and the 54 cities and towns of the Metropolitan district for several years. He was an organizer of the Operation Sail Committee, 1976; was involved with the development of the Boston Harbor Islands State Park, and will be working for the return of the Tall Ships in May and June of 1980.

Other port and harbor activities will include the Boston Jaycees programs and the American Sail Training Association.

ADDED CONSTRUCTION FOR SOUTHWEST CORRIDOR

More construction is about to begin on the Southwest Corridor project in Roxbury and Jamaica Plain. During the long construction period, community liaison activities will continue to inform residents and business people about project activities. An important part of the community liaison communication system will be the establishment of a "Construction Hot Line" telephone through which community members can contact the project staff directly in order to have questions answered or to register a complaint.

By dialing the Hot Line number, 722-3300, a caller can directly reach the MBTA Southwest Development Office's community liaison staff. The person answering the telephone can direct the caller to the most appropriate person for action at the MBTA. If the right person is unavailable, the operator will either take a message or direct the call to someone else qualified to respond to the call. The Hot Line will be monitored 24-hours a day with a device for recording messages. Messages received late at night will be acted on the next morning.

Someone living or working near the Corridor construction work may also call to inquire about the project schedule, the status of temporary detour routes, or the timing of temporary utility service interruption. Callers may also have general questions about the project plans for upcoming community meetings, or they may want to be placed on the project's mailing list. The Hot Line operator may be able to answer these questions or the caller may be referred to the community liaison representative for the caller's local area.

The Southwest Corridor Project Construction Hot Line went into action on November 7. Other information about the project can still be obtained by calling the Community Planners at their usual office number, but for questions and complaints related to construction in the field, call 722-3300.

JANUARY ACTIVITIES AT SCIENCE MUSEUM

The opening of three Planetarium courses and the showing of two free films are among January activities at Boston's Museum of Science.

Starting January 5 is Astro-Workshop for 12- to 15-year-olds. This is an activity-oriented course in general astronomy that meets for ten Saturday mornings, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Among the participants' projects are star mapmaking, building a spectroscope, and designing a telescope. The fee is $40 with a $10 discount for Museum Family Members.

Starting January 9 is Basic Navigation, a course for adults especially suited to those who will sail along the coast in small craft. It meets eight Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The fee is $50 with a membership deduction of $10.

The third Planetarium course, The New Astronomy, starts January 29 and meets for eight Tuesday evenings, also at 7:30 p.m. The course presents up-to-the-minute information on astronomical activity and discoveries. The fee is the same at that for Basic Navigation.

Earlier in the month, on Friday, January 4 at 6 and 8 p.m., the Museum shows a science-fiction film, The Purple Death from Outer Space, starring Flash Gordon. On Friday, January 17 at 7 and 8 p.m., the film will be The Flight of the Gossamer Condor, a realistic story of the development of an aircraft which won the Kremer Prize for completing a mile-long, figure-eight course.

The films are free with special Friday night admission of $1 for all ages.

DOE PLANS HEARING ON GAS RATIONING

The Department of Energy (DOE) will hold a public hearing on a proposed standby gasoline rationing plan.

The hearing will be held in the Gardner Auditorium, State House, Thursday and Friday, January 3 and 4, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

DOE is seeking public comment on the proposed rationing plans which would be imposed in the event of a 20 percent shortfall of gasoline and middle distillates.

According to Harold J. Keohane, DOE regional representative, "the gasoline lines last spring, OPEC increases and recent events in Iran dramatically illustrate our vulnerability to imported oil. Although oil and gasoline supplies are adequate now, we've got to be prepared for any emergencies."

Under the proposed plan, motor vehicle registrations would be the basis for distributing ration rights, which would probably come in the form of "checks" to be used to obtain coupons to buy gasoline. The number of coupons issued within each state would be determined by the gasoline use in the state during a specified base period. Legislation requires that the rationing plan be designed so that the degree of shortage is shared equally among the states.

Sufficient ration rights would be granted for certain priority activities to ensure that essential public services are maintained. Businesses and government organizations with significant off-highway gasoline requirements also would receive allotments based on historic use. Farmers would receive the coupons necessary to meet food and fiber production goals approved by the President.

State and local rationing offices would be responsible for providing additional coupons for hardship cases and to provide for the mobility needs of the handicapped.

DOE would permit the sale or transfer of ration rights among the public. However, DOE might also buy or sell coupons in order to insure their availability and to balance the supply of ration rights with the supply of gasoline.

The new rationing plan contains several changes from the one which was submitted earlier this year and which Congress failed to approve.

The main differences are that the new plan provides for: proportionate state adjustments to reflect each state's historic use of gasoline; supplemental allotments to businesses based on historic use; a more active federal role in the ration rights market; an expanded state role in administering hardship allotments and addressing imbalances within each state; and provisions which permit the use of simplified procedures in the event it is necessary to impose rationing before all plans have been completed.

The Emergency Energy Conservation Act (EECA), signed by the President, November 5, 1979, requires the preparation of a standby rationing plan.

Once a rationing plan is formally transmitted to Congress, Congress has 30 days in which to review it. Unless a joint resolution of disapproval is enacted during this review, the plan would be considered approved and would remain in standby status.

Rationing could be imposed only if the President finds that a 20 percent shortfall of gasoline and middle distillate exists, or is likely to exist, for at least 30 days. The President's decision to implement rationing would be subject to veto by either house of Congress. If the President found it necessary to impose rationing with less than a 20 percent shortfall, both houses of Congress would have to approve.

Copies of the proposed standby gasoline rationing plan, issued in the Federal Register, December 10, 1979, are available by calling 617-223-5257 or writing the DOE Region I Office, 150 Causeway Street, Room 700, Boston, MA 02114.

Persons wishing to testify at the hearing should contact Kathy Healy in the Region I DOE Office.

Written comments must be received by Wednesday, January 9, 1980, in the Office of Public Hearing Management, Department of Energy, Room 2113, 2000 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts based on the following information:

PROPERTY EQUALIZATION

Dear Mayor White:

On January 22, 1979, this department awarded a contract, approved by your Honor without public advertising, to the Joseph E. Hunt and Company, Inc., of 2416 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, during the period February 1, 1979, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $26,000.

Your authorization is requested to amend this award letter to read Joseph E. Hunt and Company, Inc., of 2416 Hillsboro Road, Nashville.

Whereas, all other terms of the original award are correct (total allocation: $26,000), approval of this amendment will enable the Office of Property Equalization to execute the contract as planned.

Sincerely,
Arthur E. Shea,
Director.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to amend Contract Number 9000 to Paul J. Gerry, C.P.A., P.C., a professional corporation, with offices at 1162-B Blue Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Massachusetts, from an amount not to exceed ($90,000) to an amount not to exceed ($166,610) and to extend the period of performance to December 31, 1978.

The additional amendment of $76,610 represents additional work on: a) Audit of centrally administered costs and accumulate documentation for disallowed costs for the Model Cities Program ($21,100); b) Interim Assistance Program ($17,400); c) Miscellaneous matters ($38,100).

With regard to item (a) over 800 additional hours were needed on various subcontractors which were not anticipated in the original proposal. The problem had to do with payments made in excess of allowable costs and resulted in the auditors identifying in excess of $115,000 due back to the City of Boston.

The increase for the Interim Assistance Program (b) was for time spent with the HUD auditors, the HUD area office personnel and accumulating additional information to present to HUD to support the city's position.

The miscellaneous classification (c) represents work that was not included in the scope of the original contract. This work included reconciling Model city records with the Auditing Department; negotiations with the U.S. Post Office (resulted in refund to city of $12,000); negotiations with the CDC (which should result in refund to the city $50,000); assistance to the city in claims against it by contractors; claims by HUD for the 115 and 312 loan programs; and a special investigation by HUD of the Re-Hab Grant Program.

In view of the specialized and professional nature of the services and Mr. Gerry's knowledge in this area, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose. Further, it is the consensus of those involved with this program that the cost is reasonable.

Sincerely,
Katharine D. Kane,
Deputy Mayor.

Engineering Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on April 11, 1979, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to enter into an agreement with Walter J. Hickey Associates, Inc., of 135 Wood Road, Braintree, amending a contract executed September 15, 1978, providing for general engineering and survey services for the period July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, so as to increase the amount authorized from $20,000 to $21,500 (payable at the rates set forth in the contract), which is a reasonable cost.

This requested increase will cover the cost of remaining work at the Albany Street vehicle storage lot, Kneeland Street pumping station, and West Roxbury police station.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that existing and executed city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on February 14, 1979, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertising in the City Record, and to enter into an agreement with Brown, Rona Inc., of 711 Boylston Street, amending a contract executed November 13, 1978, providing for engineering services in designing roof repairs of the old building portion of the Suffolk County Courthouse and prepare a written report to include remedial action necessary and the cost estimates to repair or replace to correct the frequent loss of roofing materials, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $5,000 to $7,500, which is a reasonable cost.

The city has requested the consultant to supervise installation of the roof when construction commences in April and this amendment will cover the cost of such supervision and inspection services, which shall be payable at the hourly rates set forth in the contract.

Due to the provision of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

Alterations and Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on February 14, 1979, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to enter into an agreement with Maurice J. Kennedy, architect, of 1895 Centre Street, West Roxbury, amending a contract executed January 26, 1979, providing for architectural/engineering services in the preparation of plans, specifications and construction cost estimates and supervision of construction of alterations and repairs to the Dorchester Municipal Building at 500 Columbia Road for the continued use of the building and facilities, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $24,950 to $43,720 (including $10,000 for supplementary services) which is a reasonable cost.

This request is a result of extensive fire damage in November, 1978, necessitating reconstruction of portions of the roof, restructuring of the running track, repairs to handball court and floors, additional window replacement and painting, and alterations of heating and ventilating system. The new estimated cost of construction is $300,000 which, times the applicable rate of 11.24 percent (including 2.5 percent for alterations and repairs) result in a basic fee of $33,720, an increase of $13,770 (plus an additional $5,000 for supplementary services).

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Donald B. Manson,
Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT
Equipment Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At the present time the City of Boston has a contract for miscellaneous repairs to Euclid, Terex, and Hydrocrane equipment with Babcock Equipment Co., Inc., 163 Highland Avenue Needham. The contract amount is $13,580.

The services of the above-named contractor have been utilized to the financial limit of the contract. Additional repairs are now required that were not included in the original contract estimate.

The equipment to be repaired is assigned to our Gardner Street sanitary landfill and it is in the interest of the public safety and health that the equipment be repaired with a minimum amount of delay.

For the above-stated reason, your approval is requested to amend this contract with an additional amount of $12,000.

Respectfully,
Robert P. Mehegan,
Acting Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At the present time the City of Boston has a contract for undercarriage repairs to Terex dozer Model 82-30B with the Clark Wilcox Co., Inc., 118 Western Avenue. The contract amount is $30,995.

To insure a minimum amount of downtime on our equipment at our Gardner Street sanitary landfill, we have used the services of the above-named company to the financial limit of the contract.

Additional extensive repairs are now required that were not part of the original specifications.

Whereas it is in the interest of the public safety and health that this repair work be done immediately, your approval is requested to amend this contract with an additional amount of $25,000.

Respectfully,
Robert P. Mehegan,
Acting Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT Elevator Gates Replacement

Your Honor:

Permission is hereby requested to amend the contract of the Montgomery Elevator Co. of Moline, Illinois, to allow an added cost of $9,689.

The work is necessary to replace rails for the elevator gates at Kilby Street garage which was originally advertised for repairs, but some of them cannot be repaired and have to be replaced with new ones.

The cost is the difference between repairing and replacing.

I therefore, respectfully request your permission to amend this contract from the sum of $83,583 to $93,272. This is a reasonable cost.

Very truly yours,
Joanne A. Prevost,
Commissioner.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT Office Construction

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action to amend the contract with the Camdele Construction Co., 154 Salem Street, for partition work at 26 Court Street, advertised December 18, 1978, from $20,741 to $25,107.71. You did approve of my action in awarding the contract on January 4, 1979.

The purpose of the construction of new offices was necessary due to the reorganization of the administration staff. At that time, it was not known whether privacy in individual offices was necessary. However, after certain appointments were made, it was found that many of the offices had to deal with personnel problems and financial problems and in which privacy was a most important factor. It was then decided to extend the height of partitions seven feet to full height partitions to accommodate the privacy desired.

The increase of $4,366.71 for the above work is reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.
Electrical Work

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action to amend the contract with the Sullivan and McLaughlin Electrical Contractors, Inc., 1224 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester, for electrical work at South Boston High School, advertised January 10, 1977, from $62,888 to $68,002. You did approve of my action in awarding the contract on February 7, 1977.

This amendment to the contract was necessary due to the fact that it was necessary to replace an aluminum conduit which did not conform to the State Electrical Code and which must be replaced with new rigid conduits utilizing existing EMT runs.

The increase of $5,114 for the above work is reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.
Plumbing Modernization

I request your approval of my action to amend the contract with the Gaffny Plumbing & Heating Corp., North Main Street, Middleton, for modernization of plumbing facilities and heating plant in East Boston High School, advertised May 29, 1978, from $566,480 to $598,744.01. You did approve of my action in awarding the contract on June 28, 1978.

The extra work involved over and above the original contract was due to structural reinforcement of gymnasium columns and unforeseen conditions for all trades for plumbing, heating and electric which involved labor and materials. Additional labor involved to provide temporary heat in the building for the opening of school and during school hours until the heating system was completely installed which involved all trades.

The increase of $32,264.01 for the above work is reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.
Hand Tools, etc.

Dear Mayor White:

I am writing to you to inform you of our desire to remove an item from our contract with the Broadhead-Garrett, Inc. vendor, 4560 East 71st Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44105. The contract specified the delivery of a carpentry hand tool cabinet and hand tools (TS-400). The contract was awarded on June 26, 1978. It has turned out that this substitute was not an equal to the unit specified originally. Over eight months have now elapsed and the McKinley School has not received the correct item. Broadhead-Garrett shipped an unacceptable alternate which the McKinley School would not accept, and which was taken back by Broadhead-Garrett. No initiative has been taken to assure the McKinley School of delivery of the correct item (TS-10).

Therefore, we would like to amend the contract with Pleasantville Educational Supply Company and award the contract to the next lowest bidder, Pleasantville Educational Supply Company, 21 Paulding Street Pleasantville, New York 10570. We would like PESCO to deliver and set in place, PESCO 10.BT carpentry hand tool cabinet and hand tools. The Pleasantville Educational Supply Company's record for early and complete deliveries has ranked at the top for the McKinley School. The Pleasantville Educational Supply Company will honor their bid price of $2,300 from almost one year ago. These funds are from the McKinley School account P.L. 90-576, Project 78-035-695-978-1, Code 5817-421-2510-74. The new amended contract to Pleasantville Educational Supply Company should change from $9,185.20 to $11,485.20 taking into account the additional $2,300 item.

Whereas the McKinley School has waited so long already for these tools and whereas PESCO was the second lowest bidder and can now supply these items, we request that you approve the amending of the Pleasantville Educational Supply Company.

Your prompt attention would be greatly appreciated in this matter.

Sincerely,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.
